ROAD AND RAILWAY TRANSPORT
ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1935.

Order made by the Minister of Home Affairs under Section 14 of the Road and Railway Transport Act (Northern Ireland), 1935, extending the period within which the scheme for Pooling Receipts of the Northern Ireland Road Transport Board and the Railway Companies may be prepared.

I, the Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by Section 14 of the Road and Railway Transport Act (Northern Ireland), 1935 (in this Order referred to as "the Act"), and of all other powers in that behalf enabling me, but without prejudice to any further exercise of such powers, hereby order and direct that the period within which the Joint Committee established under the aforesaid section shall prepare and submit to the Northern Ireland Transport Board and to each of the Railway Companies mentioned in said section the pooling scheme framed in accordance with the provisions of the First Schedule to the Act shall be further extended to the 15th day of January, 1937:

This Order shall have effect as and from the 15th day of July, 1936:

Dated this 18th day of June, 1936.

R. DAWSON BATES,
Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.

Civil Service Commission,
Stormont,
Belfast,

26th June, 1936.

The Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland, and, in so far as they apply to appointments in the County Court Service, with the concurrence of the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF CLERK (MALE) IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

1. The limits of age are 18 and 20. If a competition begins in one of the first six months of any year, candidates must be of or over the age of 18 and under the age of 20 on the 31st day of March in that year. If a competition begins in one of the last six months of the year, candidates must be of or over the age of 18 and under the age of 20 on the 30th day of September in that year.

2. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's Dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalization or by any other voluntary and formal act.

3. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the Ministry of Finance has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. A fee of £1 will be required from each candidate applying to enter the competition.

5. The competition will comprise the following:—

PART I.

Examination in the under-mentioned obligatory subjects:—

	Marks.
1. Handwriting	300
2. Copying Manuscript	100
3. English	800
4. Arithmetic	400
5. Elementary Mathematics (Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry)	400
6. One of the following languages:— Latin; Greek; French; German; Spanish	400

PART II.

Examination in the under-mentioned optional subjects:—

	Marks.
7. One of the following languages not offered under Part I:— Latin; Greek; French; Ger- man; Spanish	400
8. Physics	400
9. Chemistry	400
10. Book-keeping and Industrial History	400
11. History	300
12. Geography	300
13. More advanced Mathematics (Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry)	400

PART III.

Interview	800
------------------	-----

Part of the examinations in Physics and Chemistry will be practical, and part of the examinations in French, German and Spanish will be oral. The practical and oral examinations will be held either during the course of the written examinations or immediately before or after them.

All the subjects in Part I. must be taken, and candidates may also offer subjects in Part II. aggregating marks up to, but not exceeding, a total of 1,100. Of the candidates who obtain the highest aggregate marks in Parts I. and II. a certain number, to be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners in relation to the number of situations to be filled, and taken in order of merit, will be summoned to Part III. (Interview), which will take place at a later date than the other parts of the competition. The final list of candidates eligible for appointment will be made up by uniting the results of the three parts of the competition, and those candidates who secure the highest aggregate marks will be declared successful.

6. Candidates must obtain such an aggregate number of marks in the competition as a whole as shall indicate, in the judgment of the Commissioners, that they possess a competent amount of general proficiency.

7. No expenses in connection with attendance at any part of the competition will be allowed.

8. Successful candidates will be required to furnish satisfactory evidence respecting age, physical fitness, and character.

9. From the list resulting from an examination will be filled (provided there be candidates duly qualified) the vacancies that have been announced when the result is ready for issue, and such additional vacancies, if any, as it may be decided to fill.

It will rest with the Civil Service Commissioners to determine the Departments to which the successful candidates shall be assigned. In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service. Subject to this condition, the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be respected.

The Commissioners further give notice of a Competition to be held under the foregoing Regulations, the written examinations commencing in Belfast on the 12th October, 1936.

No person will be admitted to the Competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received on or before the 31st August, 1936, an application in the candidate's own handwriting on the prescribed form, which can be obtained from the Secretary.

MERCHANDISE MARKS ACT, 1926.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rt. Hon. George N. Barnes, C.H., the Board of Trade have appointed Sir George M. Gillett, J.P., to be a member of the Standing Committee set up under Section 4 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, in relation to goods of all classes or descriptions other than agricultural and horticultural produce and the produce of any fishing industry.
