TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1893.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES'S PALACE, June 9, 1893.

NOTICE is hereby given that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday the 26th instant (instead of the 22nd instant, as previously announced), at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES'S PALACE, June 14, 1893.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Thomas, Lord Brassey, K.C.B., to be one of the Lords in Waiting in Ordinary to Her Majesty, in the room of Frederick, Lord Wolverton, resigned.

DOWNING STREET, June 15, 1893.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to approve of the use and recognition throughout Her Majesty's Dominions of the title of 'Honourable,' at present appertaining only locally to Members of Executive or Legislative Councils in Colonies possessing Responsible Government, for so long as they may remain entitled thereto, whether for life, or during tenure of the qualifying office.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ACTS, 1878 TO 1892.

The Board of Agriculture have appointed—

Board of Agriculture, 29th May 1893.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, June 16, 1893.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the Situation of Clerk of the First Division in the Legacy Duty Office of the Inland Revenue Department.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 21 and 25, and Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Examination.

II. No Candidate will be eligible who has not, before the date of the competition,—

- (a) Passed the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society of the United Kingdom, or
- (b) Passed the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland, or
- (c) Qualified as a Member of the Society of Writers to the Signet, or
- (d) Passed the Final Examination before the Board of Examiners of Law-Agents in Scotland; and no Candidate who has passed or qualified as above will be eligible if he cannot produce a certificate from the Solicitors, Writers to the Signet, or Law-Agents under whom he served his articles of apprenticeship, to the effect that in the course of his service he has been actually employed in Conveyancing and either in Chancery business or in Scottish business corresponding to the administration of estates in Chancery.

Every Candidate who has passed the Examination under head (a) or (b) must have served for five years as articled clerk, or apprentice in Ireland, to a Solicitor in actual practice, or for four years if he has proved his title to be admitted as a Solicitor after being articled or apprenticed for four years, or for three years if he is a graduate of a University in Great Britain or Ireland; and every Candidate who has qualified under head (c) or passed the examination under head (d) must have served for five years as an apprentice to a Writer to the Signet in actual practice, or to a Scottish Law-Agent in actual practice, or for three years if he is a graduate of a University in Great Britain or Ireland.

Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

III. The Examination will be in the following subjects:—

Obligatory Subjects:—

1. Handwriting and Orthography.
2. Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).
3. English Composition.
4. Law of Real and Personal Property (including Conveyancing).

Optional Subjects:—

5. History of England, and of the Constitution.
6. Any two of the following languages: Latin, French, or German.

IV. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

V. A fee of £2 will be required from every Candidate attending the Examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 1st August 1893. The number of situations to be filled will be ten, if so many Candidates shall be found to be duly qualified.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 20th July, an application in the handwriting of the Candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

THE AUSTRALASIAN MORTGAGE AND AGENCY COMPANY LIMITED.

Alteration of Objects of Company under 'The Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.'

NOTICE is hereby given that, in terms of the above Act, a Petition for Confirmation by the Court of an Alteration of the Memorandum of Association of the above-named Company with respect to the objects of the Company, was, on the 15th day of June 1893, presented to the Court of Session (Second Division,—Mr. Campbell, Clerk), by the said Company, by virtue of which Alteration Sub-sections 2, 3, 11, and 15 of the objects of the Company are modified so as to read as follows:—

2. To carry on the business of dealers in, and brokers of, wool, live and dead stock, and other articles and commodities produced in, or forming the subject of trade with, the Australasian Colonies (in which term are throughout these presents included Tasmania and New Zealand), and to buy or sell wool, live and dead stock, and other articles or commodities of the foresaid character on commission; or make shipments of the same, or any of them, for sale on commission; and to carry on the business of stock and station agents.
3. To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property in the Australasian Colonies, or in Great Britain, to erect buildings thereon, and otherwise to do what may seem expedient for the improvement, maintenance, and working thereof, as also to sell, let, feu, exchange, sub-let, or otherwise dispose of the same.
11. To give any guarantee or any security of the Company that may be required or agreed upon for the performance of any business undertaken by the Company, or for the due payment of any money invested by the Company, or entrusted to the Company for that purpose, or for any income thereof, as also to guarantee or become liable for and to undertake obligation for moneys, and for debts and contracts of every kind and description, upon such terms as may from time to time be considered desirable.
15. To increase the Capital of the Company, and to determine what preference or priority, if any, the holders of such new shares, or any of them, are to have over existing shareholders, as also to create Debenture Stock of the Company, and to issue the same for such consideration and at such premium or discount as to the Company may seem fit, and to confer such preference or priority, and such special security on the several classes of Debenture Stock in relation to any other class or classes of Debenture Stock, or in relation to other obligations of the Company, as to it may seem fit.

And their Lordships have been pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor:—

'Edinburgh, 16th June 1893.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form, and by Advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette and Scotsman and Times Newspapers, and allow all parties interested to
