RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT (NORTHERN IRELAND).

Whereas by Section 61 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) Act, 1877, as amended by Section 12 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) (No. 2) Act, 1897, as those enactments apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature in Northern Ireland under and subject to the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, the Supreme Court of Judicature (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made by His Majesty in Council under either of the two last-mentioned Acts, it is provided that upon the recommendation and with the concurrence of a majority of all the Judges of the said Supreme Court of Judicature for the time being (of which the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland shall be one), and one Barrister and one Solicitor (respectively practising in Northern Ireland) to be appointed for the purpose by the said Lord Chief Justice, by writing under his hand for such time as may be specified by him, the Governor of Northern Ireland may by Order in Council make Rules of Court and alter and annul any Rules of Court made under the enactments hereinbefore mentioned and for the time being in force in Northern Ireland:

And whereas certain Rules of Court, entitled "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Ireland), 1905," are in force in Northern Ireland under and subject to the provisions aforesaid, and as altered from time to time by the Lord Lieutenant and the said Governor by Order in Council:

And whereas a majority of all the Judges of the said Supreme Court of Judicature and the other persons upon whose recommendation the said Governor may make, alter or annul Rules of Court as respects Northern Ireland, present on the 29th day of April, 1930, at a meeting for that purpose held (of which majority the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland was one) have passed the resolution set out in the Schedule hereto for the making and alteration of certain Rules of Court in the manner appearing in the said Schedule:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now I, James Albert Edward, Duke of Abercorn, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, Governor of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in pursuance and by virtue of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) Act, 1877, as amended and applied to the said Supreme Court of Judicature as hereinbefore mentioned, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, and with the concurrence of a majority of all the Judges and the other persons hereinbefore mentioned and present at the meeting aforesaid, do hereby make the Rules of Court set out in the Schedule hereto.

And I do hereby order that the Rules made by this Order in Council shall take effect on and from the date hereof.

Given at the Council Chamber, Belfast, this 25th day of August, 1930.

Signed,

CRAIGAVON.

Fractional portions of a day to be allowed in proportion.

NOTE.—These charges to include Stationery and the Vouching Affidavit. The items are to be verified by the Affidavit of the Accountant in the prescribed form, and shall also be further vouched in such manner as the officer may consider necessary. Charges for an Accountant shall not be allowed or paid out of the estate of any Bankrupt or Arranging Debtor without an order of the Court.

Shorthand Writers.

159. For taking the note of the evidence, for the first hour or part of an hour occupied ... 10s. 6d.

For each subsequent hour or part of an hour ... 6s. 8d.

Not to exceed in one day ... £2 2s.

The time in every case to be certified by the Registrar at the close of the day.

160. For the transcript of the notes of the evidence, per folio ... 6d.

Or, if such transcript shall be required by the Judge, or any party, to be made immediately after such notes shall have been taken, per folio ... 8d.

But in no case shall the fee for transcription be less than 10s. 6d.

NOTE.—The transcript is not to be made except specially required, but the original note is, in all cases, to be filed in the office of the Court.

4. An application under Section 2 of the Act 1929 shall be initiated by a Notice entitled, In the Matter of the Deed of Arrangement to which the application relates, and In the Matter of Section 2 of the Bankruptcy Amendment Act (Northern Ireland), 1929, and shall be in the prescribed form, and there shall be lodged with such application an office copy of the Deed of Arrangement to which such application shall relate.

Notice to Debtor or Trustee.

5. Where a petition in Bankruptcy lodged against a debtor or debtors is grounded on the creation of an act of Bankruptcy by the execution by the debtor or debtors of such a deed of arrangement as is described in Section 2 of the Act 1929, or on any other act committed by a debtor in the course or for the purposes of the proceedings preliminary to the execution of such deed, the petitioner before proceeding upon said petition shall serve sealed copies of such petition upon such debtor or debtors and the trustee or trustees under such deed eight clear days before the time fixed for the hearing of such petition.

Composition or Arrangement with Creditors.

6. Notice of any special sitting of the Court to be held under the provisions of Section 4 of the Act 1929 shall be given to the creditors and vouched in like manner as notices of the composition sitting after bankruptcy are required to be given.

Administration of Estates of Deceased Insolvents.

7. A creditor's petition and a petition by the legal personal representatives of the deceased under Section 21 of the Act 1929 shall be verified by affidavit.

8. Where an administration order under Section 21, sub-section 2 of the Act 1929 is made, such order shall be gazetted and advertised in the same manner in all respects as an order of adjudication is gazetted and advertised. The Court shall in every such notice of administration order appoint a public sitting of the Court for proof of debt and for appointment of a Creditors' Assignee, such sitting shall be upon a day not less than twenty days and not exceeding forty days from such advertisement.

9. The Rules for the appointment and choice of a creditors' assignee under an order for adjudication in Bankruptcy under the Act of 1857 shall apply to the choice and appointment of a creditors' assignee under an order of administration under Section 21 of the Act 1929, and the rights and duties of a creditors' assignee appointed under this Rule shall be similar in every respect to the rights and duties of a creditors' assignee appointed under the Act of 1857.

10. A petition presented by a creditor of a deceased debtor shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be served on each executor personally who has proved the will, or as the case may be, on each person personally who has taken out letters of administration. The Court may also, if the Court thinks fit, order any petition under Section 21 of the Act 1929 to be served on any person or persons as to the Court may seem meet. Any such petition shall be served upon the person to be served at least eight clear days before the time fixed for the hearing of such petition.

11. When an administration order under Section 21 of the Act 1929 has been made it shall be the duty of the executor or other legal personal representative of the deceased debtor to lodge with the Official Assignee forthwith (in duplicate) an account of the dealings with, and administration of (if any) the deceased's estate by such executor or other legal personal representative, and such executor or other legal personal representative shall also furnish forthwith in duplicate a list of the creditors, and a statement of the assets and liabilities, and such other particulars of the affairs of the deceased as may be required by the Official Assignee. Every account, list and statement to be made under this Rule shall be made and verified as nearly as may be in accordance with the practice for the time being of the Chancery Division of the High Court. The expense of preparing, making, verifying and lodging any account, list and statement under this Rule shall, after being taxed, be allowed out of the estate upon production of the necessary allocatur.

12. If any case in which an administration order under Section 21 of the Act 1929 has been made, and it appears to the Court, on the report of the Official Assignee, that no executor or legal personal representative exists, the account, list and statement mentioned in the last preceding Rule shall be made, verified and lodged by such person as in the opinion of the Court, upon such report, may have taken upon himself the administration of, or may otherwise have intermeddled with the property of the deceased, or any part thereof.

13. In proceedings under an order for the administration of the estate of a person dying insolvent, where a meeting of the creditors is summoned for the appointment of a trustee under Section 87 of the Act 1872, the provisions of the rules under the Trustee clauses of the Act 1872 shall apply, and the provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, which refer to creditors, trustees, and committees of inspection, shall, so far as applicable, apply as if the proceedings were under an order of adjudication.

14. Where the estate of a deceased debtor shall vest in the Official Assignee under an order made under Section 21 of the Act 1929, the rights and duties of the Official Assignee in regard to such an estate shall be similar to his rights and duties under an order of adjudication in Bankruptcy.

Service of any Petition required to be served.

15. A Petition for administration of a deceased person's estate under Section 21 of the Act 1929 or grounded on the execution by the debtor of a Trust Deed or on any other act committed by the debtor in the course or for the purposes of the proceedings preliminary to the execution of the Deed, shall be personally served by delivering to the person to be served a sealed copy of the filed petition.

16. Any such petition shall be served by an officer of the Court, or by the petitioner or his Solicitor, or by some person in his employ, provided that if personal service cannot be effected, the Court may extend the time for hearing the petition, or if the Court is satisfied by affidavit or other evidence on oath that the person required to be served is keeping out of the way to avoid such service, or service of any other legal process, or that for any other cause prompt personal service cannot be effected, may order substituted service to be made by delivery of the petition to some adult inmate at his usual or last known residence or place of business, or by registered letter, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, and that such petition shall then be deemed to have been duly served on the person required to be served.

17. Service of any such petition shall be proved by affidavit, with a sealed copy of the petition attached, which shall be filed in Court forthwith after the service.

18. Where the person required to be served with a petition under Section 21 of the Act 1929, or a petition grounded on the execution by the debtor of a Trust Deed or on any other act committed by the debtor in the course or for the purposes of the proceedings preliminary to the execution of such Trust Deed, is not in Northern Ireland, the Court may order service to be made within such time and in such manner and form as it shall think fit.

19. Where there are more respondents than one to a petition the Rules as to service shall be observed with respect to each respondent, but where all the respondents have not been served, the petition may be heard separately or collectively as to the respondent or such of the respondents as has or have been served, and separately or collectively as to the respondents not then served, according as service upon them is effected.

20. The Registrar shall appoint the time and place at which a petition which requires to be served will be heard, and notice thereof shall be written on such petition and sealed copies, and where such petition has not been served the Registrar may from time to time alter the first day so appointed, and appoint another day and hour.

21. An application for extension of time for hearing a petition which by these Rules is required to be served shall be in writing, but need not be supported by affidavit unless in any case the Court shall otherwise require.

22. Where any person entitled to do so intends to shew cause against a petition presented under Section 21 of the Act 1929 he shall file a notice with the Registrar, specifying the statements in the petition which he intends to deny or dispute and transmit by post to the petitioner and his solicitor, if known, a copy of the notice three days before the day on which the petition is to be heard.

23. Where, on the appearance of such person entitled to shew cause against the petition, further time shall be desired to shew cause, the Court shall, on the hearing, if the application appears to the Court to be reasonable, grant such further time as the Court may think fit.

24. Where proceedings on a petition have been stayed for the trial of the question of the validity of the petitioning creditor's debt, and such question has been decided in favour of the validity of the debt, the petitioning creditor may apply to the Registrar to fix a day on which further proceedings on the petition may be heard, and the Registrar on production of the Judgment of the Court in which the question was tried, or an office copy or certificate thereof, shall fix the time and place for the hearing of the petition, and thereupon the petitioner or his solicitor shall serve notice thereof upon the person who disputed such debt at the address given in his notice to dispute, or to his Solicitor, if known.

25. Where proceedings on a petition have been stayed for the trial of the question of the validity of the petitioning creditor's debt, and such question has been decided against the validity of the debt, the person who disputed such debt may apply to the Registrar to fix a day on which he may apply to the Court for the dismissal of the petition with costs, and the Registrar, on the production of the Judgment of the Court in which the question was tried, or an office copy thereof, shall fix the time and place for the hearing of the application, and the disputant or his solicitor shall give notice thereof to the petitioner or his solicitor.

26. Pleading by Charge and Discharge shall be available in proceedings under Section 21 of the Act 1929.

Proceedings Generally.

27. In matters under the Act 1929, the proceedings may be in the several forms which shall be, from time to time, prescribed and sanctioned by the Court, or as near thereto as possible, and where forms for any proceeding in such matters are not prescribed, the forms required may be framed by the parties, using as guides those so prescribed, so far as they are applicable.

Costs.

28. The costs and fees payable to Solicitors and the charges of all other persons in respect of proceedings under the Act 1929, shall be calculated in accordance with the existing Bankruptcy or Chancery scales applicable to similar proceedings.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT (NORTHERN IRELAND).

Whereas by Section 61 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) Act, 1877, as amended by Section 12 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) (No. 2) Act, 1897, as those enactments apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature in Northern Ireland under and subject to the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, the Supreme Court of Judicature (Northern Ireland) Order, 1921, and any other Order made by His Majesty in Council under either of the two last-mentioned Acts, it is provided that upon the recommendation and with the concurrence of a majority of all the Judges of the said Supreme Court of Judicature for the time being (of which the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland shall be one), and one Barrister and one Solicitor (respectively practising in Northern Ireland) to be appointed for the purpose by the said Lord Chief Justice, by writing under his hand for such time as may be specified by him, the Governor of Northern Ireland may by Order in Council make Rules of Court and alter and annul any Rules of Court made under the enactments hereinbefore mentioned and for the time being in force in Northern Ireland:

And whereas certain Rules of Court, entitled "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Ireland), 1905," are in force in Northern Ireland under and subject to the provisions aforesaid, and as altered from time to time by the Lord Lieutenant and the said Governor by Order in Council:

And whereas a majority of all the Judges of the said Supreme Court of Judicature and the other persons upon whose recommendation the said Governor may make, alter or annul Rules of Court as respects Northern Ireland, present on the 5th day of May, 1930, at a meeting for that purpose held (of which majority the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland was one) have passed the resolution set out in the Schedule hereto for the making of certain Rules of Court in the manner appearing in the said Schedule:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now I, James Albert Edward, Duke of Abercorn, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, Governor of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in pursuance and by virtue of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Ireland) Act, 1877, as amended and applied to the said Supreme Court of Judicature as hereinbefore mentioned, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, and with the concurrence of a majority of all the Judges and the other persons hereinbefore mentioned and present at the meeting aforesaid, do hereby make the Rules of Court set out in the Schedule hereto.

And I do hereby order that the Rules made by this Order in Council shall take effect on and from the date hereof.

ADOPTION OF CHILDREN (SUPREME COURT) RULES, 1930.

ORDER LIX B.

1. All proceedings commenced in the Supreme Court under the Adoption of Children Act (Northern Ireland), 1929 (hereinafter called "the Act") shall be heard and determined by the Lord Chief Justice, or by such other Judge of the High Court to whom such matters may from time to time be assigned by the Lord Chief Justice.

2. An application for an Adoption Order shall be made by originating Petition addressed to the Lord Chief Justice and intituled in the matter of the infant and in the matter of the Act. The proposed adopter shall be the Petitioner, and every Petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits verifying the facts alleged in the Petition, and such affidavit or affidavits shall be filed with the Petition. The Petition shall contain all information necessary to enable the Court to make an Order complying with the provisions of Section 11 (2) and the Schedule to the Act. Copies of the Petition and of such affidavit or affidavits shall be served upon the infant, the General Solicitor for Minors, and such other person or persons as the Lord Chief Justice or such other Judge as aforesaid may direct.

3. Every application for an Adoption Order may be heard and determined either in open Court or otherwise as the Lord Chief Justice or such other Judge as aforesaid may in the circumstances of the case deem desirable.

4. Upon the hearing of any application for an Adoption Order the Lord Chief Justice or such other Judge as aforesaid may appoint a guardian ad litem with the duty of safeguarding the interests of the infant before the court.

5. The Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court shall be the prescribed Officer for the purpose of sub-section (4) of Section 11 of the Act. Every order made upon an application under the Act shall be drawn up by the Chief Clerk.

6. Upon the making of an Adoption Order the prescribed officer shall communicate in writing to the Registrar-General for Northern Ireland within seven days of the Order being passed and entered the directions to the Registrar-General for Northern Ireland given by the Order. The communication shall be drawn up on paper of foolscap folio size (13 x 8 inches). If the communication is sent by post, it shall be sent by registered post.

7. Any person dissatisfied with the decision on any question of law made by a County Court Judge in the exercise by him of any jurisdiction under the Act may require the County Court Judge to state and sign a case for the opinion of the Lord Chief Justice or such other Judge to whom matters arising under the Act may have been assigned as aforesaid by the Lord Chief Justice, and the Rules for the time being in force with respect to appeals by case stated under Section 6 of the County Court Appeals (Ireland) Act, 1889, shall so far as practicable apply to appeals by way of case stated under this Rule.

ESTATE DUTY.

Finance Act (Northern Ireland), 1930—Date of Operation of Section 4.

1930. No. 106.

BY THE GOVERNOR AND PRIVY COUNCIL OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

ABERCORN.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 4 of the Finance Act (Northern Ireland), 1930 (in this Order referred to as the "Northern Ireland Act"), that the said Section of the Northern Ireland Act shall come into operation on the date which is declared by the Governor of Northern Ireland in Council to be the date on and from which by virtue of legislation passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom a new scale (in this Order referred to as "the substituted scale") is substituted for the scale set out in the Fourth Schedule to the Finance Act, 1925, as the scale of rates at which Estate Duty is payable in Great Britain:

Now I, James Albert Edward, Duke of Abercorn, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick, Governor of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Northern Ireland Act and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, do hereby declare that the 1st day of August, 1930, is the date on and from which, by virtue of an Act passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, entitled the Finance Act, 1930, the substituted scale came into force in Great Britain, and the said date is accordingly the date on which Section 4 of the Northern Ireland Act comes into operation.

This Order may be cited as The Estate Duty (Northern Ireland) Order, 1930.

Given at the Council Chamber, Belfast, this 25th day of August, One thousand nine and thirty.
