

(2) Any redirected packet which appears to have been opened before being redirected, and any packet which purports to be redirected, but which appears to have been treated in a manner designed to evade the payment of any postage chargeable thereon shall be dealt with and charged as an unpaid packet of the same description or otherwise dealt with as the Post Office may think fit.

Poste restante

34. The following provisions shall apply to postal packets addressed to a post office to be called for:

- (a) Except as the Post Office may otherwise decide, the service is provided only for the convenience of travellers.
- (b) The address of such packets shall include the words "To be called for" or "Poste Restante".
- (c) Such packets shall not be addressed to an addressee designated by a fictitious name, or by initials only, or by a forename without a surname.
- (d) The Post Office may refuse to deliver any such packet to a caller unless it is satisfied of the caller's identity.
- (e) Such packets shall not be retained at the post office for delivery to the caller for more than 14 days, unless the Post Office shall otherwise decide in relation to any particular packet or class or description of packets.
- (f) The Post Office may refuse or cease to retain for delivery to the caller any such packet the retention of which would in its opinion involve an abuse of the service, or which contravenes sub-paragraphs (b) or (c), or which is addressed to a post office at which the service is not available.
- (g) The sender may add to the address of any such packet a request that the packet may, if not called for within the time specified in the request, be returned to the sender or some person designated by him; and (subject to sub-paragraph (e)) at the expiration of such time the packet shall be returned as specified in the request.
- (h) The provisions of this Scheme as to the return, or treatment of, undeliverable postal packets shall apply to any such packet which the Post Office refuses or ceases to retain for delivery to the caller.

Rebate postings of second class letters

35. (1) The Post Office may accept consignments of second class letters for transmission by post as rebate postings under this paragraph.

(2) A rebate posting shall consist of a consignment of not less than 4,251 second class letters all sent by the same sender, each (except where and so far as, the Post Office otherwise allows) being such as to be chargeable with the same amount of postage and being identical with the others in size and shape.

(3) The name and address of the sender shall appear legibly on the outside of all letters intended for transmission by post under this paragraph where the sender wishes the letter to be returned to him as provided in paragraph 16(2).

(4) Unless the Post Office in any particular case otherwise allows in writing, a person who proposes to make a rebate posting shall make application therefor to the Post Office on a prescribed postal form at least 24 hours before the time at which he wishes to make the posting.

(5) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 27(2) (and subject to sub-paragraph (8) of this paragraph), the sender shall comply with such conditions as the Post Office may consider appropriate in the particular case as to:

- (a) the manner in which the postage on the individual letters comprised in the rebate posting is to be paid;
- (b) the sorting and assembly of the individual letters by the sender into groups, so that all the letters contained in any one group are letters addressed to places in the same county, city or town, or in the same postal or other district or area (as such conditions may require), and so that the address sides of all the outer covers in the group face in the same direction;
- (c) the manner, time, day, and office at which the rebate posting is to be delivered to the Post Office for transmission;
- (d) any incidental or supplemental matters for which the Post Office may consider it expedient to provide;

and any such condition as to the matters referred to in (c) of this sub-paragraph may require the groups of letters to be divided into separate and secured bundles to be delivered to the Post Office at different times or on different days.

(6) Where the Post Office has accepted a consignment of letters as a rebate posting for transmission under this paragraph and the sender has complied with all the conditions falling to be complied with under sub-paragraph (5) the Post Office shall refund to the sender (or allow him in account) a rebate of part of the aggregate amount of the postage charged on those letters, the amount of such rebate in any case being the amount specified in the following Table which is appropriate to the number of letters in the consignment:
