‘Boundary Commissioners for Scotland.

‘HAY SHENNAN, Secretary.’

And whereas none of the authorities affected by the order has petitioned Her Majesty in Council within one month after the publication of the order to cause the order to be laid before Parliament, and the Secretary for Scotland does not recommend that the order shall be laid before Parliament:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby confirm the order aforesaid.

C. L. PEEL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of November 1890.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Boundary Commissioners, duly appointed under the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, have finally made, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and brought before Her Majesty an order in the following terms:—

‘PARISHES OF HAWICK AND WILTON.

‘Whereas part of the Parish of Wilton, containing one acre or thereby, is detached from the main portion of the said Parish of Wilton, being separated therefrom by part of the Parish of Hawick known as the Common Haugh:

‘And whereas it appears to us, after communicating with the Authorities and others interested, to be expedient to alter the boundaries of the said Parishes in manner hereinafter provided:

‘Now, therefore, we, the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, determine and order as follows:—

‘I. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, the aforesaid detached part of the Parish of Wilton shall cease to be part of that

Parish, and shall form part of the Parish of Hawick.

‘II. Subject to the provisions of the said Act, that portion of the Parish of Hawick situated at or near Albert Mills, bounded on the north by the centre of the road leading from Wellington Street to the Hawick and Wilton road, on the east by the centre of the said Hawick and Wilton road, on the south by the centre of the road leading from Wilton Lodge to the said Hawick and Wilton road, and on the west by the present boundary between the Parishes of Hawick and Wilton, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Hawick, and shall form part of the Parish of Wilton, and the boundaries of the said Parishes shall be altered accordingly.

‘III. This Order shall come into operation for the purposes of School Board elections on the 1st day of January 1891, and for all other purposes on the 15th day of May 1891.

‘Given under our Hands and Common Seal this 3rd day of October 1890.

(Signed) ‘JOHN CHEYNE,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Boundary Commissioners, duly appointed under the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, have finally made, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and brought before Her Majesty an order in the following terms:—

‘PARISHES OF ABBOTSHALL AND KIRKCALDY.

‘Whereas two parts of the Parish of Abbotshall, containing respectively 27 acres or thereby, and 4 acres or thereby, and surrounded by the Parish of Kirkcaldy, are, as shown on the Ordnance Survey Maps, detached from the main portion of the Parish of Abbotshall:

‘And whereas it appears to us, after communicating with the Authorities and others interested, to be expedient to deal with the said detached parts in manner hereinafter provided:
