The Department for Employment and Learning, in exercise of the powers conferred by Articles 15(2), 49(2), 77(2) and 106(2) of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 has made a Statutory Rule entitled the Trade Union Ballots and Elections (Independent Scrutineer Qualifications) Order (Northern Ireland) 2010.

Provisions within the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 require certain ballots and elections that trade unions are required to hold by statute to be supervised by a qualified independent person, known as a "scrutineer" appointed by the trade union. The ballots and elections in question are those relating to the election of members of the executive committee and certain officers, the maintenance of a political fund, mergers with another union and the taking of industrial action.

This Order specifies for the purposes of those provisions above the conditions which must be satisfied in order for an individual or partnership to qualify for appointment as a scrutineer and also specifies certain bodies by name as being qualified.

This Order also revokes the Trade Union Elections and Ballots (Independent Scrutineer Qualifications) Order (Northern Ireland) 1992 and the Trade Union Elections and Ballots (Independent Scrutineer Qualifications) (Amendment) Order (Northern Ireland) 2003.

This Statutory Rule will come into operation on 6 April 2010 and is subject to the negative resolution procedure before the N.I. Assembly. Printed copies of the Order are available from The Stationery Office Bookshop. ISBN: 9780337980404 priced £4.00 (2301/54)

THE RECOGNITION AND DERECOGNITION BALLOTS (QUALIFIED PERSONS) (AMENDMENT) ORDER (NORTHERN IRELAND) 2010 - S.R. 2010 No. 79

The Department for Employment and Learning, in exercise of the powers conferred by Paragraphs 25 (7) (a) and 117 (9) (a) of Schedule 1A to the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, and now vested in it and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, has made a Statutory Rule, entitled The Recognition and Derecognition Ballots (Qualified Persons) (Amendment) Order (Northern Ireland) 2010.

Provisions within the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 require that where the Industrial Court arranges a ballot on the recognition and derecognition of a trade union for collective bargaining, a "qualified independent person" must conduct the ballot.

This Order specifies conditions which must be satisfied in order for an individual or partnership to qualify for appointment as a qualified independent person. It also specifies certain bodies by name as being qualified.

This Order makes two amendments to the Recognition and Derecognition Ballots (Qualified Persons) Order (Northern Ireland) 2001 (the "2001 Order"). The list at Article 4 of the 2001 Order specifying bodies by name as being qualified for appointment has been replaced. That list was previously replaced by the Recognition and Derecognition Ballots (Qualified Persons) (Amendment) Order (Northern Ireland) 2004 which is now revoked by this Order.

This Statutory Rule comes into operation on 6 April 2010 and is subject to the negative resolution procedure before the Northern Ireland Assembly.

Printed copies of the Order are available from the Stationery Office Bookshop ISBN: 9780337980411 priced £4.00 (2301/58)

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Belfast Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Belfast Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Belfast Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Belfast Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
