

Address which you, My dear Son, have presented to Me on behalf of the Governing Body of the Imperial Institute.

'This has been founded by your Exertions with the Efforts of those around you, and with the Aid of My People in every Clime and Country, as Evidence of the universal Loyalty of My Subjects.

'I recognise this Institute as a fitting Symbol of the Unity of the Empire, and it will be a matter of profound Satisfaction if the Association of the many and divers Countries under My Rule should be the Means of knitting them more closely together.

'The Imperial Institute is intended to promote this great Purpose, and I now declare it open, with an earnest Prayer that it may never cease to continue and flourish as a lasting Emblem of the Unity and Loyalty of My Empire.'
