These Rules amend the Magistrates' Courts Rules (Northern Ireland) 1984 so as to allow for the service of summonses and accompanying documentation, served by the Police Service of Northern Ireland, to be proved by means of electronic report. These Rules also take account of the amendments made to Article 24 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 by the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 ("the 2003 Order"). The 2003 Order amended Article 24 to allow for a full statement of evidence to be given in evidence at a hearing where the defendant pleads guilty by post.

These Rules will come into operation in the main on 9 March 2009. Those provisions in the Rules which provide for service by means of electronic service will come into operation on 10th April 2009.

Copies of the Rules – Statutory Rules of Northern Ireland 2009 No. 47 may be obtained from The Stationery Office, 16 Arthur Street, Belfast, BT1 4GD. (2301/15)

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.
