

Cattle from Isle of Man to be free.

2. Chapter 34 (Isle of Man) of the Animals Order of 1886 shall, from and after the commencement of this Order, apply to cattle as well as to other animals brought from the Isle of Man, as if the Animals (Amendment) Order of 1891 had not been made.

Amendment of Article 151 of The Animals Order of 1886.

3. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 151 of the Animals Order of 1886, and shall be deemed to be Article 151 of that Order (namely):—

Conditions of Landing.

151.—1. The landing of foreign animals at a Landing-Place for foreign animals under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions:—

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country other than Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or New Zealand, or the Channel Islands, or the United States of America (provision as to which country is made by the second condition of this Article), or the Isle of Man.

Second. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-one days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in the United States of America.

Third. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-one days before taking them on board; or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any country other than Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or New Zealand, or the Channel Islands, or the United States of America, or the Isle of Man.

Fourth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any country other than Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or New Zealand, or the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man.

2. And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Landing-Place for foreign animals unless and until—

(a) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in England or Wales or Scotland, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions; and

(b) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs, or their proper officer, by declaration made and signed or otherwise, that all the animals then imported therein are properly imported according to the provisions of this Article.

Interpretation.

4. In this Order terms have the same meaning as in the Animals Order of 1886.

Short Title.

5. This Order may be cited as THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1892, No. 4.

Commencement.

6. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the fourth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
