TRADE BOARDS ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1923.

READYMADE AND WHOLESALE BESPOKE TAILORING TRADE BOARD (NORTHERN IRELAND).

The Trade Board established by the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland under powers conferred by the Trade Boards Act (Northern Ireland), 1923, for the Readymade and Wholesale Bespoke Tailoring Trade in Northern Ireland as defined in the Schedule to the Trade Boards (Readymade and Wholesale Bespoke Tailoring Trade, Northern Ireland) (Constitution, Proceedings and Meetings) Regulations, 1925, dated the 9th April, 1925, hereby give notice that they propose to vary general minimum time-rates piece-work basis time-rates and general overtime rates for certain male and female workers and to cancel general minimum time-rates and general overtime rates for male learners in the said trade.

On request to the Trade Board particulars of the proposed variation and cancellation of minimum rates will be given if, in the opinion of the Trade Board, the applicant is likely to be affected thereby.

The Trade Board will consider any objections to their proposals, which may be lodged with them within fourteen days from the twenty-second day of June, 1937. Such objections should be in writing and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address) and should be sent to the Secretary of the Readymade and Wholesale Bespoke Tailoring Trade Board (Northern Ireland), Office of Trade Board, Stormont, Belfast. It is desirable that persons making objections should state, as far as possible, the precise grounds therefor.

Signed by Order of the Trade Board
this twenty-second day of June, 1937.

J. H. CRAIG,
Secretary.

Civil Service Commission,
Stormont,
Belfast.

25th June, 1937.

The Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland, and, in so far as they apply to appointments in the County Court Service, with the concurrence of the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF CLERK (MALE) IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

1. The limits of age are 18 and 20. If a competition begins in one of the first six months of any year, candidates must be of or over the age of 18 and under the age of 20 on the 31st day of March in that year. If a competition begins in one of the last six months of the year, candidates must be of or over the age of 18 and under the age of 20 on the 30th day of September in that year. In reckoning the age for this purpose candidates who have served or are serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have so served.

2. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's Dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act.

3. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the Ministry of Finance has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. A fee of £1 will be required from each candidate applying to enter the competition.

5. The competition will comprise the following:—

PART I.

Examination in the under-mentioned obligatory subjects:—

	Marks
1. Handwriting	300
2. Copying Manuscript	100
3. English	800
4. Arithmetic	400
5. Elementary Mathematics (Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry)	400
6. One of the following languages:— Latin, Greek, French, German, Spanish	400

PART II.

Examination in the under-mentioned optional subjects:—

	Marks
7. One of the following languages not offered under Part I:—Latin, Greek, French, German, Spanish	400
8. Physics	400

9. Chemistry	400
10. Book-keeping and Industrial History	400
11. History	300
12. Geography	300
13. More advanced Mathematics (Algebra, Geometry and Trigonometry)	400

PART III.

Interview	800
------------------	-----

Part of the examination in Physics and Chemistry will be practical, and part of the examination in French, German and Spanish will be oral. The practical and oral examinations will be held either during the course of the written examinations or immediately before or after them.

All the subjects in Part I. must be taken, and candidates may also offer subjects in Part II., aggregating marks up to, but not exceeding, a total of 1,100. Of the candidates who obtain the highest aggregate marks in Parts I. and II. a certain number, to be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners in relation to the number of situations to be filled, and taken in order of merit, will be summoned to Part III. (Interview), which will take place at a later date than the other parts of the competition. The final list of candidates eligible for appointment will be made up by uniting the results of the three parts of the competition, and those candidates who secure the highest aggregate marks will be declared successful.

6. Candidates must obtain such an aggregate number of marks in the competition as a whole as shall indicate, in the judgment of the Commissioners, that they possess a competent amount of general proficiency.

7. No expenses in connection with attendance at any part of the competition will be allowed.

8. Successful candidates will be required to furnish satisfactory evidence respecting age, physical fitness and character.

9. From the list resulting from an examination will be filled (provided there be candidates duly qualified) the vacancies that have been announced when the result is ready for issue, and such additional vacancies, if any, as it may be decided to fill.

It will rest with the Civil Service Commissioners to determine the Departments to which the successful candidates shall be assigned. In making the assignments the Commissioners will be guided by the requirements of the public service. Subject to this condition, the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be respected.

The Commissioners further give notice of a Competition to be held under the foregoing Regulations, the written examinations commencing in Belfast on the 11th October, 1937.

No person will be admitted to the Competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received on or before the 31st August, 1937, an application in the candidate's own handwriting on the prescribed form, which can be obtained from the Secretary.
