PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section six of the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council make such adaptations of any enactments so far as they relate to any of His Majesty's Dominions other than the Irish Free State as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of the establishment of the Irish Free State, and that any such Order in Council may contain such supplemental, consequential, and incidental provisions as may appear necessary or proper for the purposes of the Order :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Irish Free State (Consequential Adaptation of Enactments) Order, 1923.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order and of any subsequent Order in Council made under section six of the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922, references in any enactment passed before the establishment of the Irish Free State to "the United Kingdom" or "the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," or "Great Britain and Ireland" or "Great Britain or Ireland," or "the British Islands" or "Ireland," shall, in the application of the enactment to any part of Great Britain and Ireland other than the Irish Free State, be construed as exclusive of the Irish Free State, except that in the Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Order any such expression as aforesaid shall, to the extent specified in that Schedule, be construed as including the Irish Free State :

Provided that nothing in this Article shall—

(a) apply to any enactment so as to affect the liability to, or the assessment or collection of, any tax or duty the liability whereof, or the assessment or collection whereof, is regulated by section two of the Irish Free State Constitution Act, 1922, or to sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland) Act, 1857, and sections thirteen and fourteen of the Confirmation of Executors (Scotland) Act, 1858, as respectively modified by the Government of Ireland (Re-sealing, &c., of Probates) Order, 1922, in relation to cases where death duties payable on the death of the person to whom representation is granted are regulated by the said section two; or

(b) apply to any enactment regulating the administration of any public service the transfer of the administration whereof to the Government of the Irish Free State is, by virtue of Article seventy-nine of the Constitution of the Irish Free State, deferred, so as to effect the administration of that service prior to the transfer; or

(c) apply to any enactment designed for the enforcement of any international convention which is binding on the Irish Free
