

hereby give notice that in pursuance of the provisions therein contained all licences for the establishment of wireless telegraph sending and receiving stations for Royal Naval Wireless Auxiliary Reserve purposes are hereby withdrawn.

Dated this thirty-first day of August, 1939.

G. C. TRYON,

His Majesty's Postmaster General.

N.B.—This Notice has no application to the ordinary wireless receiving licences issued to the general public at Post Offices throughout the country.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY (FOREIGN SHIPS) REGULATIONS, 1908.

(STATUTORY RULES AND ORDERS, 1908, No. 496).

ADMIRALTY RULES.

The following rules are made by the Admiralty, pursuant to the above Regulations:—

1. The use of wireless telegraphy is prohibited in the harbours of Great Britain, Northern Ireland, and Channel Islands.

2. On entering any port or harbour the wireless telegraphy office(s) will be sealed up by the Customs Officer boarding the vessel. During the stay of the vessel in harbour access to the wireless telegraphy office(s) will only be allowed under the following conditions:—If the vessel will remain in harbour for some time so that it is necessary for the wireless staff to have access to the office(s) in order to attend to the batteries, etc., the master of the merchant vessel will be responsible for warning the Customs Officers that such access will be required in order that the Customs Officers may arrange for the breaking of the seals. The master will be held responsible that no messages are transmitted while the office(s) is (are) open, and should state for how long access is required in order that the Customs Officers may afterwards go on board and re-seal the office(s).

3. Foreign vessels within the territorial waters of the British Isles are to restrict their use of wireless telegraphy as much as possible so as to avoid interference with British communications.

4. Any breach of these regulations renders the masters of the offending ships liable to penalties and to the confiscation of the wireless apparatus on their ships.
