DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES

THE IMPORTED FOOD (NORTHERN IRELAND) REGULATIONS 1984

Health Mark: Federal Republic of Germany

The Department of Health and Social Services after consultation with the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State for Wales gives notice that, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by the Imported Food (Northern Ireland) Regulations 1984, it hereby recognises, subject to the conditions hereinafter set out, the health marks described in Part 1 of the Schedule hereto for the importation from the Federal Republic of Germany of meat and meat products as showing:—

- (a) that the fresh meat to which they relate, or the meat from which the meat product to which they relate was prepared, was derived from mammals or birds inspected before and immediately after death or in the case of mammals and birds killed when wild, was derived from mammals inspected after death only, in the country of origin of the meat and passed in accordance with criteria satisfactory to the Department; and
- (b) that the dressing, packing, and other preparation of the fresh meat or meat product was carried out with all necessary precautions for the prevention of danger to health.

1. Recognition of the health mark is extended to include:—

For bovine animals: whole (skinned) heads, which may have been split for inspection purposes, brains, tongues and cheek meat (internal and external masseters).

For swine: whole (skinned or scalded and depilated) heads, which may have been split for inspection purposes, and headmeat in pieces each weighing not less than 100 grammes.

For sheep, goats and solipeds: whole (skinned) heads which may have been split for inspection purposes, and head meat in pieces each weighing not less than 100 grammes.

For poultry: whole (plucked) heads which remain naturally attached to the carcase.

Minced beef.

2. The said health marks are recognised subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) recognition applies only to fresh meat and meat products imported from the Federal Republic of Germany.
