

THE PLEURO-PNEUMONIA
(SUPPLEMENTAL) ORDER OF 1891.

By the Board of Agriculture.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested, under The Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1890, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding anything in Article 12 of The Pleuro-Pneumonia Order of 1891, cattle landed from Ireland at a port or place in a Scheduled District declared by the Board of Agriculture under the said Order may be moved out of the Scheduled District to any place of destination, not being within the limits of a Scheduled District, on the following conditions:—

(a.) When landed, the cattle shall be moved forthwith by the most direct available route to the nearest available railway station (such station being within the Scheduled District) on the line of railway by which the cattle are to be moved to their place of destination.

(b.) The cattle shall be kept at the said railway station until trucked, and shall then be moved through and out of the Scheduled District without untrucking.

2. This Order may be cited as 'The Pleuro-Pneumonia (Supplemental) Order of 1891.'

3. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

4. In this Order terms have the same meaning as in The Pleuro-Pneumonia Order of 1891.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-sixth day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety.
