

BY THE LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL
AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

FITZALAN OF DERWENT.

WHEREAS it is provided by the Government of Ireland (Election Laws Adaptation) (Northern Ireland) Order, 1922, Article 3 (2) that:—

For the purpose of an election of members to serve in the House of Commons of the United Kingdom for any county constituency named in Part II. of the Fifth Schedule to the Act:—

- (a) if the constituency consists of a single county, the under-sheriff of the county shall be the returning officer;
- (b) if the constituency consists of two counties or of a county and a borough, such one of the under-sheriffs of the said counties or of the said county and borough as may be nominated by the Lord Lieutenant shall be the returning officer, but either of the other under-sheriffs shall, if he so desires, be appointed by the returning officer to act in his behalf as assistant returning officer for the purpose of the execution of any powers and duties in the part of the constituency within the jurisdiction of such under-sheriff, other than powers and duties which require to be executed by the returning officer in person, and any question as to the respective rights and obligations of any such returning officer or under-sheriff under this provision shall be determined by the Lord Lieutenant, whose determination shall be final; and
- (c) in the case of any constituency to which either of the foregoing paragraphs applies, the place of election shall be such place as may be fixed by the returning officer, with the approval of the Lord Lieutenant.

Now we, the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, in pursuance of the powers conferred on us by the said Government of Ireland (Election Laws Adaptation) (Northern Ireland) Order, 1922, and of all other powers us thereunto enabling, do hereby approve of the place named in the second column of the Schedule hereto to be the place of Election for the constituency set forth in the first column of that Schedule opposite to the name of such place.

Given at London, this 26th day of October, 1922.

By His Excellency's Command.

MARK STURGIS.
