NOTICE OF CHARITABLE BEQUEST:

In the Goods of REV. HENRY ROPER TAYLOR, B.A., late of Portrush, in the County of Antrim, Clerk in Holy Orders.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to 30 and 31 Victoria, cap. 54., Sec. 19, that the said Rev. Henry Roper Taylor by his Will, bearing date the 5th day of May, 1909, bequeathed all his collection of books to the Diocesan Board of Trustees of the Diocese of Down and Connor and Dromore for the use of the Diocesan Library Committee, Belfast, upon the terms and conditions in said Will set forth, Testator also bequeathed the sum of £500 to the Representative Body of the Church of Ireland, in trust, for the Diocesan Council of Down and Connor and Dromore, and directed that they should pay the interest thereof yearly to the said Council on behalf of the Diocesan Library Committee, which interest should be devoted exclusively for the maintenance of the efficiency of the said collection of books by the annual addition to it of such books as the said Committee might decide to purchase, Testator also bequeathed a further sum of £500 to the Representative Body of the Church of Ireland in trust for the said Diocesan Council, and directed that the interest thereof should be paid yearly to the Diocesan Council on behalf of the said Diocesan Library Committee, to be expended solely in providing prizes to be awarded for the study of the Scriptures and Christian Evidences. Testator also left and bequeathed all the rest and residue of his property of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situate to the Representative Body of the Church of Ireland, in trust, for the said Diocesan Council, and directed that the interest thereof should be paid yearly to the said Diocesan Council to form a fund to enable the said Library Committee to defray any incidental expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the said Bequests; after payment of all such incidental expenses, any balance of the said interest at the end of the year to be divided in every instance annually between the two said funds of maintenance of the said Collection and the said provision of prizes in such portions as the said Library Committee might determine. Testator directed that the interest on the said three funds be paid annually by the said Representative Body to the Diocesan Council of the Diocese of Down and Connor and Dromore for the respective purposes of the said respective Trusts, and by a Codicil to the said Will, dated 10th November, 1920, the Testator directed that if after a fair trial the provisions of his Bequests to the Diocesan Library, Belfast, were found to be unsuitable, the Library Committee might with the consent of the Diocesan Council modify or alter them from time to time to meet the needs of the changing times, provided always that the main purpose of the Bequests, viz., the promotion of Biblical Study and the defence of Christian Truth be maintained intact. The said Testator died on the 16th July, 1922, and Probate of his said Will and Codicil was on the 25th September, 1922, granted forth of the Principal Registry, Belfast, of the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, to the Rev. Stewart Emerson Cooney, LL.B., Rector of St. John's, in the City of Belfast, and the Rev. Wm. P. Carmody, Canon and Rector of Lisburn, in the County of Antrim, the Executors in said Will and Codicil named.

Dated this 13th day of January, 1923.
