

regulations entitled the Employment Medical Advisory Service (Factories Act Legislation Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1979 (S.R. 1979 No. 187) which shall come into operation on 9th July, 1979.

These Regulations make amendments to seventeen instruments, under the Factories Act (Northern Ireland) 1965, which are listed in the Table below. These amendments are necessary or expedient in consequence of Part III of the Health and Safety at Work (Northern Ireland) Order 1978. They provide that medical examinations of persons employed and related functions under the instruments in the Table below shall be performed by fully registered medical practitioners appointed in accordance with the provisions of the said Order.

They also change the procedure by which the employment of any person in certain processes mentioned in the said instruments may be prohibited where the doctor examining that person is of the opinion that the continued employment of that person in that process would involve special danger to his health.
