DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE*THE POLICE ACT 1997 (CRIMINAL RECORDS) (DISCLOSURE) REGULATIONS 2008

The Department of Justice has made a Statutory Rule entitled "The Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2012" (S.R. 2012 No. 86), which was made on 29th February 2012.

The Statutory Rule will ensure that fees are now due not more than 30 days after the date of the invoice. Previously the fees under the 2007 Regulations were due at least 15 days before the end of the month following the date of invoice. This amendment in Regulation 2(2) provides that fees are now due not more than 30 days after the date of the invoice. Previously the fees under the 2007 Regulations were due at least 15 days before the end of the month following the date of invoice.

In addition Regulation 2(3) inserts a new condition attached to registration in respect of the number of applications likely to be countersigned in any period of twelve months. It enables the Department of Justice to refuse to include a person on the register if it considers that person is likely to countersign fewer than twenty applications in any period of twelve months. By virtue of section 120AA of the Police Act 1996 the Department will also now be able, subject to section 120AB of that Act, to suspend registration or remove a person from the register if the person has countersigned fewer than twenty applications in a period of twelve months.

The Statutory Rule also revokes Regulation 2(4) of these Regulations which is the requirement to apply for registration in a prescribed form. Under section 125B of the Police Act 1997 (inserted by section 97(1) of the Policing and Crime Act 2009) the Department of Justice may now determine the form, manner and content of any application under Part 5 of the 1997 Act.

Regulation 3 of these Regulations amends Regulation 8 of the 2008 Regulations to change the definition of "relevant police force" for the purpose of an enhanced disclosure.

The Statutory Rule may be purchased from the Stationery Office at www.tsoshop.co.uk or by contacting TSO Customer Services on 0870 600 5522 or viewed online at <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/nisr> (27)

The Rule provides that each council must make a scheme for the payment of allowances to its councillors and committee members who are not councillors. It identifies those allowances which must be provided for in the scheme (basic allowance and special responsibility allowance) and allowances which may be provided for, should the council intend to make such payments (dependantsâ€™ carersâ€™ allowance and travel and subsistence allowances).

1. The Office of Fair Trading (OFT) hereby gives general notice pursuant to section 234A(4) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (FSMA) of a determination made by the Financial Ombudsman Service Limited (FOS) with the approval of the Financial Services Authority (FSA). The Determination was made pursuant to section 234A(1) of FSMA and determines that the sum of £1,575,000 is to be raised by way of contributions for the period ending 31 March 2013 for the purpose of funding the operation of the ombudsman scheme so far as it relates to the consumer credit jurisdiction. Such sum includes collection costs of £75,000 but excludes any value added tax.

Contributions

2. Further, for the purpose of raising the sum of £1,575,000 referred to in paragraph 1 above and subject to the exceptions referred to in paragraph 4 below, the OFT, by general notice pursuant to section 234A(5) of FSMA herein imposes requirements as described in paragraph 3 on persons who make applications for a standard consumer credit licence or for the renewal of a standard consumer credit licence ('applicant' or 'applicants').

Requirements

3. Unless applicants fall within any of the exceptions set down in paragraph 4, below, they are required to pay a contribution of £140 ('the contribution') to the OFT. The contribution must accompany the application to the OFT for a standard consumer credit licence or for the renewal of a standard consumer credit licence ('the application').

Exceptions from requirements

4. There will be no requirement to pay the contribution:

- where there has been an overpayment of the contribution, in which case the amount overpaid will be refunded

- where payment of the contribution is made because the OFT gave incorrect information, in which case the full contribution paid will be refunded

- where the application is withdrawn or refused for whatever reason, in which case the full contribution paid will be refunded

- where the application or the applicant falls into paragraph 4 and so there is no requirement to pay the contribution but payment has mistakenly been made, in which case the full contribution paid will be refunded and

- where at the time of application the applicant is not subject to the compulsory jurisdiction of the ombudsman scheme as administered by FOS but becomes subject to it before, or on the day, its consumer credit licence is issued, in which case the full contribution paid will be refunded.

6. This notice supersedes General Notice 85 and has effect from 1 April 2012. For standard consumer credit licence applications, the charges will apply to all such applications received on or after 1 April 2012. TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The Belfast Gazette is an Official Newspaper of Record. The Belfast Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "Belfast Gazette" shall include supplements to the Belfast Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the Belfast Gazette as well as the paper version.

The Belfast Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the Belfast Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Belfast Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions*1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the Belfast Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the Belfast Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and*1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1-4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publisher's liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Belfast Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Belfast Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Belfast Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Belfast Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
