THE 9th DAY OF OCTOBER 2008

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY
IN COUNCIL

The Public Appointments Order in Council 2002 (“the 2002 Order”) makes provision for an independent Commissioner to monitor the procedures adopted by appointing authorities (Ministers of the Crown and others) when making appointments to public bodies.

Her Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order as follows:-

Amendment of the 2002 Order

1. In article 2(1) of the 2002 Order, after “effectiveness” insert “, diversity”.

Citation and commencement

2. (1) This Order may be cited as the Public Appointments (Amendment No. 2) Order in Council 2008 and comes into force forthwith.
- (2) The Interpretation Act 1978(1) applies for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Public Appointments Order in Council 2002 (“the 2002 Order”).

The 2002 Order sets out the functions of Her Majesty's Commissioner for Public Appointments.

This Order amends the 2002 Order to require that, in exercising the Commissioner's functions with the object of maintaining the principle of selection on merit in relation to public appointments, the Commissioner must do so in the manner the Commissioner considers best calculated to promote diversity in the procedures for making such appointments. This puts the promotion of diversity in the same position as the promotion of economy, efficiency, effectiveness and equality of opportunity.

Northern Ireland Court Service

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT (NORTHERN IRELAND) (AMENDMENT No. 2) 2008

SR 2008 No. 401

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by Ministry of Justice (Northern Ireland Court Service) and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Description

2.1 The Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) 1980 (S.R. 1980 No.346) ("the principal Rules") govern practice and procedure in the Supreme Court of Judicature in Northern Ireland.

2.2 This instrument amends the principal Rules so as to:

- prescribe a procedure for applications to the High Court under the Companies (Cross-Border Mergers) Regulations 2007;
- take account of changes made to the Consumer Credit Act 1974 by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 in relation to unfair relationships in connection with credit agreements;
- assign proceedings under Schedule 1 to the Forced Marriage (Civil Protection) Act 2007 to the Family Division of the High Court; and
- make minor amendments in consequence of the transfer of probate business from the Family Division to the Chancery Division of the Supreme Court.

3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments or the Select Committee on Statutory Instruments.

3.1 None.

4. Legislative Background

Companies (Cross-Border Mergers) Regulations 2007

4.1 The Companies (Cross Border Mergers) Regulations 2007 provide a framework for cross-border mergers between limited liability companies formed and registered in the UK and those formed and registered in another state within the European Economic Area. The Regulations provide that merging companies:

- must apply to a court for an order certifying that pre-merger requirements have been complied with;
- may apply to a court seeking the valuation of a company by an independent expert;
- may apply to a court for a meeting of members or creditors to be called; and
- may, on an application to a court, be subject to a penalty notice following a declaration by the Industrial Court that employee participation agreements have been misused or not complied with.

Consumer Credit Act 1974

4.2 The Consumer Credit Act 1974 governs the provision of credit or the supply of goods on hire or hire-purchase to individuals. As enacted, sections 137 – 140 of the Act empowered the Court to reopen credit bargains considered extortionate.

4.3 The 1974 Act was amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 so as to repeal sections 137 - 140 and insert new sections 140A – 140D which enable a court to make an order where it considers that a credit agreement is unfair to a debtor because of one or more of the following:

- any terms of the agreement;
- the way in which an agreement is operated by the creditor; or
- any other thing done or not done by or on behalf of the creditor before or after the agreement was made.

The Forced Marriages (Civil Protection) Act 2007

4.4 The Forced Marriages (Civil Protection) Act 2007 provides civil remedies to protect persons from being forced into marriage and persons who have already been forced into marriage.

Transfer of Probate Business

4.5 The Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) (Amendment) 2007 amended the principal Rules so as to transfer probate business from the Family Division to the Chancery Division of the Supreme Court. Minor amendments consequential to that transfer require to be made.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

5.1 This instrument applies to Northern Ireland only.

5.2 Amendments to the principal Rules in relation to the Companies (Cross Border Mergers) Regulations 2007 and the Consumer Credit Act 2006 reflect amendments made to the Civil Procedure Rules in England and Wales.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

6.1 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

7. Policy background

7.1 Sections 54 of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 established the Supreme Court Rules Committee ('the Committee') which is empowered by sections 55 and 55A of the Act to make rules prescribing practice and procedure before the High Court and the Court of Appeal.

Companies (Cross-Border Mergers) Regulations 2007

7.2 The 2007 Regulations, which give effect to Directive 2005/56/EC, confer certain responsibilities on the 'competent authority' which, in the UK, is a court. A court must certify all mergers and can veto mergers if the necessary steps have not been taken. The Committee has amended the principal Rules to prescribe procedure in relation to such applications.

Consumer Credit Act 1974

7.3 The Consumer Credit Act 2006 repealed powers conferred on the court by the 1974 Act to reopen extortionate credit agreements and inserted new provisions enabling the court to consider whether a relationship between a creditor and debtor arising out of an agreement was unfair to the debtor. Under the revised provisions, the court can consider an agreement unfair because of the terms of the agreement, the way in which the agreement is operated by the creditor or any other thing done or not done by or on behalf of the creditor before or after the agreement was made. The inserted provisions also provide the court with a broad range of remedies to address unfairness.

7.4 The principal Rules already contain provision in relation to the Consumer Credit Act 1974. The Committee has amended those provisions in consequence of the changes made by the 2006 Act.

The Forced Marriages (Civil Protection) Act 2007

7.5 The Forced Marriages (Civil Protection) Act 2007 provides civil remedies for those faced with forced marriage and for victims of forced marriage. Schedule 1 of the Act makes provision for Northern Ireland and the Committee has amended the principal Rules to assign proceedings under Schedule 1 to the Family Division of the Supreme Court. The amendment will allow rules of court to be made under Article 12 of the Family Law (Northern Ireland) Order 1993 (which links the power to make family proceedings rules to proceedings assigned to the Family Division) in anticipation of the 2007 Act being brought into force.

Transfer of Probate Business

7.6 A reorganisation of business across the offices and departments of the Supreme Court resulted in probate business transferring from the Family Division to the Chancery Division. The Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) (Amendment) 2007 amended the principal Rules to give legislative effect to that reorganisation. In these Rules, the Committee has addressed a number of small amendments consequent on the reallocation of business between the two divisions.

Importance

7.7 These rules are procedural in nature and are therefore of limited public interest. It is not considered that the amendments made by these rules are politically or legally important.

8. Impact

8.1 A Regulatory Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it has no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.

8.2 This instrument has no impact on the public sector.

9. Contact

9.1 Michael Kelly at the Northern Ireland Court Service (Civil Policy Division) (Tel: (028) 90412394 or email michaelkelly@courtsni.gov.uk) can answer any queries regarding this instrument. (2301/24)

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on 3 October 2008 The Pharmacy Mutual Insurance Company Limited ("PMI") and NPA Insurance Limited ("NPAI") applied to the High Court of Justice for:

1. an Order under Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ("the Act") sanctioning a scheme ("the Scheme") providing for the transfer to NPAI of the entire insurance business of PMI; and

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Belfast Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Belfast Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.
