POST OFFICE

SCHEME T1/1978

NOTE: The Scheme which follows this Note has been made under Section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969 and will come into operation on the 21st January 1978. It amends the Post Office Telecommunication Scheme 1976 (Post Office Scheme T1/1976) as amended by the Post Office Telecommunication Amendment (No. 1) Scheme 1976 (Post Office Scheme T2/1976) and the Post Office Telecommunication Amendment (No. 2A) Scheme 1977 (Post Office Scheme T1A/1977).

The principal changes are to the provisions relating to the use of telephone and telex installations by or on behalf of persons other than the subscriber. Their main purpose is to comply with international telecommunication arrangements by imposing certain restrictions on such use when engaged in as a business by the subscriber.

(This Note is not part of the Scheme)

THE POST OFFICE TELECOMMUNICATION AMENDMENT (NO. 3) SCHEME 1978

Made - - - - - 11th January 1978

Coming into operation - - 21st January 1978

The Post Office, by virtue of the powers conferred upon it by Section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969, and of all other powers enabling it in this behalf, hereby makes the following Scheme:

Commencement and citation

1. This Scheme shall come into operation on the 21st January 1978 and may be cited as the Post Office Telecommunication Amendment (No. 3) Scheme 1978.

Interpretation

- 2.—(1) This Scheme shall be read as one with the Post Office Telecommunication Scheme 1976 (Post Office Scheme T1/1976) (hereinafter called "the principal Scheme") as amended by the Post Office Telecommunication Amendment (No. 1) Scheme 1976 (Post Office Scheme T2/1976) and the Post Office Telecommunication Amendment (No. 2A) Scheme 1977 (Post Office Scheme T1A/1977).

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889 applies for the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Value added tax

3. For paragraph 19(1) of the principal Scheme there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

"19.—(1) This paragraph applies to every rental or other charge in the case of which an amount is specified in or fixed under or continued in force by virtue of the provisions of this Scheme and to every rental or other charge which under or by virtue of this Scheme falls to be calculated by reference to a rate or rates so specified or fixed or continued in force, being (in either case) a rental or other charge for a supply on which value added tax is chargeable, other than a charge or rate for telephone calls (or for services and facilities in relation to particular telephone calls) made from a call office or a coin box line or telephone, not being a credit card telephone call made to a place outside the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and the Republic of Ireland."

Charges specified in appropriate Schedules

4. In paragraph 20 of the principal Scheme for the words "Schedule 17 specifies single payment charges for certain items of equipment and apparatus." there shall be substituted the words "Schedule 17 specifies single payment charges for miscellaneous equipment and apparatus, services and facilities."

Charges for certain work requested by subscriber

5. For paragraph 29(1) of the principal Scheme there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

"29.—(1) If the subscriber or a person appearing to the Post Office to be acting on his behalf requests the Post Office to carry out work to remedy a fault in an installation or any part thereof outside such hours as the Post Office may from time to time determine to be normal working hours, and the Post Office accedes to such request, the subscriber shall pay in respect of any work done outside such hours as aforesaid in remedying or attempting to remedy the fault such charge as the Post Office may fix."

Single payment charge

6. For paragraph 30(1) of the principal Scheme (as amended) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

"30.—(1) If the Post Office so requires, the subscriber shall make a single payment in respect of the provision of any equipment, apparatus, service or facility in addition to any rental, connection, or other charge payable thereof."

Restrictions on assignment of telephone service and use of telephone installation

7. For paragraph 44 of the principal Scheme there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

"Restrictions on assignment of telephone service and use of telephone installation:

44.—(1) A subscriber shall not, except with the written consent of the Post Office, assign, dispose of or part with telephone service provided under this Scheme.

(2) A subscriber may use his telephone installation for the purpose of sending and receiving messages on behalf of other persons and may allow other persons to use his telephone installation for the purpose of sending and receiving messages on their own behalf. The subscriber shall observe the following conditions as to such use, unless the Post Office otherwise consents in writing, and also any other conditions as to such use which the Post Office may, from time to time, notify to him in writing:

(a) unless the Post Office otherwise consents in writing, a subscriber who is engaged in the business of sending and receiving messages on behalf of other persons by means of his telephone installation and/or allowing other persons to use his telephone installation for the purpose of sending and receiving messages on their own behalf shall not so use or allow his telephone installation to be so used for the purpose of sending to or receiving from a place outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man any message intended for ultimate reception in visual form:

(b) where the installation consists of or includes an external telephone exchange line extension connecting premises occupied by the subscriber with premises occupied by another person, the subscriber shall not, without the written consent of the Post Office, receive or permit any other person to receive any consideration either directly or indirectly in return for or on account of the use of the subscriber's telephone exchange line extension by or on behalf of any person other than the subscriber or any person to whose premises the extension is connected with the approval of the Post Office. The term "consideration" includes besides money or money's worth the giving or withholding of business or any advantage or benefit of any kind or description.

(3) A subscriber who fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph shall continue to be liable for all rental and other charges due and to become due in respect of telephone service."

Credit card calls

8.—(1) In paragraph 58(3) of the principal Scheme for the words "item 8" there shall be substituted "item 9".

(2) In paragraph 58(6)(a) of the principal Scheme for the words "item 9 of Schedule 27" there shall be substituted "item 4 of Part I of Schedule 27".

"Restrictions on assignment of telex service and use of telex installation.

9. For paragraph 70 of the principal Scheme there shall be substituted the following paragraph:

Restrictions on assignment of telex service and use of telex installation.

70.—(1) A subscriber shall not, except with the written consent of the Post Office, assign, dispose of or part with telex service provided under this Scheme.

(2) A subscriber may use his telex installation for the purpose of sending and receiving messages on behalf of other persons and may allow other persons to use his telex installation for the purpose of sending and receiving messages on their own behalf. The subscriber shall observe the following conditions as to such use, unless the Post Office otherwise consents in writing, and also any other conditions as to such use which the Post Office may, from time to time, notify to him in writing:

(a) in the case of messages which both originate and are to be delivered in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man the Post Office may require that the message be delivered by post as a postal packet but if the Post Office does not so require, the subscriber may deliver the message by other means directly to the person for whom it is intended or allow the message to be collected by that person;

(b) any message which originates outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man shall not be sent onwards to a destination outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man;

(c) any message which originates outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man shall not be sent onwards to a destination within the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man unless it is received as a telex call made directly to the subscriber's installation by the originator of the message. The Post Office may require that a message so received for onward transmission be delivered by post as a postal packet, but if the Post Office does not so require, the subscriber may deliver the message by other means directly to the person for whom it is intended or allow the message to be collected by that person;

(d) any message which originates in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man shall not be sent onwards to a destination outside the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man unless it is sent as a telex call from the subscriber's installation directly to the person for whom the message is ultimately intended by the originator of the message.

(3) A subscriber who fails to comply with paragraph (1) shall continue to be liable for all rental and other charges due and to become due in respect of telex service."

Arrangement of Schedules

10. In Schedule 17 of the Arrangement of Schedules to the principal Scheme for the words "Single payment charges for miscellaneous items of equipment and apparatus." there shall be substituted the words "Single payment charges for miscellaneous equipment and apparatus, services and facilities."
