The Department of the Environment has made a Statutory Rule entitled Motor Cycles (Protective Headgear) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1981 (SR 1981 No. 141).

This rule which comes into operation on 8th June 1981, revokes and replaces with amendments the Motor Cycles (Protective Headgear) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1980 as amended.

Where a helmet does not bear a marking indicating compliance with any of the British Standard specifications mentioned but does afford a degree of protection similar to or greater than that afforded by a helmet which bears a marking, it must be a helmet of a type manufactured for use by motor-cyclists. If a helmet is worn with a chin cup, it must be provided with an additional strap or other fastening for securing the helmet firmly on the wearer's head.

Subject to certain exceptions, persons travelling on roads on motor bicycles (except in a side-car) are required to wear protective headgear. The types of helmets recommended as affording protection for motor-cyclists in the event of accident and which to comply with Article 165 of the Road Traffic (NI) Order 1981 may be sold or hired as such a helmet are prescribed.

Provision is also made for helmets to be marked with the number of the British Standard with which they conform and the certification mark of the British Standards Institution and these Regulations set out the relevant British Standards as amended.
