LOCAL GOVERNMENT. ALTERATION OF BOUNDARIES OF WARDS.

COUNTY BOROUGH OF LONDONDERRY.

WHEREAS by the Londonderry Improvement Act, 1896, the County Borough of Londonderry is divided into five Wards called respectively the East Ward, the North Ward and the South Ward, the Waterside Ward and the West Ward, the boundaries of which are defined in the said Act:

And whereas, by Order dated the 18th day of June, 1925, the Ministry of Home Affairs apportioned the borough councillors and aldermen among the said Wards, and such Order made certain provisions with regard to the election of aldermen and councillors for the said Wards:

And whereas it is enacted by Section 7 of the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, as amended by the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland), 1934, that the Ministry of Home Affairs may from time to time make orders dividing a borough, urban district or town into wards and fixing the boundaries of such wards and altering the total number of borough councillors, aldermen, urban district councillors or town commissioners:

Now, therefore, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, by virtue of the power vested in the Ministry by the Local Government Acts (Northern Ireland), 1898 to 1934, and of all other powers in that behalf enabling it, hereby orders and directs as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Londonderry Improvement Act, 1896, or in any order made by the Ministry of Home Affairs to the contrary, the County Borough of Londonderry shall be divided into three wards to be designated the North Ward, the South Ward and the Waterside Ward, and every Ward shall comprise all the houses, lands, and hereditaments within the limits of the same and the boundaries of such three Wards respectively shall be those described in the First Schedule to this Order.
2. There shall be elected on the 15th day of May, 1938, for each of the said three Wards into which the County Borough of Londonderry is by this Order divided the number of aldermen and councillors which is set out in the Second Schedule hereto opposite the names of each of the said Wards.
3. The aldermen and councillors of the County Borough of Londonderry in office on the 15th day of May, 1938, shall retire on the 16th day of May, 1938.
4. Of the five aldermen and fifteen councillors to be elected on the 15th day of May, 1938, the dates of their several retirements from office shall be as follows:—
 - (a) As regards the councillors in the North Ward and the South Ward two of the six councillors elected on the fifteenth day of May, 1938, shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1939, two more shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1940, and the remaining two shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1941, and in the Waterside Ward one of the three councillors elected on the fifteenth day of May, 1938, shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1939, one shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1940, one shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1941, and the order of retirement of councillors individually shall be determined by the number of votes received by them respectively on their election in the year 1938, the two councillors in the North Ward and the South Ward having the lowest number of votes retiring in the year 1939, the two councillors in each of the said Wards having the next lowest number of votes retiring in the year 1940, and the two councillors having the highest number of votes remaining in office till the year 1941, and in the Waterside Ward the councillor having the lowest number of votes retiring in the year 1939, the councillor having the next lowest number of votes retiring in the year 1940, and the councillor having the highest number of votes remaining in office till the year 1941, the majority of the whole council always determining, when the votes for any such councillors shall have been equal or when there shall have been no contest, who shall be the councillors to go out of office: Provided always that any councillor so going out of office shall be capable of being forthwith re-elected if duly qualified.

- (b) As regards Aldermen in the North Ward and the South Ward, one of the two aldermen elected on the fifteenth day of May, 1938, shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1941, and the remaining one on the sixteenth day of May, 1944, and the alderman who is to retire in the first instance in each of the said Wards shall be the alderman who was elected in that Ward by the smallest number of votes at the first election, and in the Waterside Ward the alderman elected on the fifteenth day of May, 1938, shall go out of office on the sixteenth day of May, 1944, the majority of the whole Council always determining, when the votes for any such aldermen in the North and South Wards shall have been equal or when there shall have been no contest, who shall be the alderman to go out of office: but any alderman on going out of office may forthwith be re-elected if duly qualified.

5. The vacancy caused by the going out of office of any alderman or councillor of a Ward in manner as aforesaid, shall be filled by the election of an alderman or councillor, who shall not remain in office more than six years or three years, respectively, without being re-elected.

Given under the Seal of the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland this 11th day of December, 1936.

A. ROBINSON,
Assistant Secretary.

THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS FOR NORTHERN IRELAND.

PUBLIC HEALTH (IMPORTED FOOD) REGULATIONS, 1925.

PUBLIC HEALTH (IMPORTED FOOD) AMENDMENT REGULATIONS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1933.

The Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland gives notice, in pursuance of the above-named Regulations, that it hereby recognises for the purposes of items (a) and (c) of the Second Schedule to the Amendment Regulations, i.e. :—

- (a) A severed part of the carcase of an animal (including the head or any part thereof, and the whole carcase without the head, but not including any part of the carcase of a pig which has been salted, cured, pickled, dried or smoked, or otherwise prepared in the manner in which bacon or ham is ordinarily prepared), from which no submaxillary, pre-scapular, pre-crural, superficial inguinal, supramammary, or popliteal gland has been taken out;
- (c) All edible parts of an animal other than (i) the head or other severed parts of the carcase, (ii) the intestines prepared in the form of sausage casings, and (iii) meat which has before importation been made ready for human consumption in the form of a sausage or other prepared or manufactured article of food;

each of the Official Certificates of which particulars are given in the Schedule hereto, as evidence that the meat to which it relates has been derived from an animal which was free from disease at the time of slaughter, and has been dressed or prepared and packed with all necessary precautions for the prevention of danger to public health.

Where the Certificate is in the form of a label the recognition will apply only if the label is securely affixed to the package containing the meat, and if the label has not in any other circumstances or on any other occasion been used as an Official Certificate; and where the Certificate is in the form of a stamp the recognition will apply only if the stamp is clearly impressed on the meat.

The label and stamp hereby recognised as Official Certificates for meat imported from the Union of South Africa are in substitution for the label of which particulars were given in Part VIII of the First Schedule to the Notice published in the London Gazette of the 14th July, 1933, (and referred to in the Notice published in the Belfast Gazette of the 4th August, 1933).

The label hereby recognised as an Official Certificate for meat imported from the Commonwealth of Australia is in addition to the labels of which particulars were given in Part III of the First Schedule to the Notice published in the London Gazette of the 14th July, 1933 (and referred to in the Notice published in the Belfast Gazette of the 4th August, 1933), and in Part 1 of the First Schedule to the Notice published in the London Gazette of the 1st December, 1933 (and referred to in the Notice published in the Belfast Gazette of the 15th December, 1933).

SCHEDULE

1.—UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA.

* (1) A label having on it a design in the form set out below :—

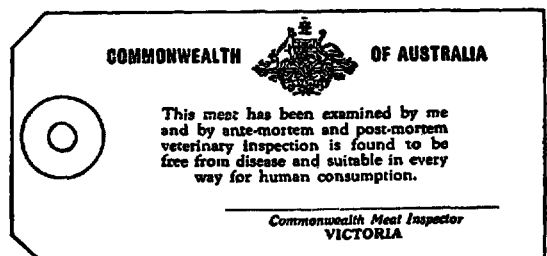

* (2) For beef in carcase form or as sides, quarters, or smaller cuts, a stamp of the following design :—

* The certificate will be completed by the insertion on the label or stamp of the number of the Establishment.

2.—COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA.

A label having on it a stamp or design and a certificate in the form set out below, except that for the word "Victoria" may be substituted the name of any other State comprised within the Commonwealth of Australia, and that the signature of the Inspector is to be added.
