NOTES.—The Exchequer Account of Northern Ireland is the general account of Receipts and Issues established under the Exchequer and Audit Act, 1921.

The Exchequer Account is a cash account showing the financial position of the Northern Government at a certain date. The amounts shewn under "Revenue" are sums transferred from a subsidiary Revenue Account to the Exchequer after due provision for possible rebates and repayments has been made. Similarly, the amounts shewn under "Expenditure" are the issues made from the Exchequer on account of the Services administered by the various Departments, and, subject to balances in their hands, represent approximately the amounts expended by Departments out of such issues.

The Residuary Share of Reserved Taxes is the net sum due to the Northern Government from the produce of taxes collected by the British Treasury and attributable to Northern Ireland after deduction of the Imperial contribution and the cost of Reserved Services.

Under the Exchequer and Audit Act, 1921, the whole of the Receipts into the Exchequer form one general Consolidated Fund. Standing charges against the revenue of the year under Act of the Northern Parliament are shewn as Consolidated Fund Services. Other charges on revenue are voted by the House of Commons and are shewn as Supply Services.

(3) The principal of such Bills shall be repaid at the date mentioned in each Bill.

B. The Ministry may invite tenders for Bills.

(1) Notice that such tenders will be received at the Office of the Exchequer Bank on a given day shall be published in the Belfast Gazette not less than five clear days before the date on which tenders are to be delivered, and shall specify the period (not exceeding 12 months) for which, and the terms and conditions subject to which, the Bills are to be issued.

(2) The principal of such Bills shall be repaid at the date mentioned in each Bill.

(3) The Ministry will from time to time instruct the Exchequer Bank as to the form in which the tenders are to be made, and as to any other necessary proceedings in relation thereto.

(4) The Ministry reserves to itself the right of refusing tenders, if it should think proper so to do.

(5) The tenders shall be opened at the Exchequer Bank in the presence of such person or persons as the Ministry shall from time to time direct.

II. The Permanent Secretary for the time being to the Ministry will sign each Bill, or his name will be engraved thereon, and Bills will be numbered in arithmetical order throughout each financial year, commencing with new numbers in each year.

III. When the Exchequer Bank or any other Bank shall have signified their willingness to buy Bills carrying a fixed rate of interest, or when any tender or tenders for Treasury Bills shall have been accepted by the Ministry, a Warrant of the Ministry of Finance, drawn in the terms of the form A annexed to these Regulations, will be transmitted for the counter-signature of the Comptroller and Auditor-General for Northern Ireland authorising the preparation and issue of such number of Bills and for such amounts as are specified in the Warrant.

VI. The amount received for Bills sold will be carried to the account of the Exchequer of Northern Ireland, as provided by the fifth section of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, in its application to Northern Ireland. When the interest on the money advanced on Bills is paid by allowing discount at the date of issue the Ministry will direct the issue to the Exchequer Bank from the Northern Exchequer of the amount of such discount, and the Bank will thereupon pay to the Exchequer Account a sum equal to the full nominal value of the Bills.

VII. The principal sums of Bills will be payable at the Exchequer Bank, or in the case of Bills issued to that Bank at the Office of the Ministry, on the dates specified in the Bills, without grace, and the discharge for the payment of such Bills shall be an acknowledgment of receipt, to be given on the back of the Bills, or on a schedule of the numbers and amounts of the Bills.

VIII. When Bills have been paid off by the Exchequer Bank they will be cancelled in such manner as may be determined upon by the Bank, and such cancelled Bills will thereafter be returned to the Ministry to be destroyed.

IX. When upon any representation made by any holder of a Bill, the Ministry has reason to believe that a Bill has been lost, destroyed or defaced, the Ministry will cause a Warrant to be prepared authorising the issue of a duplicate of such Bill to the person or persons applying for the same, upon the execution by them of the usual bond of indemnity.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry this 29th day of September, 1922.
