DEPARTMENT FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT (NI)

STATUTORY RULE (NI)

PARKING PLACES - ELECTRIC VEHICLES

The Department for Regional Development has made a Statutory Rule entitled "The Parking Places on Roads (Electric Vehicles) (Amendment No. 2) Order (Northern Ireland) 2014", (S.R. 2014 No. 42), which comes into operation on 11th March 2014.

The rule will authorise parking places in Bangor, Belfast, Hillsborough and Newtownabbey for the sole use of electric vehicles.

Copies of the rule may be obtained from Room 2-13, Clarence Court, 10-18 Adelaide Street, Belfast or viewed online at http://legislation.gov.uk/nisr (8)

DEPARTMENT FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

THE RAIL VEHICLE ACCESSIBILITY (APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTION ORDERS) REGULATIONS (NORTHERN IRELAND) 2014

The Department for Regional Development, (DRD) has made a Statutory Rule entitled The Rail Vehicle Accessibility (Applications for Exemption Orders) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2014 (S.R. No. 46), which comes into operation on 28th April 2014.

The Regulation is made under the powers conferred by section 47(2) of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995.

Purpose of the Statutory Rule

The Rail Vehicle Accessibility (Applications for Exemption Order) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2014 which will revoke and replace the Rail Vehicle (Exemption Applications) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2001, specify who can apply for an RVAR exemption order, the manner in which applications must be made and the circumstances under which an order may be revoked.

Although the Department is clear that an accessible rail fleet will be achieved by 1st January 2020, it recognises that a small number of rail vehicles are unlikely to be able to fully comply with the PRM TSI or RVAR by that date. Whilst we are already working with operators to improve rail vehicle accessibility, it is inevitable that some exemptions will remain necessary, particularly in the Heritage Rail sector.

Copies of the Statutory Rule may be purchased from the Stationery Office, at www.tsoshop.co.uk or, by contacting TSO customer services on 0870 600 5522 or, viewed online at http://www.legislation.gov.uk/nisr. (9)

DEPARTMENT FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

THE RAIL VEHICLE ACCESSIBILITY REGULATIONS (NORTHERN IRELAND) 2014

The Department for Regional Development, (DRD) has made a Statutory Rule entitled The Rail Vehicle Accessibility Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2014 (S.R. No. 45), which comes into operation on 28th April 2014.

The Regulation is made under the powers conferred by section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 and sections 46(1), (2), (4A) and (5) and 67(3)(a) of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995.

Purpose of the Statutory Rule

The Rail Vehicle Accessibility Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2001 came into force on 19th October 2001 and applied to passenger-carrying vehicles used on railways which were first brought into use after 31st December 1998. They standardised accessibility requirements to meet the needs of disabled passengers including provision for wheelchair users, the size and location of handrails, handholds and control devices as well as the provision of passenger information systems and other equipment.

In its report to the UK Government in 1999, the Disability Rights Task Force made a number of recommendations on transport, including two specifically aimed at improving access to rail services for disabled people:

- the setting of an end date by which time all passenger rail vehicles will be subject to RVAR; and
- the extension of RVAR to apply to refurbishment of existing rolling stock.

Those recommendations were accepted by the UK Government and initial consultation on proposals for implementation began in November 2003. That consultation also sought views on other issues which were not recommendations of the Disability Rights Task Force including amendments to the RVAR exemption process and addressing matters such as compliance certification and enforcement. Many of these changes had been requested by the rail industry in light of experience of the existing regime.

However, the programme for their introduction was delayed pending the development of the new European standards for the accessibility of heavy rail vehicles, the Technical Specification for Interoperability for Persons with Reduced Mobility ("PRM TSI") which was introduced on 1st July 2008. The PRM TSI will apply to the main line rail system (which comprises all of the Northern Ireland railway network) where the Department considers that a rolling stock project ought to be introduced under the interoperability requirements as presently transposed by the UK wide Railways (Interoperability) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/397). This system was used to introduce the Class 4000 rolling stock which recently was authorised for service.

The revised RVAR regulations will apply to those rail vehicles which are currently subject to the Rail Vehicle Accessibility Regulations

(Northern Ireland) 2001 (i.e. all "regulated rail vehicles" in service prior to 1st July 2008), and to vehicles introduced after 1st July 2008 where the Department is satisfied that Interoperable requirements need not apply. The Department has agreed with the European Commission that refurbishment of older trains will be, so far as will be practicable, to the PRM TSI requirements. Northern Ireland Railways welcome this approach.

This significant change, together with other developments since the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 and the Disability Discrimination (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 were enacted has prompted us and colleagues in Great Britain to reassess the introduction of some provisions, particularly the proposed compliance certification and civil enforcement regimes.

Rail Vehicle Accessibility Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2014 (RVAR 2014) will revoke and replace RVAR 2001. They include a number of amendments to the technical accessibility requirements based on experience of using RVAR since 2001 and provide for enforcement by the Health and Safety Executive for Northern Ireland.

Copies of the Statutory Rule may be purchased from the Stationery Office, at www.tsoshop.co.uk or, by contacting TSO customer services on 0870 600 5522 or, viewed online at http://www.legislation.gov.uk/nisr. (10)

IN THE COURT OF SESSION
SCOTLAND P191/14

TSB BANK PLC

BANK OF SCOTLAND PLC

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, on Monday 25 February 2014, a petition was presented to the Court of Session in Scotland (the "Court") by (1) TSB Bank plc, incorporated in Scotland under the Companies Acts and with its registered office at Henry Duncan House, 120 George Street, Edinburgh EH2 4LH ("TSB"), and (2) Bank of Scotland plc, incorporated in Scotland under the Companies Acts and with its registered office at The Mound, Edinburgh EH1 1YZ ("BOS"), for an order of the Court under Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 sanctioning a scheme (the "Scheme") for the transfer of part of the deposit-taking and associated banking business of TSB to BOS.

Copies of the Petition, the Scheme and a summary of the principal terms of the Scheme are available free of charge by downloading from the website at www.tsb.co.uk/transfer, or on request by writing to Sam Hogrefe at Level 1, Henry Duncan House, 120 George Street, Edinburgh EH2 4LH, in each case until the date of the hearing at which the Court sanctions the Scheme. That date is currently expected to be Wednesday 2 April 2014.

In accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, TSB and BOS will publish a series of notices in relation to the Petition. They are expected to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, The London Gazette and The Belfast Gazette, and in each of The Times and The Scotsman newspapers. Any person who considers that they would be adversely affected by the carrying out of the Scheme should seek independent legal advice and has the right to lodge written Answers (formal written objections) to the Petition with the Court at Parliament House, Parliament Square, Edinburgh EH1 1RQ within 28 days of the publication of the last of these notices, which is expected to be on Friday 28 February 2014. Any person who does not lodge written Answers but who wishes to make written representations to the Court, or to appear in person at the Court hearing, should note that it is at the Court's discretion whether to allow them to do so, although its practice is to do so.

Any person who intends to appear at Court with an objection, or to make representations in writing to the Court before the hearing, is requested to give notice in writing to the solicitors to TSB and BOS not less than three business days before the hearing, and to provide them with a copy of any such representations. TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBMISSION OF NOTICES

The Belfast Gazette is an Official Newspaper of Record. The Belfast Gazette publishes official, legal and regulatory notices pursuant to legislation and on behalf of the persons who are required by law to notify the public at large of certain information. For the avoidance of doubt all references to "Belfast Gazette" shall include supplements to the Belfast Gazette and all mediums which shall include the online version of the Belfast Gazette as well as the paper version.

The Belfast Gazette is published by the Publisher (defined below) under the authority and superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and Queen's Printer of Acts of Parliament.

Notices received for publication fall under the following broad headings:

State, Parliament, Ecclesiastical, Public Finance, Transport, Planning, Health, Environment, Water, Agriculture & Fisheries, Energy, Post & Telecom, Other Notices, Competition, Corporate Insolvency, Personal Insolvency, Companies & Financial Regulation, Partnerships, Societies Regulation and Personal Legal information. Further information can be found at www.gazettes-online.co.uk.

These terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") govern submission of Notices (as defined below) to the Belfast Gazette. By submitting Notices howsoever communicated, whether at the website www.gazettes-online.co.uk (the "Website") or to www.gazette-submission.co.uk, email, post and/or facsimile, the Advertiser (as defined below) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified Terms and Conditions. By submitting Notices to the Belfast Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

1 Definitions

1.1 In these Terms and Conditions:

"Advertiser" means any company, firm or person who has made an application for and who has been allocated space in the Belfast Gazette, whether acting on their own account or as agent or representative of a principal;

"Charges" means the payment due for the acceptance of a Notice by the Publisher payable by the Advertiser as set out in the Authorised Scale of Charges which can be found in the printed copy or at www.gazettes-online.co.uk;

"Notice" means all advertisements and state, public or legal notices placed in the Belfast Gazette;

"Publisher" means The Stationery Office Limited.

1.2 the singular includes the plural and vice-versa; and

1.3 any reference to any legislative provision shall be deemed to include any subsequent re-enactment or amending provision.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the Publisher and Advertiser in relation to the publication of Notices. These Terms and Conditions shall govern and be incorporated into every Notice, and shall prevail over any terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher shall make all reasonable efforts to verify the validity of any Notice submitted for publication.

4 The Publisher may edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser must not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

4.4 Notices can be edited to re-position material for style;

4.5 any additions or deletions required in order to include the minimum necessary information set out in any Notice guidelines shall be confirmed with the Advertiser; and

4.6 no amendments to the text (other than those made as a consequence of 4.1–4.5 above) shall be made without written confirmation from the Advertiser.

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legislative requirements relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice does not comply with legislative or procedural requirements (guidance on both is available from the Publisher). In such instances, the Publisher shall notify the Advertiser of the action required to remedy any deficiency and publication shall not take place until the Publisher is satisfied that such action has been taken by the Advertiser.

6 The Publisher (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees) shall not be liable for any loss or damage including expenses or costs suffered by the Advertiser or any third party whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Publisher's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's negligence or the negligence of the Publisher's agents or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 4 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon notification of such error by the Advertiser, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity and this shall be the limit of the Publishers liability or responsibility in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes an Advertiser is deliberately submitting Notices in bad faith and in breach of clause 10 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in persistent breach of these Terms and Conditions, the Publisher may require further verification of information be provided by such Advertisers and may at its discretion delay publication of those Notices as far as it is able to, until it satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in the Belfast Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of the Belfast Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading nor does it contain fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any Act of Parliament nor is it in any way illegal or defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice.

12 To the extent permissible by law the Publisher excludes all implied warranties, conditions or other terms, whether implied by statue or otherwise.

13 The Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the Publisher and/or (as applicable) the Publisher's affiliates, officers, directors, agents and employees harmless from all losses incurred (including legal costs), in respect of any claim or demand, including threatened claims or demands, made by any third party which constitute, or would if proved constitute, a breach or threatened breach by the Advertiser of these Terms and Conditions or any breach by the Advertiser of any law or an infringement of the rights of a third party. The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims are handled but the Publisher retain the final decision on all aspects of the claim, including choice of instructing solicitors, steps taken in litigation and decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request, including the provision of witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.gazettes-online.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim or threatened claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Publisher.

15 The Advertiser acknowledges that the Publisher may re-use Notices and/or allow third parties to re-use Notices accepted for publication in the Belfast Gazette, and hereby assigns to the Publisher all rights, including but not limited to, copyright in all Notices, and warrants that any such activity by the Publisher and/or third parties does not and will not infringe any legal right of the Advertiser or any third party.

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of the Belfast Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible and that the information contained in the Notices published in the Belfast Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose. In such instance, the Publisher accepts no liability whatsoever.

17 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher. The Charges must be paid by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

18 If the Advertiser wishes to make a Complaint then please refer to the Gazette office.

19 A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party specified in these Terms and Conditions or which exists or is available apart from that Act.

20 These Terms and Conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and the parties hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
