3. A reference in this Scheme to the Successor Postal Services Company shall be read as a reference to Royal Mail Group Limited.

Part 2: General Conditions

Paragraph 10.6 shall be amended and paragraph 10.7 added so as to read as follows:

10.6 A Printed Postage Impression (PPI) Mark maybe used to demonstrate payment of postage for an item to be conveyed by any of the postal services provided under this scheme provided that the Sender has entered into an agreement with Royal Mail.

10.7 PPI items must be separated by class, format and service and presented to Royal Mail in Royal Mail supplied trays, bags, pouches or other containers supplied by it.

Part 5: Liability and Compensation

Paragraph 51.7 shall be amended so as to remove references to metered mail and include instead references to franked mail in all cases.

Schedule 1

Under paragraph 8 of this Schedule the first and second class postage rates shall be amended to include a further column at the far right of each table and which is marked "PPI" mail (which shall be understood to mean the account payment channel).

Under the same paragraph it will also be stated underneath the first and second class postage rate tables, "Please note that where the Sender has entered into an agreement with Royal Mail for the payment of postage on account, a minimum annual spend of £5000 will be required by Royal Mail."

Schedule 3

Paragraph 2 shall be amended so as to delete the reference to Royal Mail retail "products" and to refer to these from now on as "services". Additionally the references at paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 to "stamped and meter" will now be amended to read:

"First Class stamped, franked and account mail" (Paragraph 2.1) and "Second Class stamped, franked and account mail" (Paragraph 2.2).

Paragraph 5 shall remove the reference to paragraph 4 of Condition 2 of the Licence and now the paragraph shall read:

"In respect of claims for the loss of Postal packets conveyed to those addresses designated by Royal Mail's regulator as exempted from a daily delivery obligation, the assessment of lateness in paragraph 4 shall apply on a case by case basis."

Paragraph 7 shall be amended:

at Paragraph 7.1.3 in order to refer to an additional method of postage which shall be "PPI with account" at Paragraph 7.1.10 to read as follows: "a copy of the Posting Cheque or Sales Order where applicable"

3. A reference in this Scheme to the Successor Postal Services Company shall be read as a reference to Royal Mail Group Ltd.

Explanatory Notes:

Paragraph (1) shall now refer to this Scheme as being made by what is now Royal Mail under section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969 and was originally called the Post Office Overseas Letter Post Scheme 2001.

The reference in Paragraph (2) to Royal Mail Group plc shall be replaced by Royal Mail Group Ltd (formerly called Consignia plc).

The reference in Paragraph (3) to Royal Mail Group plc shall be replaced by Royal Mail Group Ltd.

Additionally the references under part 5 of the Scheme at paragraph 40 and to paragraph 42A shall be deleted.

References throughout the text of parts 1-6 of the Scheme and the Schedules to the Scheme to "the Post Office" shall, where is appropriate, now be made to Royal Mail Group Ltd, Royal Mail Group or Royal Mail.

Schedule 7 shall be entitled: Aisre packets, Aisre packs, International Signed For packets and International Signed For packs — fees and compensation levels

Part 1 interpretation

The definition of "International Reply Coupon" shall be deleted.

Part 3 General Conditions

Under paragraph 13 new subparagraphs (3) and (4) shall be added:

(3) The payment mark should be placed in the top right hand corner on the front of the cover or envelope of the item (unless Royal Mail directs otherwise) and nothing should obscure the payment mark, nor should the payment mark be attached using staples, sticky tape or other means not approved by Royal Mail.

(4) Inland and international mailings should be segregated and each type of mail separately presented according to service type and format (i.e. letter or printed papers or packet) in bundles of convenient size with addresses the same side up and facing the same way. All bags, trays, containers or other receptacle used to present the mail should be identifiable on the basis of the above categories through the use of appropriately marked and securely fastened tags or labels approved by Royal Mail.

Under paragraph 16 there shall be added at the end of subparagraph (1) the words:

"or in respect of mailings which are sent "on account"."

Part 5 Postal Services

Under paragraph 32 subparagraph (2), which is provided below, the following shall replace the existing text:

The following rules apply when sending the packets and packs mentioned in sub-paragraph (1):

(a) The packet or pack shall not be addressed to an addressee identified by initials only, or addressed by means of a pencil.

(b) Packets or packs containing coin, bank notes, currency notes, securities or instruments payable to bearer, platinum, gold or silver manufactured or not, precious stones, jewels or other valuable articles may not be sent as printed packets and:

(i) The sender or an officer of the Post Office shall mark on the label affixed to the packet or incorporated into the pack, the amount for which the packet or pack may potentially be compensated which amount shall not exceed whichever shall be the lowest of the following limits:

(ii) the actual cost of the packet or pack with its contents up to a maximum of the market value or 100 times the price of a first class stamp or:

(iii) the sum of compensation which the sender may have purchased for the service used and which the Post Office may from time to time determine for such packets or packs to particular destinations or

(iv) the sum of £100 should the contents include coins, bank notes, currency notes or securities of any kind payable to bearer and travellers cheques where such items are permitted to be sent.

(v) compensation for mobile telephones is restricted to 100 times the price of a first class stamp where payment is by stamp or franked mail and in the case of a mailing sent "on account" is restricted to £50 regardless of the number of mobile telephones sent in the item. You cannot buy additional compensation if you are sending mobile telephones.

(c) The packet or pack shall be posted by being delivered to an officer of the Post Office on duty at a post office or delivered to an officer of the Post Office authorised to receive such packets or packs though not on duty at a post office.

(d) There shall be charged and paid for the items mentioned in sub-paragraph 1 the appropriate fees specified in Schedule 7.

(e) On the posting of the packet or pack, the Post Office shall provide the sender the portion of the appropriate service label, bearing a certificate of posting in acknowledgement that the item has been posted.

(f) Additional compensation options cannot be purchased for packets containing mobile telephones. The maximum compensation payable is specified at Paragraph 38.

Under paragraph 37 the following sentence shall be deleted:

"From that date, loss or damage to such items shall be handled in accordance with Royal Mail's general terms and conditions."

Under paragraph 37A which is provided below, the following shall replace the existing text:

COMPENSATION FOR AIRSURE PACKETS, AIRSURE PACKS, INTERNATIONAL SIGNED FOR PACKETS AND INTERNATIONAL SIGNED FOR PACKS

(1) The sum payable by way of compensation for an Aisre packet, an Aisre pack, an International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack shall be:

(i) the actual cost of the item in the packet or pack up to a maximum of the market value or 100 times the value of a 1st Class stamp whichever is the lowest, or the compensation level payable for the service used, in the event that the postage paid was by means of a stamp or by franking mark; or

(ii) the actual cost of the item in the packet or pack up to a maximum of the market value or £50, whichever is the lowest, or the compensation level payable for the service used, in the event of the sender holding an account or credit agreement with Royal Mail (and under which the item has been sent).

(1a) The maximum amount of compensation which the Post Office will pay in respect of coins, bank notes, currency notes or securities of any kind payable to bearer and travellers cheques is limited to £100.

(1b) The maximum amount of compensation payable where payment is by stamp or franked mark in respect of lost or damaged mobile telephones shall not exceed 100 times the cost of a first class stamp per postal packet, parcel (or any other posting of any description), regardless of the number of mobile telephones in it. Where a mailing is sent "on account" the compensation will be restricted to £50. Additional compensation cannot be purchased when sending mobile telephones.

(2) Where the Post office pays compensation in respect of an Aisre packet, an Aisre pack, an International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack in accordance with the foregoing subparagraphs, it may additionally pay an amount equivalent to the amount of postage and the product fee paid by the sender of the packet or pack.

(3) No compensation may be paid in respect of any Aisre packet, Aisre pack, International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack or its contents unless the Post Office is satisfied that the conditions set out in paragraphs 3, 4, 5 and 6 of Schedule 12 of the Scheme have been complied with in the case of that packet or pack.

(4) No compensation may be paid in respect of any Aisre packet, Aisre pack, International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack or its contents if the letter has been destroyed or otherwise dealt with or disposed of by the Post Office pursuant to section 8 (3) of the Act or sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 18 of the Scheme or by another Postal Administration under a provision of the law of the country or place of that Postal Administration.

(5) No compensation may be paid in respect of any Aisre packet, Aisre pack, International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack or its contents if the letter was lost, damaged or destroyed in circumstances beyond the control of the Postal Administration in whose service the loss, damage or destruction occurred.

(6) No compensation may be paid in respect of any Aisre packet, Aisre pack, International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack or its contents unless:

(a) a claim for compensation is made by the sender within a period of six months beginning with the date on which the packet or pack was posted.

(b) the appropriate service label, bearing a certificate of posting referred to in paragraph 32A(2)(e) was obtained at the time of posting.

(7) If compensation has been paid to any person in respect of the loss of an Aisre packet, Aisre pack, International Signed For packet or an International Signed For pack, which the sender has purchased for a sum exceeding the real value of the contents and packing and the packet or pack subsequently comes into the possession of the Post Office, then upon the tender of the packet or pack to that person (whether or not he accepts it), he shall repay to the Post Office the sum paid by way of compensation or such part thereof as the Post Office may require.

Under paragraph 38 which is provided below, the following shall replace the existing text:

COMPENSATION FOR CERTAIN OTHER POSTAL PACKETS

(1) Where Royal Mail is satisfied that any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a postal packet other than an Airsure packet, Airsure pack, International Signed For packet, International Signed For pack or a postal packet consisting of or containing only literature for the blind, has been lost or damaged whilst in the custody of Royal Mail, it may (but subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph) pay such sum as it may think just by way of compensation for such loss or damage to any sender who in its opinion establishes a reasonable claim thereto.

(2) The total amount of compensation which Royal Mail may pay under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any one postal packet and its contents shall be the actual cost of the item up to a maximum of the market value or 100 times the value of an inland first class stamp whichever is the lower, in the event that the postage paid was by means of a stamp or by franked mark without any account or credit agreement being held with Royal Mail.

(2A) the total amount of compensation which Royal Mail may pay under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any one postal packet and its contents in the event that the sender holds an account or credit agreement with Royal Mail (and under which the item has been sent) shall be nil.

(3) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the maximum amount of compensation which Royal Mail Group may pay under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any article enclosed in or forming part of a postal packet shall be such sum as, in its opinion, represents:

(a) in a case where Royal Mail Group is satisfied that the article has been lost or rendered valueless whilst in its custody, the market value thereof (excluding the value of any message or communication) at the time of posting;

(b) in any other case, the amount by which such value has been diminished by damage suffered whilst the packet was in its custody.

(4) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) for loss of, or damage to, any such article as is described in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 35 of the Scheme.

(5) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any postal packet or its contents unless Royal Mail Group is satisfied that the conditions set out in Schedule 12 hereto have been complied with in the case of that postal packet.

(6) In the case of a postal packet which was redirected under paragraph 41 of the Scheme after delivery at the place to which it was addressed, no compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) for loss of, or damage to, the postal packet, or any of its contents while in the custody of Royal Mail Group, unless the postal packet was so re-directed by being posted anew and full postage was prepaid on such reposting, in which case compensation may be paid subject to and in accordance with this paragraph, for any such loss or damage which Royal Mail Group is satisfied occurred while the postal packet was in its custody after such reposting.

(7) No compensation may be paid under sub-paragraph (1) in respect of any postal packet or its contents if the packet has been destroyed or otherwise dealt with or disposed of by Royal Mail Group pursuant to section 8(3) of the Act or sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 18, or paragraph 19, of the Scheme.

(8) No compensation may be paid in respect of any postal packet or its contents unless:

(a) a claim for such compensation is received from the sender within a period of six months beginning with the date on which the packet was posted;

(b) in the case of an outgoing packet, a certificate was obtained on the posting of the packet.

Paragraph 40 which sets out the terms on which International Reply Coupons shall be provided is marked as now deleted.

Paragraph 42A which sets out the terms on which Local Collect shall be provided is marked as now deleted.

The Schedules

Schedule 1 which sets out the rates of postage on airmail letters and postcards other than airmail packets and printed papers shall include an additional "on account" rate which shall be the same as the franking rate specified from time to time.

Schedule 1 shall also include a provision which will read as follows:

"On Account mailings are subject to a minimum annual spend of £5,000 on standard tariff services, invoiced over any 12 month period."

Schedule 2 which sets out the rates of postage on Airmail printed paper and Airmail small packets to Europe and Rest of the World shall also include an additional "on account" rate which shall be the same as the franking rate specified from time to time.

Schedule 2 shall also include a provision which will read as follows:

"On Account mailings are subject to a minimum annual spend of £5,000 on standard tariff services, invoiced over any 12 month period."

Schedule 7 which sets out the rates for sending Airsure packets and packs shall include an additional "on account" rate which shall be the same as the franking rate specified from time to time.

Schedule 7 shall also include a provision which will read as follows:

"On Account mailings are subject to a minimum annual spend of £5,000 on standard tariff services, invoiced over any 12 month period."

TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The Belfast Gazette is an Official Newspaper of Record. The Belfast Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "Belfast Gazette" shall include supplements to the Belfast Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the Belfast Gazette as well as the paper version.

The Belfast Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the Belfast Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Belfast Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions*1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the Belfast Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the Belfast Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and*1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

- 4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;
- 4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;
- 4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;
- 4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;
- 4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and
- 4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1-4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Belfast Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Belfast Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

- 11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;
- 11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;
- 11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statute or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Belfast Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Belfast Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
