IN THE PARLIAMENT OF NORTHERN IRELAND.

SESSION 1935.

THE APPRENTICE BOYS' MEMORIAL HALL,
LONDONDERRY, BILL.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Parliament of Northern Ireland in the ensuing Session by the Trustees of the above-mentioned Hall for leave to introduce a Bill for the following or some of the following purposes:—

To incorporate the said Trustees by the name of "The Trustees of the Apprentice Boys' Memorial Hall, Londonderry (Incorporated)" (hereinafter referred to as "the Trustees"), and to empower the Trustees to hold and dispose of lands.

To provide for the transfer to the Trustees of the building known as the Apprentice Boys' Memorial Hall, Londonderry, and certain adjoining premises which were purchased on their behalf and to provide that the same premises shall be held by the Trustees in trust for the use of the Apprentice Boys and Local Orange Brethren as defined by the Bill.

To empower the Trustees to borrow on Mortgage of their premises a sum or sums not exceeding £25,000.

To provide that the Trustees shall have the exclusive control of the said Hall and may make lettings thereof and may make rules regulating the use thereof and may delegate their powers of management and that no intoxicating liquor shall be kept or consumed in the said Hall except on such occasions as shall be approved by the Trustees.

To provide for the events in which the office of Trustee shall become vacant and for the appointment of new Trustees.

To provide for the keeping of proper books of account; for the appointment of an auditor; for the preparation, audit and publication of an annual summary of accounts.

In such Bill the expression "Apprentice Boy" means a member of an Apprentice Boys of Derry Club (recognised as such by the General Committee of the Associated Clubs of Apprentice Boys of Derry) located in and using the said Hall and the expression "Local Orange Brother" means a member of a Lodge in connection with the Loyal Orange Institution of Ireland (under the jurisdiction of the City of Derry Grand Orange Lodge, working under the Grand Lodge of Ireland), located in and using the said Hall.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the Parliament of Northern Ireland on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1934.
