The Wireless Telegraphy (Licence Charges) Regulations 1999

The Secretary of State for Trade and Industry gives notice under section 6 of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1998 of a proposal to make regulations under section 1 of that Act to amend the licence fees for the following licence classes:

- Public Mobile Operator;
- On-Site Private Business Radio;
- Point to Point Fixed Links

and to introduce two new licence classes in the Private Business Radio sector:

- Wide Area Private Business Radio Licence;
- National and Regional Private Business Radio Licence.

And two new classes to the Public Telecommunications Operator sector:

- Remote Meter Reading Licence;
- Radio Fixed Access Licence.

Extent of proposals

The proposals take further the introduction of spectrum pricing in the United Kingdom, Isle of Man and Channel Islands, and builds upon the first spectrum pricing fee regulations which entered into force in July 1998. The Radiocommunications Agency (RA) issued a Consultation Document in September 1998, which gave details of the present proposals for the new fee regulations. The proposals take account of responses received.

The proposals introduce fees based on a number of factors, including the level of congestion based on geographical location, (or if specific frequencies (identified by channel or band) are deemed to be congested). The details are contained in a summary document issued by the RA.

Any representations about the above proposals must be made within 28 days of the date of publication of this notice.

Department of Economical Development

European Communities Act 1972

The Department of Economical Development has made regulations under the European Communities Act 1972 entitled: "Commercial Agents (Council Directive) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999 (SR 1999 No. 201)".

These regulations, which come into operation on 7th June 1999, amend the Commercial Agents (Council Directive) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1993 ("the 1993 Regulations"), which implemented Council Directive 86/653/EEC on the co-ordination of the laws of member States relating to self-employed commercial agents (O.J. No. L382, 31.12.1986, p.17) ("the Directive").

Following representations made by the European Commission to the effect that the 1993 regulations did not deal with the case where the parties had expressly agreed that the law of any part of the United Kingdom was to apply to the contract between them and that a court in the United Kingdom was to have jurisdiction but the activities of the agent were to be carried out elsewhere in the European Communities, these Regulations seek to put the matter beyond doubt in relation to Northern Ireland.

Whether or not it would otherwise be required to do so, a court or tribunal is required to apply the 1993 Regulations in the case mentioned above, provided that the law of the other member State so permits. The 1993 Regulations already made provision for the converse case, thus permitting agents in Northern Ireland to agree to the application of the law of another member State. The amendment restates this provision. The Explanatory Note to the 1993 Regulations drew attention to the fact that the Directive was within the scope of the Agreement on the European Economic Area by virtue of paragraph 30 of Annex VII to that Agreement. These Regulations take the opportunity to insert appropriate references in the 1993 Regulations.

Copies of the Regulations may be purchased from the Stationery Office Bookshop, 16 Arthur Street, Belfast BT1 4GD. ISBN 0 337 93506 8. £1.50 net.
