ORDINANCE No. 25.

[GLASGOW, No. 3.—REGULATIONS AS TO APPLICATION OF PARLIAMENTARY GRANTS, AS TO

SALARIES AND FOR THE INSTITUTION OF A FEE FUND, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.]

At Edinburgh, the fifth day of June eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by Section 14, Sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular:—(a) The amount, manner of payment, and appropriation of fees and other payments made by students; (c) the awarding of compensation to existing professors where compensation seems to the Commissioners to be equitably due, taking all the circumstances into account; and by the said Section, Sub-section 7, to regulate the salaries of principals, professors, lecturers, and assistants of professors and other University officers, to provide for the appointment of assistants, and to determine by whom the right of appointing assistants shall be exercised; and by the said Section, Sub-section 10, to ensure the due preservation and administration of the whole property, rents, revenues, endowments, and funds of the Universities, the preservation and maintenance of all the fabrics and buildings of or connected with the Universities or colleges thereof existing at the passing of the first-mentioned Act, and to make such provision as they may think necessary to enable the Senatus Academicus and the General Council to discharge their duties; and by Section 26 to apportion the annual sum of £42,000 to be provided by Parliament among the Universities in such shares as the Commissioners think just, and to prescribe how the share of each University is to be applied and expended: Provided that (1) no one of the said Universities shall receive a smaller sum than the average amount of public moneys exclusive of building and other special grants which such University has received during the five years preceding the commencement of the first-mentioned Act; and the University of Glasgow shall, in addition to the average amount so received by it, receive an annual sum of five hundred pounds for the maintenance of the University buildings; and (2) no portion of the said annual sum shall be appropriated to any chair in the Faculty of Theology beyond the sum, if any, which has been, within the twelve months preceding the commencement of the first-mentioned Act, granted for the endowment of such chair out of public moneys, but this restriction shall not apply to the chair or chairs of Hebrew or Oriental languages which may now or hereafter be attached to the Faculty of Theology; and by Section 14, Sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858.

And whereas by the Education and Local Taxation Account (Scotland) Act, 1892, the said Commissioners are empowered to determine the manner in and conditions under which the annual sum of £30,000 payable out of the Local Taxation (Scotland) Account is to be distributed by or under the direction of the Secretary for Scotland among the Universities of Scotland:—

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Glasgow, as follows:—

I. (1) The University of Glasgow shall receive the sum of £12,180 as its share of the annual sum of £42,000, constituting the Parliamentary Grant divisible among the Universities under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889.

(2) The said University shall receive the sum of £8700 as its share of the annual sum of £30,000, constituting the Parliamentary Grant to the Universities under the Education and Local Taxation Account (Scotland) Act, 1892.

The said apportionments shall take effect as from the respective dates when the said Annual Grants became payable, but under deduction of the sums paid by the Commissioners to the said University ad interim.

II. The sums apportioned to the said University under the preceding Section shall form part of the revenue of the University, and shall be placed by the University Court to the account of the General University Fund.

III. The Principal of the said University shall receive the existing endowments of his office and such additional sum out of the General University Fund as shall make up his annual salary to £1100.

IV. The fees payable for classes conducted by the Professors within the said University, specified in Schedule I., hereunto annexed, and the fees payable for such classes qualifying for graduation as may be conducted by University Lecturers appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 [General, No. 10—Regulations as to Assistants and Lecturers], shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be collected in such manner as the University Court may from time to time appoint, and shall constitute the Fee Fund hereinafter mentioned.

V. The University Court shall keep a separate account of the fees so collected, distinguishing those drawn in each class, and the account shall be called 'The Fee Fund Account.'

VI. It shall be in the power of the University Court from time to time to fix the fees in any of the classes within the University.

VII. (1) The whole sums payable to the said Professors in the said University (other than the fees drawn under the provisions of Section IV. hereof), and in particular (a) the income from Endowments, distinguishing the Endowments of each Chair, and (b) sums corresponding to the sums paid to the several Professors out of Public Moneys before the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, shall be annually placed by the University Court to the credit of a separate account to be kept by it, and to be called 'The Salaries Account.'

(2) There shall also be annually paid into the Salaries Account, out of the General University Fund, the sums set forth in the second column of Schedule II., hereunto annexed, as Endowments or additional Endowments of the Chairs enumerated in the first column of the said Schedule II.

(3) In the case of any future Endowment, if the University Court is satisfied that it was the intention of the donor to raise the emoluments of the Chair to which it applies above the sum which would otherwise be payable to the Professor holding the Chair for the time being, it shall be in the power of the Court to direct that the income of such future Endowment shall not be placed to the credit of the Salaries Account, but shall be paid directly to the said Professor.

VIII. (1) The said Professors and their successors shall respectively receive annually out of the amount at the credit of the Salaries Account the sums paid into the said account in respect of their Chairs under Section VII. hereof, and shall also, subject as hereinafter provided, receive such sum from the Fee Fund as shall bring their salaries up in each case to the amount (hereinafter referred to as the Normal Salary) set forth in the second column of Schedule I., hereunto annexed.

(2) In the event of the Fee Fund, when added to the sums payable out of the Salaries Account, not being sufficient in any year to make good the Normal Salaries of the Professors, the claims of the Professors upon the Fee Fund shall in that year suffer a deduction proportionate to their Normal Salaries; and if it shall appear that in consequence of such deduction any Professor or Professors will be entitled to receive no share of the Fund, the same shall be distributed among the remaining Professors in the manner above prescribed.

(3) In no case shall the total emoluments of a Professor fall below either (a) the sum of £500, or (b) a sum equal to three-fourths of his Normal Salary, as set forth in the last-mentioned schedule, whichever of these may be the greater, and in the event of the Fee Fund, when distributed as in the preceding Sub-sections of this Section provided, being in any year insufficient, when added to the sums payable out of the Salaries Account, to make good the said sum of £500, or three-fourths of the Normal Salary of any Professor, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the General University Fund. This Sub-Section shall not apply to the Professors of Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery.

(4) Subject to the approval of the Universities Committee in terms of Section 6, Sub-section 10, of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, Professors appointed to Chairs which may hereafter be instituted by the University Court, shall receive such salaries, and shall have such interest, if any, in the Fee Fund, and on such conditions as may be fixed by the said Court when the said Chairs are instituted.

(5) No Professor shall, after the date of this Ordinance, be liable to make any payments in respect of the salaries of assistants or of class expenses.

IX. The Professors named in the first column of Schedule III. hereunto annexed shall, during their respective tenures of office, be entitled to receive in each year such payments, if any, out of the General University Fund as may be necessary to bring up their total income to the amount of the salaries set forth in the second column of the said Schedule. The payments made under the provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be in full of the compensation equitably due to the said Professors, or any of them, under the provisions of Section 14, Sub-section 5 (c) of the first-mentioned Act.

X. (1) The Professors specified in the first column of Schedule IV. hereunto annexed shall respectively be entitled to receive directly from the University Court the income from the endowments of their Chairs, and shall also be entitled to draw and retain for their own use the fees payable in the classes conducted by them.

(2) The Professors at the date of this Ordinance holding the Chairs referred to in the immediately preceding Sub-section shall, during their respective tenures of office, receive annually the emoluments set forth in the second column of the last-mentioned Schedule; and if in any year the amount of such emoluments payable to either of the said Professors exceeds the amount received by such Professor under the provisions of the immediately preceding Sub-section, the excess shall be made good to such Professor out of the General University Fund. The payments made under this Sub-section shall be deemed to be in full of the compensation equitably due to the said Professors, or either of them, under the provisions of Section 14, Sub-section 5 (c) of the first-mentioned Act.

XI. The whole revenues of the said University, other than those paid into the Salaries Account and the Fee Fund Account, but including any surplus income arising upon the Fee Fund, shall be paid to the account of the General University Fund, and shall, in so far as not specifically appropriated by any Act of Parliament, Ordinance, Deed of Endowment, or other instrument in force at the time, be applied by the University Court for the following purposes, which shall rank according to the order in which they are named, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained:—

1. Paying expenses of administration, including such provision as the University Court may think necessary to enable the Senatus Academicus and the General Council to discharge their duties, and including also such sum, if any, as the Court may think fit to grant towards the expenses of the Students' Representative Council.

2. (a) Providing for the pensions of existing or retired Professors who had right to such pensions prior to the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, and who are not subject to the powers contained in Section 14, Sub-section 9 of the said Act.

(b) Providing for such other pensions as may be payable under Ordinance, [Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, No. 2—Pensions to Principals and Professors], or any Ordinance repealing or amending the same.

(c) Making good to the Principal the salary hereinbefore mentioned, and in the event specified in Section VIII., Sub-section (3) hereof, making good to any Professor his salary to the extent provided in the said last-mentioned Sub-section.

(d) Making good to the Professors named in Schedule III., and presently holding office as the Professors specified in Schedule IV., hereunto annexed, such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Sections IX. and X. hereof.

(e) Paying to the Professors in the Faculty of Divinity (1) the income from the Endowments of the several Chairs, and (2) sums corresponding to the sums paid to the several Professors out of public moneys before the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889.

Payments under this Sub-section shall be made pari passu.

3. Providing for the upkeep of buildings.

4. Providing for the equipment and upkeep of Libraries, Museums, and Laboratories.

5. Providing (a) for the remuneration of Lecturers and Assistants, and of such additional Lecturers and Assistants as the Court may think fit to appoint, and of such additional Professors as may be appointed with consent of the Universities Committee in terms of Section 6, Sub-section 10, of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889; and (b) for the remuneration of Examiners (including any Professor who may be appointed to act as an Examiner at any examination other than an examination for graduation).

Payments under this Sub-section shall be made pari passu.

6. Providing to such extent as shall to the Court seem proper for maintaining the Normal Salaries of the Professors generally, or, if special cause be shown, of the Professors in any Faculty, in so far as the same are not sufficiently maintained by the sums payable out of the Fee Fund.

7. Providing to such extent as shall in special circumstances to the Court seem proper for augmenting the salary of any Professor.

8. Administering the remaining revenue for the benefit of the University in such manner as the Court shall think fit.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the University Court of the said University shall in each year apply, primo loco, out of the share of the Parliamentary Grant paid to it under Section I., Sub-section (1) hereof, the sum of £500 for the maintenance of the University buildings.

XII. In providing for the educational needs of the several Faculties in the University in accordance with Sub-sections 4, 5, and 6 of Section XI. hereof, the University Court shall have due regard inter alia to the contributions made by the Faculties respectively to the funds of the University.

XIII. The share of the said University of the accumulations of the Parliamentary Grants accruing prior to this Ordinance taking effect shall be applied to such purposes of the University as the University Court shall think fit.

XIV. (1) With a view to providing for the payment of the pensions mentioned in Section XI., Sub-section 2 (a), and of doing so without permanently encroaching on the capital funds of the University, it shall be the duty of the University Court to set aside each year out of its share of the Parliamentary Grants, or out of its general revenues, a sum not less than £4000, which sum shall be carried to the credit of an account to be called the 'Pension Fund.'

(2) Such sum shall continue to be set aside each year until the whole of the said pensions shall have expired, or until, on the report of an Actuary to be employed by the University Court, it appears that the Pension Fund, together with any accumulations of interest thereon, is sufficient to provide for all the said pensions which may still be payable.

(3) In the event of the claims for such pensions at any time exceeding the amount at the credit of the Pension Fund, it shall be in the power of the Court to draw upon the capital funds of the University, or to borrow upon the security thereof, to meet the deficiency; but the sums so drawn or borrowed shall be repaid to the said capital funds, or paid off, as the case may be, out of the said annual sums set aside as aforesaid, and such annual sums shall continue to be set aside until the said capital funds have been completely recouped, or the sums borrowed have been paid off as aforesaid.

(4) In the event of any sum remaining at the credit of the Pension Fund after all the pensions shall have lapsed, the same shall be added to the general capital funds of the University.

XV. No part of the Parliamentary Grants under the Acts above mentioned, save in so far as provided in Section 26, Sub-section 2 of the first-mentioned Act, shall be appropriated to any Chair in the Faculty of Theology, and a separate account shall be kept showing the application of the said Parliamentary Grants.

XVI. All Ordinances of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, are hereby repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with this Ordinance.

ORDINANCE No. 26.

[ABERDEEN, No. 2.—REGULATIONS AS TO APPLICATION OF PARLIAMENTARY GRANTS, AS TO SALARIES AND FOR THE INSTITUTION OF A FEE FUND, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.]

At Edinburgh, the fifth day of June eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by Section 14, Sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular:—(a) The amount, manner of payment, and appropriation of fees and other payments made by students; (c) the awarding of compensation to existing professors where compensation seems to the Commissioners to be equitably due, taking all the circumstances into account; and by the said Section, Sub-section 7, to regulate the salaries of principals, professors, lecturers, and assistants of professors and other University officers, to provide for the appointment of assistants, and to determine by whom the right of appointing assistants shall be exercised; and by the said Section, Sub-section 10, to ensure the due preservation and administration of the whole property, rents, revenues, endowments, and funds of the Universities, the preservation and maintenance of all the fabrics and buildings of or connected with the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the first-mentioned Act, and to make such provision as they may think necessary to enable the Senatus Academicus and the General Council to discharge their duties; and by Section 26, to apportion the annual sum of £42,000 to be provided by Parliament among the Universities in such shares as the Commissioners think just, and to prescribe how the share of each University is to be applied and expended: Provided that (1) no one of the said Universities shall receive a smaller sum than the average amount of public moneys, exclusive of building and other special grants, which such University has received during the five years preceding the commencement of the first-mentioned Act; and the University of Aberdeen shall, in addition to the average amount so received by it, receive an annual sum of three hundred and twenty pounds for the purchase of books for the library of the University; and (2) no portion of the said annual sum shall be appropriated to any chair in the Faculty of Theology beyond the sum, if any, which has been, within the twelve months preceding the commencement of the first-mentioned Act, granted for the endowment of such chair out of public moneys, but this restriction shall not apply to the chair or chairs of Hebrew or Oriental languages which may now or hereafter be attached to the Faculty of Theology; and by Section 14, Sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858.

And whereas by the Education and Local Taxation Account (Scotland) Act, 1892, the said Commissioners are empowered to determine the manner in and conditions under which the annual sum of £30,000 payable out of the Local Taxation (Scotland) Account is to be distributed by or under the direction of the Secretary for Scotland among the Universities of Scotland:—

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. (1) The University of Aberdeen shall receive the sum of £8400 as its share of the annual sum of £42,000, constituting the Parliamentary Grant divisible among the Universities under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889.

(2) The said University shall receive the sum of £6000 as its share of the annual sum of £30,000, constituting the Parliamentary Grant to the Universities under the Education and Local Taxation Account (Scotland) Act, 1892.

The said apportionments shall take effect as from the respective dates when the said Annual Grants became payable, but under deduction of the sums paid by the Commissioners to the said University ad interim.

II. The sums apportioned to the said University under the preceding Section shall form part of the revenue of the University, and shall be placed by the University Court to the account of the General University Fund.

III. The Principal of the said University shall receive the existing endowments of his office and such additional sum out of the General University Fund as shall make up his annual salary to £800.

IV. The fees payable for classes conducted by the Professors within the said University, specified in Schedule I., hereunto annexed, and the fees payable for such classes qualifying for graduation as may be conducted by University Lecturers appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 [General, No. 10—Regulations as to Assistants and Lecturers], shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be collected in such manner as the University Court may from time to time appoint, and shall constitute the Fee Fund hereinafter mentioned.

V. The University Court shall keep a separate account of the fees so collected, distinguishing those drawn in each class; and the account shall be called 'The Fee Fund Account.'

VI. It shall be in the power of the University Court from time to time to fix the fees in any of the classes within the University.

VII. (1) The whole sums payable to the said Professors in the said University (other than the fees drawn under the provisions of Section IV. hereof), and in particular (a) the income from Endowments, distinguishing the Endowments of each Chair, and (b) sums corresponding to the sums paid to the several Professors out of public moneys before the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, shall be annually placed by the University Court to the credit of a separate account to be kept by it, and to be called 'The Salaries Account.'

(2) There shall also be annually paid into the Salaries Account, out of the General University Fund, the sums set forth in the second column of Schedule II., hereunto annexed, as Endowments or Additional Endowments of the Chairs enumerated in the first column of the said Schedule II.

(3) In the case of any future Endowment, if the University Court is satisfied that it was the intention of the donor to raise the emoluments of the Chair to which it applies above the sum which would otherwise be payable to the Professor holding the Chair for the time being, it shall be in the power of the Court to direct that the income of such future Endowment shall not be placed to the credit of the Salaries Account, but shall be paid directly to the said Professor.

VIII. (1) The said Professors and their successors shall respectively receive annually out of the amount at the credit of the Salaries Account the sums paid into the said account in respect of their Chairs under Section VII. hereof, and shall also, subject as hereinafter provided, receive such sum from the Fee Fund as shall bring their salaries up in each case to the amount (hereinafter referred to as the Normal Salary) set forth in the second column of Schedule I., hereunto annexed.

(2) In the event of the Fee Fund, when added to the sums payable out of the Salaries Account, not being sufficient in any year to make good the Normal Salaries of the Professors, the claims of the Professors upon the Fee Fund shall in that year suffer a deduction proportionate to their Normal Salaries, and, if it shall appear that in consequence of such deduction any Professor or Professors will be entitled to receive no share of the Fund, the same shall be distributed among the remaining Professors in the manner above prescribed.

(3) In no case shall the total emoluments of a Professor fall below a sum equal to three-fourths of his Normal Salary, as set forth in the last mentioned schedule, and in the event of the Fee Fund, when distributed as in the preceding Sub-sections of this Section provided, being in any year insufficient, when added to the sums payable out of the Salaries Account, to make good the said three-fourths of the Normal Salary of any Professor, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the General University Fund.

(4) Subject to the approval of the Universities Committee, in terms of Section 6, Sub-section 10, of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, Professors appointed to Chairs which may hereafter be instituted by the University Court, shall receive such salaries, and shall have such interest, if any, in the Fee Fund, and on such conditions as may be fixed by the said Court when the said Chairs are instituted.

IX. The Professors named in the first column of Schedule III., hereunto annexed, shall during their respective tenures of office be entitled to receive in each year such payments out of the General University Fund as may be necessary to bring up their total income to the amount of the salaries set forth in the second column of the said Schedule. The payments made under the provisions of this Section shall be deemed to be in full of the compensation equitably due to the said Professors, or either of them, under the provisions of Section 14, Sub-section 5 (c) of the first-mentioned Act.

X. The whole revenues of the said University, other than those paid into the Salaries Account and the Fee Fund Account, but including any surplus income arising upon the Fee Fund, shall be paid to the account of the General University Fund, and shall, in so far as not specifically appropriated by any Act of Parliament, Ordinance, Deed of Endowment, or other instrument in force at the time, be applied by the University Court for the following purposes, which shall rank according to the order in which they are named, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained:—

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other Purposes, in the University of Edinburgh, and have ordered the same to be laid before Parliament, in terms of Section 20, Sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
5th June 1893.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 27.

[EDINBURGH No. 6. — REGULATIONS AS TO APPLICATION OF PARLIAMENTARY GRANTS, AS TO SALARIES AND FOR THE INSTITUTION OF A FEE FUND, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.]

At Edinburgh, the fifth day of June eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by Section 14, Sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular:—(a) The amount, manner of payment, and appropriation of fees and other payments made by students; (c) the awarding of compensation to existing professors where compensation seems to the Commissioners to be equitably due, taking all the circumstances into account; and by the said Section, Sub-section 7, to regulate the salaries of principals, professors, lecturers, and assistants of professors and other University officers, to provide for the appointment of assistants, and to determine by whom the right of appointing assistants shall be exercised; and by the said Section, Sub-section 10, to ensure the due preservation and administration of the whole property, rents, revenues, endowments, and funds of the Universities, the preservation and maintenance of all the fabrics and buildings of or connected with the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the first-mentioned Act, and to make such provision as they may think necessary to enable the Senatus Academicus, and the General Council to discharge their duties; and by Section 26 to apportion the annual sum of £42,000 to be provided by Parliament among the Universities in such shares as the Commissioners think just, and to prescribe how the share of each University is to be applied and expended: Provided that (1) no one of the said Universities shall receive a smaller sum than the average amount of public moneys exclusive of building and other special grants which such University has received during the five years preceding the commencement of the first-mentioned Act; and (2) no portion of the said annual sum shall be appropriated to any chair in the Faculty of Theology beyond the sum, if any, which has been, within the twelve months preceding the commencement of the first-mentioned Act, granted for the endowment of such chair out of public moneys, but this restriction shall not apply to the chair or chairs of Hebrew or Oriental languages which may now or hereafter be attached to the Faculty of Theology; and by Section 14, Sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858.

And whereas by the Education and Local Taxation Account (Scotland) Act, 1892, the said Commissioners are empowered to determine the manner in and conditions under which the annual sum of £30,000 payable out of the Local Taxation (Scotland) Account is to be distributed by or under the direction of the Secretary for Scotland among the Universities of Scotland:—

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Edinburgh, as follows:—

I. (1) The University of Edinburgh shall receive the sum of £15,120 as its share of the annual sum of £42,000, constituting the Parliamentary Grant divisible among the Universities under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889.

(2) The said University shall receive the sum of £10,800 as its share of the annual sum of £30,000, constituting the Parliamentary Grant to the Universities under the Education and Local Taxation Account (Scotland) Act, 1892.

The said apportionments shall take effect as from the respective dates when the said Annual Grants became payable, but under deduction of the sums paid by the Commissioners to the said University ad interim.

II. The sums apportioned to the said University under the preceding Section shall form part of the revenue of the University, and shall be placed by the University Court to the account of the General University Fund.

III. The Principal of the said University shall receive the existing endowments of his office and such additional sum out of the General University Fund as shall make up his annual salary to £1200.

IV. The fees payable for classes conducted by the Professors within the said University, specified in Schedule I., hereunto annexed, and the fees payable for such classes qualifying for graduation as may be conducted by University Lecturers appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 [General, No. 10—Regulations as to Assistants and Lecturers], shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be collected in such manner as the University Court may from time to time appoint, and shall constitute the Fee Fund hereinafter mentioned.

V. The University Court shall keep a separate account of the fees so collected, distinguishing those drawn in each class; and the account shall be called 'The Fee Fund Account.'

VI. It shall be in the power of the University Court, from time to time, to fix the fees in any of the classes of the University.

VII. (1) The whole sums payable to the said Professors in the said University (other than the fees drawn under the provisions of Section IV. hereof), and in particular (a) the income from Endowments distinguishing the Endowments of each Chair, and (b) sums corresponding to the sums paid to the several Professors out of Public Moneys before the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, shall be annually placed by the University Court to the credit of a separate account to be kept by it, and to be called 'The Salaries Account.'

(2) There shall also be annually paid into the Salaries Account out of the General University Fund the sums set forth in the second column of Schedule II., hereunto annexed, as Endowments or additional Endowments of the Chairs enumerated in the first column of the said Schedule II.

(3) In the case of any future Endowment, if the University Court is satisfied that it was the intention of the donor to raise the emoluments of the Chair to which it applies above the sum which would otherwise be payable to the Professor holding the Chair for the time being, it shall be in the power of the Court to direct that the income of such future Endowment shall not be placed to the credit of the Salaries Account, but shall be paid directly to the said Professor.

VIII. (1) The said Professors and their successors shall respectively receive annually out of the amount at the credit of the Salaries Account the sums paid into the said account, in respect of their Chairs under Section VII. hereof; and shall also, subject as hereinafter provided, receive such sum from the Fee Fund as shall bring their salaries up in each case to the amount (hereinafter referred to as the Normal Salary) set forth in the second column of Schedule I., hereunto annexed.

(2) In the event of the Fee Fund, when added to the sums payable out of the Salaries Account, not being sufficient in any year to make good the Normal Salaries of the Professors, the claims of the Professors upon the Fee Fund shall in that year suffer a deduction proportionate to their Normal Salaries; and if it shall appear that in consequence of such deduction any Professor or Professors will be entitled to receive no share of the Fund, the same shall be distributed among the remaining Professors in the manner above prescribed.

(3) In no case shall the total emoluments of a Professor fall below either (a) the sum of £500, or (b) a sum equal to three-fourths of his Normal Salary, as set forth in the last-mentioned schedule, whichever of these may be the greater, and in the event of the Fee Fund, when distributed as in the preceding Sub-sections of this Section provided, being in any year insufficient, when added to the sums payable out of the Salaries Account, to make good the said sum of £500, or three-fourths of the Normal Salary of any Professor, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the General University Fund. The preceding provisions of this Sub-section shall not apply to the Professor of Astronomy (formerly designated Practical Astronomy), but the said Professor shall be entitled to receive annually the full amount of his salary as set forth in Schedule I.; and if in any year the sums payable to him out of the Salaries Account and Fee Fund fall short of that amount, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the General University Fund.

(4) Subject to the approval of the Universities Committee in terms of Section 6, Sub-section 10, of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, Professors appointed to Chairs which may hereafter be instituted by the University Court, shall receive such salaries, and shall have such interest, if any, in the Fee Fund, and on such conditions as may be fixed by the said Court when the said Chairs are instituted.

(5) No Professor shall, after the date of this Ordinance, be liable to make any payments in respect of the salaries of assistants or of class expenses.

IX. The Professors named in the first column of Schedule III., hereunto annexed, shall during their respective tenures of office be entitled to receive in each year such payments, if any, out of the General University Fund as may be necessary to bring up their total income to the amount of the salaries set forth in the second column of the said Schedule. The payments made under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be in full of the compensation equitably due to the said Professors, or any of them, under the provisions of Section 14, Sub-section 5 (c) of the first-mentioned Act.

X. The present Professors of Medicine (formerly designated Practice of Physic), Pathology (formerly designated General Pathology), Materia Medica, and Midwifery (formerly designated Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children), shall, during their respective tenures of office, be entitled to draw and retain for their own use the fees payable in respect of the Classes of Clinical Medicine conducted by them; and the fees so payable to the said Professors shall be over and above the amounts to which they are respectively entitled under Sections VII., VIII., and IX. hereof. But after the expiry of the tenures of office of the said Professors, or of any of them, the fees paid in respect of such classes or class of Clinical Medicine shall in each case be drawn by the University Court, and paid into the Fee Fund of the University; and it shall be in the power of the Court, if it thinks fit, before the Fee Fund is distributed under the provisions of this Ordinance, to appropriate the said fees, or any portion thereof, to the remuneration of the Professors who may be appointed to conduct classes of Clinical Medicine, and to provide that such payments shall be in addition to the Normal Salaries assigned to such Professors, and shall not be taken into account in the application of Section VIII., Sub-section 3, hereof.

XI. The whole revenues of the said University, other than those paid into the Salaries Account and the Fee Fund Account, but including any surplus income arising upon the Fee Fund, shall be paid to the account of the General University Fund, and shall in so far as not specifically appropriated by any Act of Parliament, Ordinance, Deed of Endowment, or other instrument in force at the time, be applied by the University Court for the following purposes, which shall rank according to the order in which they are named, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained:—

1. Paying expenses of administration, including such provision as the University Court may think necessary to enable the Senatus Academicus and the General Council to discharge their duties, and including also such sum, if any, as the Court may think fit to grant towards the expenses of the Students' Representative Council.
2. (a) Providing for the pensions of existing or retired Professors who had right to such pensions prior to the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, and who are not subject to the powers contained in Section 14, Sub-section 9 of the said Act.
- (b) Providing for such other pensions as may be payable under Ordinance [Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, No. 2—Pensions to Principals and Professors], or any Ordinance repealing or amending the same.
- (c) Making good to the Principal the salary hereinbefore mentioned, and in the event specified in Section VIII., Sub-section (3) hereof, making good to any Professor his salary to the extent provided in the said last-mentioned Sub-section.
- (d) Making good to the Professors named in Schedule III. hereunto annexed, such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Section IX. hereof.

- (e) Paying to the Professors in the Faculty of Divinity (1) the income from the Endowments of the several Chairs, and (2) sums corresponding to the sums paid to the several Professors out of public moneys before the passing of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889.

Payments under this Sub-section shall be made pari passu.

3. Providing for the upkeep of buildings.
4. Providing for the equipment and upkeep of Libraries, Museums, and Laboratories.
5. Providing (a) for the remuneration of Lecturers and Assistants, and of such additional Lecturers and Assistants as the Court may think fit to appoint, and of such additional Professors as may be appointed with consent of the Universities Committee in terms of Section 6, Sub-section 10, of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889; and (b) for the remuneration of Examiners (including any Professor who may be appointed to act as an Examiner at any examination other than an examination for graduation).

Payments under this Sub-section shall be made pari passu.

6. Providing to such extent as shall to the Court seem proper for maintaining the Normal Salaries of the Professors generally, or, if special cause be shown, of the Professors in any Faculty, in so far as the same are not sufficiently maintained by the sums payable out of the Fee Fund.
7. Providing to such extent as shall in special circumstances to the Court seem proper for augmenting the salary of any Professor.
8. Administering the remaining revenue for the benefit of the University in such manner as the Court shall think fit.

XII. In providing for the educational needs of the several Faculties in the University in accordance with Sub-sections 4, 5, and 6 of Section XI. hereof, the University Court shall have due regard inter alia to the contributions made by the Faculties respectively to the funds of the University.

XIII. The share of the said University of the accumulations of the Parliamentary Grants accruing prior to this Ordinance taking effect shall be applied to such purposes of the University as the University Court shall think fit.

XIV. (1) With a view to providing for the payment of the pensions mentioned in Section XI., Sub-section 2 (a), and of doing so without permanently encroaching on the capital funds of the University, it shall be the duty of the University Court to set aside each year out of its share of the Parliamentary Grants, or out of its general revenues, a sum not less than £5000, which sum shall be carried to the credit of an account to be called the 'Pension Fund.'

(2) Such sum shall continue to be set aside each year until the whole of the said pensions shall have expired, or until, on the report of an Actuary to be employed by the University Court, it appears that the Pension Fund, together with any accumulations of interest thereon, is sufficient to provide for all the said pensions which may still be payable.

(3) In the event of the claims for such pensions at any time exceeding the amount at the credit of the Pension Fund, it shall be in the power of the Court to draw upon the capital funds of the University, or to borrow upon the security thereof, to meet the deficiency; but the sums so drawn or borrowed shall be repaid to the said capital funds, or paid off, as the case may be, out of the said annual sums set aside as aforesaid, and such annual sums shall continue to be set aside until the said capital funds have been completely recouped, or the sums borrowed have been paid off as aforesaid.

(4) In the event of any sum remaining at the credit of the Pension Fund after all the pensions shall have lapsed, the same shall be added to the general capital funds of the University.

XV. In the event of the University Court concluding an agreement with the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the maintenance of museums and class rooms in the Royal Botanic Garden, and for providing an adequate salary for the Professor of Botany in the University, it shall be competent to the Court, notwithstanding anything herein contained, to make over to the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury such portion of the fees of classes conducted by the said Professor as may be determined by such agreement.

XVI. No part of the Parliamentary Grants under the Acts above mentioned, save in so far as provided in Section 26, Sub-section 2 of the first-mentioned Act, shall be appropriated to any Chair in the Faculty of Theology, and a separate account shall be kept showing the application of the said Parliamentary Grants.

XVII. All Ordinances of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, are hereby repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with this Ordinance.

XVIII. This Ordinance shall, subject to the proviso hereinafter contained, come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council: Provided that it shall be competent to the University Court to postpone the operation of any of the foregoing provisions to such date, not being later than the commencement of the then ensuing academical year, as it may deem to be expedient having regard to existing financial arrangements.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to Pensions to Principals and Professors in the Universities of Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh; and have ordered the same to be laid before Parliament, in terms of Section 20, Sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
5th June 1893.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 32.

[GLASGOW, ABERDEEN, AND EDINBURGH, No. 2.
—PENSIONS TO PRINCIPALS AND PROFESSORS.

At Edinburgh, the fifth day of June eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by Section 14, Sub-section 9, to lay down the conditions and the scale on which pensions may be granted to Principals and Professors appointed by the Crown after the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and to all Principals and Professors to be appointed after the passing of the first-mentioned Act; and by the said Section 14, Sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858; and by Section 26 to apportion the annual sum of £42,000 to be provided by Parliament among the Universities in such shares as they shall think just, and to prescribe how the share of each University is to be applied and expended:

And whereas, by Section 28 of the first-mentioned Act, it is provided that the said annual sum granted in pursuance of that Act shall be deemed to be in full discharge of all past and present claims of the said Universities, or any past or present professor, member, officer, or servant of any of the said Universities to be maintained or paid out of public moneys, or to receive any portion of public moneys by way of salary, pension, or allowances or otherwise, in so far as such claims are based upon rights existing or alleged to exist at or before the passing of the first-mentioned Act, and on and after such day as aforesaid, all grants of public moneys in use to be made at or before the passing of the first-mentioned Act, to or on account of the said Universities, or any professor, member, officer, or servant of the said Universities, shall cease, and all liabilities, debts, and obligations incurred previously to the passing of the first-mentioned Act, by any of the said Universities, shall be defrayed by the said Universities respectively:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the Universities of Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, as follows:—

I. Any Principal or Professor, within the meaning of the first-recited enactment, desiring to retire from his office on a pension on the ground of age or infirmity, shall apply by petition to the University Court, stating the grounds on which his application is rested; and if the University Court, after due inquiry, shall be satisfied (1) that the petitioner has completed the sixty-fifth year of his age, or having completed the sixtieth year of his age has served as a Principal or Professor for thirty years or upwards, or (2) that by reason of infirmity he has become permanently incapable of discharging the duties of his office, he shall be entitled to retire from his office and to receive a pension on the conditions and the scale hereinafter set forth.

II. The pension to be granted to a Principal or Professor as aforesaid in any of the said Universities, retiring from his office on the ground of age or infirmity, shall be as follows; that is to say,—

To any Principal or Professor who shall have served for ten years, and under eleven years, an annual allowance equal to twenty-sixtieths of the annual emoluments of his office:

For eleven years, and under twelve years, an annual allowance equal to twenty-one sixtieths of such emoluments:

And in like manner a farther addition to the annual allowance, equal to one-sixtieth, in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of thirty years, when an annual allowance equal to forty-sixtieths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond thirty years.

III. In reckoning the years of service of a Principal or Professor, as aforesaid, under this Ordinance, the years during which he shall have held the office from which he retires, and also the years, if any, during which he may have held any other office of Principal or Professor in the same or in any other Scottish University, shall be taken into account. If a Principal or Professor as aforesaid, who has served for ten years or upwards in a Scottish University, either before or after the passing of the first-mentioned Act, has been, or shall be, transferred to another Scottish University, an amount equal to one-half of the pension to which he would have been entitled had he retired at the date of his transference, shall be contributed by the University Court of the University in which he formerly held office towards payment of the pension granted to him by the University Court of the University in which he held office at the date of his retirement.

IV. The annual emoluments of a Principal or Professor, as aforesaid, shall be taken to be the average emoluments of the office or offices held by him during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of retirement: Provided that in calculating the pension of a Principal or Professor no account shall be taken of any sums he may have received in any one year in excess of £900, which for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be held to be the maximum emoluments of a Principal or Professor.

V. In calculating the pensions of Principals and Professors, as aforesaid, a year of service shall be held to be a complete Academical year, except that the last year of service may, if the University Court thinks fit, be held to terminate at the end of any winter or summer session.

VI. Ordinance No. 9 [General.—Provision for a Professor, applying to be allowed to retire on a Retiring Allowance] and Ordinance No. 26 [General.—Rate and Conditions of Retiring Allowances] of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, are hereby repealed: Provided that such repeal shall not affect any Principal or Professor appointed before the passing of the first-mentioned Act, save only a Principal or Professor appointed by the Crown after the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two. Provided also that any grants of pensions by the University Court under the said Ordinances to any Principal or Professor appointed before the passing of the first-mentioned Act (which grants the said Court is hereby authorised to make) shall not require to be submitted to and approved by Her Majesty in Council.

VII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
