Department of Economical Development

European Communities Act 1972

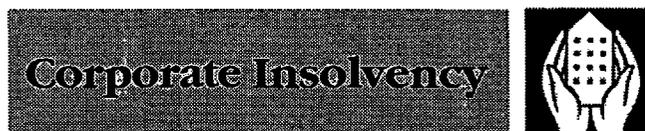

The Department of Economical Development has made regulations under the European Communities Act 1972 entitled: "Commercial Agents (Council Directive) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999 (SR 1999 No. 201)".

These regulations, which come into operation on 7th June 1999, amend the Commercial Agents (Council Directive) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1993 ("the 1993 Regulations"), which implemented Council Directive 86/653/EEC on the co-ordination of the laws of member States relating to self-employed commercial agents (O.J. No. L382, 31.12.1986, p.17) ("the Directive").

Following representations made by the European Commission to the effect that the 1993 regulations did not deal with the case where the parties had expressly agreed that the law of any part of the United Kingdom was to apply to the contract between them and that a court in the United Kingdom was to have jurisdiction but the activities of the agent were to be carried out elsewhere in the European Communities, these Regulations seek to put the matter beyond doubt in relation to Northern Ireland.

Whether or not it would otherwise be required to do so, a court or tribunal is required to apply the 1993 Regulations in the case mentioned above, provided that the law of the other member State so permits. The 1993 Regulations already made provision for the converse case, thus permitting agents in Northern Ireland to agree to the application of the law of another member State. The amendment restates this provision. The Explanatory Note to the 1993 Regulations drew attention to the fact that the Directive was within the scope of the Agreement on the European Economic Area by virtue of paragraph 30 of Annex VII to that Agreement. These Regulations take the opportunity to insert appropriate references in the 1993 Regulations.

Copies of the Regulations may be purchased from the Stationery Office Bookshop, 16 Arthur Street, Belfast BT1 4GD. ISBN 0 337 93506 8. £1.50 net.
