THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS FOR NORTHERN IRELAND.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACTS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1898 to 1937.

URBAN DISTRICT OF NEWCASTLE.

To the Council of the Urban District of Newcastle; and to all others whom it may concern :

Whereas by the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland), 1922 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is provided that on and after the ordinary day of election in the year Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three, the members of the Council of an urban district in Northern Ireland shall be elected for wards or urban districts instead of for the local electoral areas formed under the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1919 :

And whereas by Section 7 of the Act it is provided that the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry") may make an Order dividing an urban district into wards, and fixing the boundaries of such wards, altering the number and boundaries of the wards or altering boundaries of the wards without altering their number and apportioning the urban district councillors among the wards, and that the Ministry may make such orders, as appear to it to be necessary or proper for giving full effect to the Act, and that before making an order for any of the aforesaid purposes the Ministry shall consult with the Council of the urban district, and may, if the Ministry deems it necessary, hold a local inquiry into the matter of any representations made by any such Council.

And whereas it is enacted by sub-section 5 of section 24 of the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 1934, that the power conferred upon the Ministry by section 7 of the Act to make orders shall include the power to make orders as respects a borough urban district or town for altering the total number of borough councillors, aldermen, urban district councillors or town commissioners.

And whereas the Urban District of Newcastle was by order dated the 6th November, 1922, divided into two Wards called respectively the North Ward and the South Ward, and six members assigned to each of the said Wards.

And whereas the Ministry considers it expedient that the said order dated the 6th November, 1922, should be revoked and that the members of the Urban District Council of Newcastle should be elected for the urban district and that the total number of urban councillors should be altered from twelve to nine.

Now, therefore, the Ministry of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers vested in it by the Local Government Acts (Northern Ireland), 1898 to 1937, and of all other powers in that behalf enabling the Ministry hereby orders and directs as follows:—
