Whereas by the thirtieth section of the 'Weights and Measures Act, 1889,' it is enacted that Her Majesty the Queen may, from time to time, on the application of the Local Authority for any area, and on being satisfied that the provisions made by or under any Local Act in force at the commencement of the 'Weights and Measures Act, 1889,' with respect to the sale of coal in that area, are more stringent than the corresponding provisions of the said Act, by Order in Council exempt that area from the provisions of the second part of the Act to such extent, and under such conditions, as may appear to Her Majesty in Council expedient :
