

Masses said in Public and in Ireland as therein provided.

To the Most Reverend Bernard O'Kane, D.D., Lord Bishop of Derry; Reverend Felix O'Neill, P.P., and Reverend Edward MacNamee, C.C., or their respective successors the sum of £1,430 (which at the date of testatrix's death was invested on Mortgage) to be applied by them as to £230 in erecting or assisting to erect new Roman Catholic Schools in Faughanvale Parish, and as to the remaining £1,200 in repairing, renovating, maintaining or improving the Catholic Church known as the "Creggan Chapel," or in assisting to build a new Church on its site or in its stead, and testatrix directed that if the Mortgage should not realise the full amount of principal and interest due thereon at date of realisation thereof, the said two last mentioned legacies should abate proportionately.

And Testatrix made provision in her said Will for disposal, in an alternative manner, of any funds bequeathed by her for charitable purposes in the event of same becoming void or inoperative.

Probate of said Will with one Codicil was on the 15th day of February, 1939, granted forth of the District Registry at Londonderry, King's Bench Division (Probate) of the High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland, to Reverend Edward MacNamee and Joseph McBennett, two of the surviving Executors named in the said Will and Codicil of deceased.

Dated this 4th day of May, 1939.
