STAMP DUTIES.

Whereas Section 12 (2) of the Finance Act, 1899, provides inter alia that His Majesty's Commissioners of Inland Revenue may substitute, as respects any foreign or colonial currency mentioned in the Schedule to that Act, any rate of exchange for that specified in the Schedule and may add to the Schedule a rate of exchange for any foreign or colonial currency not mentioned therein, and that such Act shall be construed as if any rate of exchange for the time being substituted or added were contained in the said Schedule, and in the case of the substitution of a rate of exchange as if the rate for which the new rate is substituted were omitted from that Schedule. And whereas by notices duly advertised pursuant to the said Section in the month of August, 1920, the said

Commissioners substituted certain rates of exchange for those specified in the said Schedule. And whereas under the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, and the Orders in Council made pursuant thereto, the powers of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in relation to Taxes which the Parliament of Northern Ireland have power to impose are transferred to the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland. And whereas by notices duly advertised pursuant to the said Section in the months of July and August, 1923, April, 1924, May and June, 1925, July, 1926, January and February, 1927, and March, 1928, the said Ministry substituted certain rates of exchange for those specified in the said Schedule. Now the said Ministry hereby gives notice that they substitute the following rates of exchange for those specified in the Schedule to the Finance Act, 1899, as varied by the above-mentioned notices now in force under the said Act:

Paper Peso (Argentine Republic)—Twenty to one pound.

Yen—Seventeen to one pound.
