CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

December 19, 1890.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situation of Accountant Clerk in the Department of the Director of Engineering and Architectural Works in the Admiralty, at the Outports.

These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 22 and 25, and Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the competitive part of the Examination.

II. Candidates will be required to show what technical education and practical training they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must show (1) that they have served, for at least two years, in a public or private office under an Engineer, Architect, Surveyor, or Builder; (2) that the works on which they have been engaged during those years were such as to afford them the opportunity of gaining a satisfactory knowledge of their profession; and (3) that they have fully profited by their practical training, and possess the necessary qualifications and experience. Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If such evidence should prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to Examination, subject, in the case of his being successful in the competition, to such further inquiry, and the production of such further evidence, as may be necessary.

III. The Examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

 No candidate who fails to show satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the Examination.

PART II.—COMPETITIVE.

1. English Composition (so far as regards the ability to write a fair business letter).
2. Squaring dimensions, abstracting quantities, and bringing them into bill.
3. Architectural and Engineering Drawing (so far as necessary for reading plans and understanding their details).
4. Taking out quantities from plans and specifications.

* * Candidates must pass a qualifying examination in subjects numbered 1 and 2, and in one of the subjects numbered 3 and 4.

IV. A fee of 10s. will be required from each Candidate attending the Preliminary part of the Examination, and a further fee of 10s. from every Candidate admitted to the Competitive part.

V. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice, that an Examination for the situation of Accountant Clerk in the Department of the Director of Engineering and Architectural Works of the Admiralty, at the Outports, will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, under the above Regulations, the Preliminary part commencing on the 27th January 1891, and the Competitive part on the 10th February 1891.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 14th January 1891, an 'application' in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
