

(17) Where there is an arrangement between the Post Office and an Authority providing telephone service under licence from the Post Office or an Authority providing telephone service anywhere outside the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man whereby the holders of credit cards issued by that Authority to its subscribers may make calls from telephones on the Post Office system on terms that the call charges will be paid by those subscribers the following provision shall apply:

A person who satisfies the Post Office that he is the holder of a current credit card issued by such Authority, and that the telephone to which he wishes to make a call is one to which he may make credit card calls under the arrangement, may make the call as a credit card call from any telephone on the Post Office system and in that case no call charge, service charge or other charge shall be payable under this Scheme by the caller or by the person who is the subscriber in respect of the telephone from which the call is made.

(18) This paragraph shall apply to services and facilities related to telephone calls and to the charges in respect of such services and facilities, as it applies to credit card calls and to the charges in respect thereof."
