GAS NOTICES

Notice of Revocation of the gas supply element of the Phoenix Natural Gas Limited combined licences for the conveyance and supply of gas in Northern Ireland

The Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment (hereinafter referred to as “the Department”) hereby gives notice as follows:

The Department proposes to revoke the gas supply element of the Phoenix Natural Gas Limited combined licences for the conveyance and supply of gas in Northern Ireland granted to Phoenix Natural Gas Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “licensee”).

Directive 2003/55/EC required the separation of gas distribution and supply functions within Phoenix Natural Gas. This resulted in the establishment of Phoenix Supply Limited as a separate gas supply company. Revocation is therefore necessary in order to revoke the supply element of the combined licences.

Representations or objections with respect to the proposed licence revocation may be made within 28 days of the date of this notice to Susan Stewart, Energy Division, Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment, Netherleigh, Massey Avenue, Belfast BT4 2JP or by email to susan.stewart@detini.gov.uk.

The document can be accessed at <http://www.energy.detini.gov.uk> (2101/20)

Notice of Amendment to the gas conveyance element of the Phoenix Natural Gas Limited combined licences for the conveyance and supply of gas in Northern Ireland

The Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment (hereinafter referred to as "the Department") hereby gives notice as follows:

The Department proposes to amend the gas conveyance element of the Phoenix Natural Gas Limited combined licences for the conveyance and supply of gas in Northern Ireland granted to Phoenix Natural Gas Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "licensee").

Directive 2003/55/EC required the separation of gas distribution and supply functions within Phoenix Natural Gas. This resulted in the establishment of Phoenix Supply Limited as a separate gas supply company. Amendments are therefore necessary to the conveyance element of the combined licences in order to remove references to gas supply activities.

As part of the agreement reached with the licensee in November 2006 to reform their regulatory regime, it was agreed that the licensee would sell its transmission business. The sale of the Phoenix Transmission asset in March 2008 therefore requires amendments to the conveyance element of the combined licences.

Representations or objections with respect to the proposed licence amendments may be made within 28 days of the date of this notice to Susan Stewart, Energy Division, Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment, Netherleigh, Massey Avenue, Belfast BT4 2JP or by email to susan.stewart@detini.gov.uk.

Northern Ireland Court Service

The Lord Chancellor has made the following Rules in the exercise of powers conferred by Article 359 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 ("the Order"), with the concurrence of the Treasury and, in relation to those rules that effect court procedure, with the concurrence of the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland under Article 359 (1A) of the Order:—

The Bank Insolvency Rules (Northern Ireland) 2009

These Rules set out the procedure for the bank insolvency process under Part 2 of the Banking Act 2009.

The main features of Bank Insolvency are that, in the event of a deposit-taking bank becoming insolvent, it enables those depositors who are eligible for compensation under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) to either—

- (a) receive compensation for their lost deposits as soon as possible after the bank goes into bank insolvency; or
- (b) have their account transferred to a different bank.

This is the first objective of the insolvency process.

The procedure can only be initiated by the Bank of England, the Financial Services Authority or the Department by application to the court. The court then makes a bank insolvency order, appointing a bank liquidator. In the initial stages, the bank liquidator is accountable to a liquidation committee formed of the FSA, the Bank of England and the FSCS.

Once the bank liquidator considers that the first objective is achieved, the liquidation committee will pass a resolution to that effect and the bank insolvency will move to the second objective which is to wind up the affairs of the bank so as to achieve the best results for the creditors as a whole.

The Rules are based and follow the same order as the Insolvency Rules (Northern Ireland) 1991 ("the 1991 Rules") and certain provisions of the 1991 Rules are applied to these Rules, subject to a number of general and specific modifications.

These amendments shall come into operation on 25th February 2009

Copies of the Rules – Statutory Rules of Northern Ireland 2009 No. 64 may be obtained from The Stationery Office, 16 Arthur Street, Belfast, BT1 4GD.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Belfast Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Belfast Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Belfast Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Belfast Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Belfast Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.
