DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES

THE IMPORTED FOOD (NORTHERN IRELAND)
REGULATIONS 1984

Health Mark: Australia

The Department of Health and Social Services after consultation with the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State for Wales gives notice that, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by the Imported Food (Northern Ireland) Regulations 1984, it hereby recognises, subject to the conditions hereinafter set out, the health marks described in Part 1 of the Schedule hereto for the importation from Australia of meat and meat products as showing:—

- (a) that the fresh meat to which they relate, or the meat from which the meat product to which they relate was prepared, was derived from mammals or birds inspected before and immediately after death, or in the case of mammals killed when wild, was derived from mammals inspected after death only, in the country of origin of the meat and passed in accordance with criteria satisfactory to the Department; and
- (b) that the dressing, packing and other preparation of the fresh meat or meat product was carried out with all necessary precautions for the prevention of danger to health.

1. Recognition of the health mark is extended to include:—

For bovine animals, sheep, goats and solipeds: whole (skinned) heads, which may have been split for inspection purposes, brains, tongues and cheek meat (internal and external masseters).

For swine: whole (skinned or scalded and depilated) heads, which may have been split for inspection purposes, brains, tongues and cheek meat (internal and external masseters).

2. The said health marks are recognised subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) recognition applies only to meat and meat products imported from Australia;
- (ii) where the health marks are in the form of stamps or labels, recognition will apply only if the stamps or labels have not in any other circumstances or on any other occasion been used as a health mark.

Recognition of the health marks is restricted to the extent shown in Part 2 of the Schedule hereto.

The Notice published in The Belfast Gazette dated 18 September 1987 is hereby revoked.
