Alteration of Objects of Company, under the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in terms of above Act, a Petition for confirmation by the Court of the alteration of the Memorandum of Association of the above-named Company with respect to the objects of the Company was, on 21st October 1893, presented to the Court of Session (Second Division,—M., Clerk), by the said Company, by virtue of which alteration the provisions of Section III. of the Memorandum of Association were altered by adding the following thereto:—

- (a) To purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any concessions, patents, patent rights, licenses, secret processes, trade marks, and copyrights which may be considered capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being.
- (b) To acquire, by absolute title, lease, or otherwise, and hold, let, and use lands, heritages, and other real property, and rights in lands, heritages, and other real property.
- (c) To draw, make, accept, endorse, and execute, and to discount Promissory Notes, Bills of Exchange, and other negotiable instruments.
- (d) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company by way of Discount, Cash Credit, or Overdraft, or upon Bond, Debenture, Promissory Note, or Deposit Receipt, or in any other manner; and for the purpose of raising or securing money to issue any Mortgages, Dispositions in security, Debentures, Debenture Stock Bonds, or Obligations of the Company, either at par, premium, or discount, and either redeemable or irredeemable, and either terminable or perpetual, secured upon all or any part of the undertaking, revenue, rights, and property of the Company, present and future; and in particular, and without prejudice to the foregoing generality, to borrow the sum of £200,000 from time to time, or at one time, in substitution for authorised Mortgage Debenture Bonds of the Company for the same amount; and for the purpose of raising and securing the same to issue Perpetual Mortgage Debenture Stock, secured in manner aforesaid; and to exchange or vary, from time to time, any such securities, and to confer any special rights and privileges on the holders of Mortgages, Dispositions in security, Debentures, Debenture Stock Bonds, or Obligations of the Company, or upon Trustees for them.
- (e) To buy or acquire the business, property, or undertaking of any other Company or Partnership carrying on any business which the Company may legally carry on, and to pay for such business, property, or undertaking in Cash, or in Shares, Stock, Debentures, or Debenture Stock of the Company, or partly in each of such modes.
- (f) To sell, dispose of, or transfer the business, property, and undertaking of the Company, or any Branch or part thereof, in consideration of payment in Cash, or in Shares, or Stock, or in Debentures, or Debenture Stock, or other securities of any other Company, or partly in each of such modes of payment, or for such other consideration as may be deemed proper, and to distribute the price, howsoever paid, among the Members, in satisfaction of their interest in the Assets of the Company.
- (g) To amalgamate with any other Company in the United Kingdom established for objects similar to any of those for which the Company is established.
- (h) To establish and regulate in the United Kingdom, or in the Colonies, or elsewhere abroad, agencies for any of the purposes of the Company.

And their Lordships have been pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor:—Edinburgh, 24th October 1893.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and Minute-Book in common form; and by circular to the Mortgage Debenture Holders and the Debenture Stock Holders of the Company, and by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette and Scotsman and Glasgow Herald newspapers, and allow all parties interested to lodge Answers within eight days after such intimation and advertisement.
