CROWN OFFICE NORTHERN IRELAND

Pursuant to a Warrant of the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland dated 22nd June, 1992, the Lord Chief Justice this day called the under-named gentleman to the Inner Bar of Northern Ireland.

Dated the 25th June, 1992.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE, FISHERIES AND FOOD

THE SEA FISH (SPECIFIED SEA AREAS) (REGULATION OF NETS AND OTHER FISHING GEAR) (VARIATION) ORDER 1992 (SI 1992 No. 1344)

This Order varies the Sea Fish (Specified Sea Areas) (Regulation of Nets and Other Fishing Gear) Order 1991 ("the principal Order") which regulates the carriage of certain nets and other fishing gear in British fishing boats registered in the United Kingdom in specified sea areas and restricts the manner in which such nets and gear may be used.

This Order is made in reliance on Article 14(1) of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 3094/86, laying down certain technical measures for the conservation of fishery resources (OJ No. L288 11.10.86, p.1), which authorises Member States to take certain national measures for the conservation and management of stocks.

The principal Order requires a square mesh panel complying with specified criteria to be incorporated in the nets of certain mesh sizes carried in, or used by, boats in part of ICES IIa (Norwegian Sea) or in ICES IV (North Sea), ICES VI (Rockall and West of Scotland) or ICES VIIa (Irish Sea). This Order alters those criteria in several respects. In particular, it widens the requirement for a square mesh panel in ICES VI south of 56° north latitude and changes the requirement for a square mesh panel in ICES VIIa, and for nephrops it extends the requirement for a square mesh panel from ICES VIIa to all parts of ICES VII (West of Ireland and Porcupine Bank, South Coast of Ireland, Bristol Channel and English Channel) (articles 5 and 8).

This Order extends the circumstances in which the codend and any extension piece of the nets are regulated (article 6), subject to exemptions (article 4). This Order also removes the prohibition on the carriage and use of strengthening bags and top-side chafers in the principal Order (article 7).

This Order also makes some consequential and drafting changes.

Copies of the above mentioned Order may be obtained from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 49 High Holborn, London WC1V 6HB or 71 Lothian Road, Edinburgh EH3 9AZ, price £1.05.

THE UNDERSIZED WHITING ORDER 1992 (SI 1992 No. 1212)

This Order prescribes a minimum size for the landing of whiting (Merlangius merlangus) in Great Britain (article 2(1)). There is an exemption from the minimum landing size for the landing of whiting from foreign boats (article 2(2)).

The Order also prescribes a minimum size for the sale of whiting (article 3(1)) and for the carriage of whiting on a British fishing boat (article 4(1)). There is an exemption from the minimum sale size for whiting which are landed from foreign boats (article 3(2)) and from the minimum size for whiting carried on board British fishing boats in the case of unsorted whiting (article 4(2)).

The Order gives British sea-fishery officers further enforcement powers in relation to fishing boats (article 5). They already have powers under section 15(2) of the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967, as amended by the Fisheries Act 1981, ("the 1967 Act") to seize any fish in respect of which an offence has been or is being committed under section 1(3) of the 1967 Act.

Offences and penalties are prescribed respectively by section 1(7) and (8) and section 11 of the 1967 Act.

This Order is made in reliance on Article 14(1) of Council Regulation (EEC) No. 3094/86 (OJ No. L288, 11.10.86, p.1), laying down certain technical measures for the conservation of fishery resources, which authorises Member States to take certain national measures for the conservation and management of stocks.

Copies of the above mentioned Order may be obtained from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 49 High Holborn, London WC1V 6HB or 71 Lothian Road, Edinburgh EH3 9AZ, price £1.05.

WATERCOURSE MANAGEMENT DIVISION

Works Programme

MAINTENANCE OF WATERCOURSES 1992/1993 (Supplementary List)

The Department of Agriculture for Northern Ireland hereby gives notice in pursuance of Regulation 5(1) of the Drainage (Environmental Assessment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1991 of proposed routine maintenance work on the watercourses listed below.

The work may include the following:

1. Removal of channel silt and/or aquatic weed growth, the latter by mechanical or other approved methods.
2. Removal of obstructions from the channel which restrict the free flow of water.
3. Clearing of debris from grilles, manholes and/or flap-valves.
4. Reconstruction, repair or protection of flood defences, revetments and watercourse structures.
5. Measures for the protection or rehabilitation of fishery, conservation, or other interests.

The works will be carried out using environmentally sensitive river engineering techniques devised in consultation with the Department's conservation advisers. This will fulfil the Department's commitment in its publication 'Drainage and the Environment' to minimise environmental damage and encourage regeneration by its drainage works.

The Department reserves the right to alter the maintenance programme.

Having determined that the proposed works are not, by reason amongst other things of their nature, size and location, likely to have significant environmental effects it is the Department's intention not to prepare an Environmental Statement.

In accordance with Regulation 5(1) (d) of the Regulations representations may be made in writing to the Department at the address given below, with regard to its intention not to prepare an Environmental Statement. The closing date for the receipt of representations is 7th August 1992.

CONSUMER PROTECTION (NORTHERN IRELAND) ORDER 1987

The Department of Economic Development has made Regulations under the Consumer Protection (Northern Ireland) Order 1987 entitled the Price Indications (Bureaux de Change) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992 (SR 1992 No. 272).

These Regulations apply to any individual or other body which carries on the business of a bureau de change in the course of which foreign currency is sold, or bought from consumers (as defined in Article 13(b) of the Consumer Protection (Northern Ireland) Order 1987), in exchange for sterling.

The Regulations regulate the manner in which a person who holds himself out as operating a bureau de change at any premises gives at those premises an indication to consumers of the rate at which business may be done (an "exchange rate indication") (regulation 3).

Exchange rate indications must state the terms on which transactions will be conducted and provide other information including any commission or other charges. However, where a consumer requests information about the terms on which a particular transaction will be conducted, only information relevant to that transaction need be given. When an exchange rate indication is given and there is to be an interval between the placing of the order and the supply of the currency during which rates may change, particulars of how the exchange rate and any commission or other charges will be determined must be given before the order is placed (regulation 4). Special provision is made in relation to coin operated machines (regulation 7).

Exchange rate indications and related information are to be given clearly and prominently and either legibly or audibly (regulation 5).

The Regulations require that a receipt setting out the terms of the transaction must be provided to the consumer in all cases except that of a transaction conducted through a machine. The issue of receipts in the latter case is only required if the machine is designed to supply receipts and the consumer requests one, but is not required at all where the machine exchanges coins only (regulation 6).

An exchange rate indication must be accurate and no suggestion may be made that it is not to be relied on (regulation 8).

Any person who contravenes these Regulations shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction on indictment, to a fine, or, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the prescribed sum (currently £2,000) (regulation 9).

The Regulations come into operation on 20th July, 1992, except for the provision relating to the clarity etc. of statements accompanying exchange rate indications and the requirement to display corresponding rates for notes and travellers' cheques, both of which come into operation on 20th July, 1993 (regulation 1).

Copies of the Regulations may be purchased from the Government Bookshop, Arthur Street, Belfast.
