- (a) by virtue of which provisions of section 6 of that Act that monopoly situation is to be taken to exist;
- (b) in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- (c) whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or those persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way;
- (d) whether any action or omission on the part of that person or those persons is attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation and, if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and
- (e) whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of their investigations under the preceding provisions of this paragraph operate, or may be expected to operate, against the public interest.

For the purposes of this reference:

- (a) "concrete" means any substance consisting predominantly of a mixture of sand, stone, cement and water, and
- (b) "ready mixed" means mixed to a fresh condition with the required properties for use, whether in a central mixer or truck mixer, and batched elsewhere than at the site where the concrete is required for use.

The Commission shall report on this reference within a period of eighteen months from the date of this reference.
