Notice of seizure of Goods under the Customs & Excise Management Act 1979

To the Owner of the following goods detained on the 19th day of October, 2001 at Nelson's Filling Station, Markethill, Co. Armagh.

- A quantity of Hydrocarbon Oil

Pursuant to Section 139 (6) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 and paragraph (1) of the Schedule 3 thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that, by virtue of the powers contained in the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 and enactments amending that Act, the aforesaid goods have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the grounds that:

[a] The quantity of hydrocarbon oil is goods chargeable on their importation with excise duty.

Whereby and by force of Section 49[1][a] of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 the aforesaid quantity of hydrocarbon oil fuel is liable for forfeiture.

If you claim that all or any of the aforesaid goods are not liable to forfeiture you must, within one month from the date of publication of this notice of seizure, give notice of your claim in writing to the Commissioners at an office of Customs and Excise. Your notice must also specify your name and address, the goods claimed as not liable to forfeiture and, if you are outside the United Kingdom, the name and address of a solicitor in the United Kingdom who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice all the aforesaid goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited. If you give notice as set out above, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation of all goods claimed as not liable to forfeiture.

A. Killen, Officer of Customs and Excise, Carne House, 20 Corry Place, Belfast BT3 9HY.

To the Owner of the following goods detained on the 22nd day of January, 2001 at 82 Derry Road, Omagh, Co. Tyrone.

The European Union Extradition Regulations 2002

Notice is hereby given that the European Union Extradition Regulations 2002 (S.I. 2002/419) shall come into force on the 20th March 2002.

THE UNITED KINGDOM

(a) Declares that from that date the terms of the Convention on Simplified Extradition Procedure Between Member States of the European Union shall apply in its relations with Member States in respect of which that Convention is in force either generally or between the Member State in question and the United Kingdom subject to such reservations, declarations and statements as are set out in Schedules 2 and 4 to the above Regulations or are later notified in this Gazette; and (b) declares that from that date the terms of the Convention Relating to Extradition between Member States of the European Union shall apply in its relations with Member States in respect of which that Convention is in force either generally or between the Member State in question and the United Kingdom, subject to such reservations, declarations and statements as are set out in Schedules 6 and 8 to the above Regulations or are later notified in this Gazette.

NOTE:

The 1995 Convention on Simplified Extradition Procedure comes into force 90 days after its ratification by the last Member State. Prior to that point, it can be applied between individual states, which have made the appropriate declaration under Article 16.3 of the Convention. As at the 20th March 2002, the Convention has not come into force in its entirety but applies between the United Kingdom and the following states: Austria, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Portugal. The application of this Convention to the remaining states (Belgium, France and Italy) together with their respective reservations, declarations and statements will be notified in this Gazette.

The 1996 Convention Relating to Extradition between Member States of the European Union comes into force 90 days after notification by the last Member State that it has completed the constitutional procedures for the adoption of the Convention. Prior to that point, it can be applied between individual states which have made the appropriate declaration under Article 18.4 of the Convention. As at the 20th March 2002, the Convention has not come into force in its entirety but applies between the United Kingdom and the following states: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Portugal. The application of this Convention to the remaining states (France and Italy) together with their respective reservations, declarations and statements will be notified in this Gazette.

Hansard

The Official Verbatim Report of Parliamentary Proceedings

Hansard reflects opinion on all topics of the day and is of great interest to the business or professional man. In addition to a factual word-for-word transcription of speeches in debate, it contains the answers to all Parliamentary Questions, complete Division Lists, and following each session details of the composition of the House. Proceedings up to 10 pm each day are reported in the issue published the following morning. A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted, if a suitable deposit is sent, for debates on definite subjects.
