

NOTICE OF CHARITABLE BEQUESTS.

In the Goods of HENRY MUSGRAVE, late of Drumglass, Lisburn Road, and 69 Ann Street, both in the City of Belfast, Esquire, D.L., O.B.E., Deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the Statute 30 and 31 Vict., Ch. 54, intituled "An Act to Amend the law of Charitable Donations and Bequests in Ireland," that the said Henry Musgrave by his Will bearing date the 29th day of July, 1915, and Codicils thereto, dated respectively the 5th April, 1918, 3rd April, 1919, 30th July, 1919, 14th November, 1919, 15th January, 1920, 18th March, 1921 and 19th August, 1921, bequeathed the following legacies:—

To the Belfast Corporation such of the residue of Testator's pictures as the Library Committee of the Belfast Corporation should select for the use and benefit of the Public Library in Royal Avenue, Belfast.

To the Queen's University, Belfast, such of the residue of Testator's books as the Senate of the said University or its nominee or nominees should select for the use and benefit of the said University.

To the Fisherwick Presbyterian Church, Malone Road, Belfast, the sum of £10,000 for such Mission purposes (Foreign or Home) as the Minister and Session of such Church may in their uncontrolled discretion think fit, but one half of such, at least, to be used and applied for Home Mission purposes.

To the Sustentation Fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland the sum of £2,000, to be invested and the annual income thereof to be treated as a Subscription to the said Fund.

To the said Fisherwick Presbyterian Church for the purpose of building or completing the building of schools in connection with the said Church the sum of £10,000.

To the Presbyterian Orphan Society, to be applied for the benefit of the Training Home, Hopefield Avenue, Belfast, in connection with such Society the sum of £1,000.

To the Old Age Fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, to be applied for the benefit of Indigent Ladies, the sum of £1,000.

To the Presbyterian Church, Market Square, Lisburn, the sum of £500.

To the Rev. Henry Montgomery, D.D., for such purposes in connection with the Shankill Road Mission, Belfast, as he in his uncontrolled discretion may think fit, the sum of £2,000.

To the Salvation Army, to be applied towards their work in Belfast and the surrounding district, £1,000.

To Dr. Barnardo's Homes, to be used in connection with the work of such homes in Belfast and the surrounding districts, the sum of £1,000.

To the Incorporated Cripples' Institute, People's Palace and Homes of Rest, Belfast, the sum of £1,000.

To the Representative Body of the Church of Ireland (Incorporated under the name of "The Representative Church Body"), to be held upon the trusts and with and subject to the powers, provisions and conditions (save the condition of reverter) declared and contained by and under an indenture dated 6th November, 1911, made between the Testator and his late Brother Edgar Musgrave of the one part, and the said Representative Church Body of the other part, concerning the property therein comprised in favour of Glencolumbkille Parish Church, the sum of £1,000.

To the said Representative Church Body a further sum of £500, to be held upon the like trusts and with and subject to the like powers, provisions and conditions (save the condition of reverter) in favour of Kilcar Parish Church, County Donegal, as are declared and contained in and by the said Indenture of 6th November, 1911, concerning the property therein comprised, in favour of Glencolumbkille Parish Church. To the said Representative Church Body the sum of £150 upon Trust, to invest the same and apply the income thereof for its general purposes while and so long as the Representative Church Body shall, twice at least in every year, and otherwise than out of the income of such legacy, clean the Musgrave family burial ground and tomb in the Churchyard of the Cathedral at Lisburn, County Antrim, and if and so far as the said tomb and the inscriptions thereon shall be broken, defaced or out of repair, amend and restore the same, and if and so soon as the Representative Church Body shall make default in cleaning, amending and restoring the said burial ground and tomb as aforesaid, then Testator bequeathed the said legacy to the Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast, for its general purposes.

To the Reverend Wm. Pounden, Canon of Lisburn, County Antrim, or other his successor at such Cathedral at the time of Testator's death, to be by him distributed or applied at his uncontrolled discretion among or for the benefit of the various charities to which Testator had been subscribing through the said Canon Pounden, the sum of £500.

To his Trustees the sum of £20,000 for the purpose of purchasing sites, for and with the assistance of proper grants from the Commissioners of National Education in Ireland, to erect and complete thereon four or more National Schools in the City of Belfast. And Testator declared that his Trustees might in their uncontrolled discretion reduce such legacy to such sum as they should think fit, not being less than £10,000, and he further declared that the management of such schools should be vested in the Education Board of the Belfast Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. And Testator further declared that his Trustees should have full discretion to increase or reduce the number of schools to be built, and to choose the district or districts in the City of Belfast in which such schools should be built and to select the sites therefor. And Testator declared that the said Education Board of the Belfast Presbytery should from time to time appoint a Committee to act as Patrons of such schools. And Testator further declared that his Trustees should have absolute discretion to apply instead only portion of the said £20,000, or none of it, for such purposes, and that any part that they did not so apply, or in case they did not apply any of it, then such unapplied part, or the entire of such sum of £20,000, as the case might be, should fall into and form part of Testator's residuary estate. And he further declared that his Trustees should exercise such discretion within five years after the date of his death.

To the Queen's University, Belfast, the sum of £20,000 (hereinafter called "The Musgrave Studentship Legacy") in trust for the application of the income thereof in perpetuity for the promotion and encouragement of research in Pathology, Physiology, Physics, Biology, and Chemistry at the said University in manner therein set forth.

To the Queen's University, Belfast, to be invested, and the income thereof applied towards paying an additional reader in connection with the Chair of Physics at such University, the sum of £7,000.

To the Ulster Hospital for Women and Children, Mountpottinger, Belfast, the sum of £10,000.

To the Belfast Children's Hospital, Queen Street, Belfast, the sum of £10,000.

To the Governors of the Belfast Royal Academical Institution, to found and maintain in perpetuity one or more scholarships or exhibitions (to be called the "Musgrave Scholarships or Exhibitions") for proficiency in any modern European Languages for the teaching of which there is a Chair in the Queen's University, Belfast, the sum of £2,000.

To the Royal Medical Benevolent Fund Society of Ireland, to be invested, and called in Memory of Testator's Father, the late Dr. Samuel Musgrave and Testator's brother, the late Dr. Samuel Musgrave, "The Dr. Samuel Musgrave Fund," and the annual income thereof to be applied for the general purposes of such Society, but so far as possible in connection with Belfast and the surrounding districts, the sum of £2,000.

To the Stewart Institute for Imbeciles, Dublin, the sum of £1,000.

To the County Antrim Infirmary, Lisburn, the sum of £2,000.
