UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 39.

[GENERAL, NO. 11.—REGULATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.).]

At Edinburgh, the eighteenth day of November eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular (b) the course of study and manner of teaching, the length of the academical session or sessions, the manner of examination, the qualifications, appointment, and number of examiners, and the amount and manner of their remuneration; (d) the granting of degrees, and the institution of new degrees; (e) the institution of an examination either on entering the University, or as a preliminary condition of entering on the course of study for a degree in any Faculty, or of both such examinations; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858.

Therefore the Commissioners, under the first mentioned Act, statute and ordain as follows:—

I. No one shall be admitted to examination as a candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) unless he be a graduate in Arts of one of the Universities of the United Kingdom; or of any Foreign or Colonial University specially recognised for the purpose by the University Court.

II. The course of study in Law for the degree of Bachelor of Laws shall include the following subjects:—

- (1) Jurisprudence, General or Comparative, during a course of not less than forty lectures.
- (2) The Law of Nations or Public International Law, during a course of not less than forty lectures.
- (3) Civil Law, during a course of not less than eighty lectures.
- (4) Law of Scotland or Law of England, during a course of not less than eighty lectures.
- (5) Constitutional Law and History, during a course of not less than eighty lectures.
- (6) Conveyancing, during a course of not less than eighty lectures; or Mercantile Law, during a course of not less than eighty lectures.

- (7) Any two of the following subjects, namely, International Private Law, Political Economy, Administrative Law, and Forensic Medicine; in each case during a course of not less than forty lectures.

III. (1) The course of study necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Laws shall extend over three academical years, one of which at least must be spent in the University in which the candidate intends to graduate, the other two may have been spent in any other University or School of Law, specially recognised by the University Court.

(2) No candidate for a degree shall be deemed to have attended a class as part of the course of study necessary for that degree who does not present a certificate bearing not only that he has given regular attendance, but also that he has duly performed the work of the class.

IV. Candidates must undergo examination in the subjects prescribed in Section II. hereof; and they must pass at one examination in at least two of these subjects. Before presenting themselves in any subject the candidates must have attended the requisite course of instruction in such subject. Candidates who have passed an examination for another degree in any of the said prescribed subjects in the same University may be exempted from examination in such subject or subjects, provided that the examiners are satisfied that the previous examination in such subject or subjects has been passed on a sufficiently high standard.

V. Every candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws shall be examined both orally and in writing on each of the subjects in the course of study above prescribed in which he presents himself for examination.

VI. (1) Distinction may be awarded to candidates who have displayed exceptional merit in their examinations.

(2) For the degree of Bachelor of Laws a diploma shall be given, setting forth the subjects in which the candidate has passed, and the distinction (if any) he has attained.

VII. The examiners shall be the Professors of or Lecturers on the subjects included in the said examinations, and additional examiners appointed by the University Court. The mode of conducting the examination shall be fixed from time to time by the Senatus Academicus.

VIII. Every student who at the time when this Ordinance shall come into operation shall have completed a part of his course with a view to graduation as Bachelor of Laws in any Scottish University, under Regulations hitherto in force in that University, and shall thereafter complete his course of study in conformity with such Regulations, may become a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws without complying with the provisions of this Ordinance.

IX. Ordinance numbered 75 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, is hereby repealed, in so far as it is inconsistent with this Ordinance.

X. This Ordinance shall come into force at the beginning of the first academical year after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 40.

[GENERAL, No. 12.—REGULATIONS FOR DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAW (B.L.)]

At Edinburgh, the eighteenth day of November eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular (b) the course of study and manner of teaching, the length of the academical session or sessions, the manner of examination, the qualifications, appointment, and number of examiners, and the amount and manner of their remuneration; (d) the granting of degrees, and the institution of new degrees; (e) the institution of an examination either on entering the University, or as a preliminary condition of entering on the course of study for a degree in any Faculty, or of both such examinations; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858.

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. No one shall be admitted to examination as a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Law (B.L.) unless he be a graduate in Arts of one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, or of any Foreign or Colonial University specially recognised for the purpose by the University Court; or until he shall have passed—

A. The preliminary examination in the Faculty of Arts, or its equivalent, as specified in Ordinance No. 11 [General, No. 6.—Regulations for Degrees in Arts]; and

B. An examination in one of the Scottish Universities, to be conducted by the Examiners in Arts, in the following subjects, on the Standard of Examination for the Ordinary Degree of Master of Arts:—

- (1) Logic and Psychology; or, in the option of the candidate, Moral Philosophy.
- (2) Latin.
- (3) One additional Arts subject, not being one of those which belong also to the Faculty of Law.

And he must have studied at least one of these subjects in a full course in a Scottish University, or an equivalent course in another University approved by the University Court.

II. The course of study in Law necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law shall include the following subjects :—

1. Civil Law, during a course of not less than eighty lectures; or a half-course in Civil Law where in any University a full course is not available; provided that, in the latter case, candidates who are not already graduates in Arts shall be required to take in addition a course in such subject in Arts as may be sanctioned by the Senatus Academicus, or a half-course in one or other of the following branches of Law :—

- (a) Jurisprudence, General or Comparative.
- (b) The Law of Nations, or Public International Law.
- (c) Constitutional Law and History.
- (d) International Private Law.
- (e) Mercantile Law.
- (f) Administrative Law.

2. Law of Scotland, during a course of not less than eighty lectures.

3. Conveyancing, during a course of not less than eighty lectures.

4. Forensic Medicine during a course of not less than forty meetings of the class; or, in the option of the candidate, a half-course in one of the branches of Law specified in sub-section 1 of this section if not already taken.

III. (1) The course of study in Law necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law shall extend over two academical years.

(2) No candidate for a degree shall be deemed to have attended a class as part of the course of study necessary for that degree who does not present a certificate bearing not only that he has given regular attendance, but also that he has duly performed the work of the class.

(3) The candidate may prosecute his studies during the prescribed two years in one Scottish University, or in different Scottish Universities, or in a Scottish University and a University or School of Law specially recognised by the University Court; but one at least of these years must have been spent, and all the examinations in the subjects mentioned in the preceding section must have been passed, at the University in which he intends to graduate.

IV. The candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Law must undergo examination and pass in the four or more subjects selected by him; but he may present himself for examination in one subject or group of subjects at a time, provided that he has completed the course of study for such subject or group of subjects, and provided also that in that case a higher standard of proficiency shall be exacted.

V. Every candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Law shall be examined, both orally and in writing, on each of the subjects in the course of study above prescribed, in which he presents himself for examination.

VI. (1) Distinction may be awarded to candidates who have displayed exceptional merit in their examinations.

(2) For the Degree of Bachelor of Law a diploma shall be given, setting forth the subjects in which the candidate has passed, and the distinction (if any) he has attained.

VII. The examiners shall be the Professors of and Lecturers on the subjects included in the said examinations, and additional examiners appointed by the University Court. The mode of conducting the examination shall be fixed from time to time by the Senatus Academicus.

VIII. Every student who at the time when this Ordinance shall come into operation shall have completed a part of his course with a view to graduation as a Bachelor of Law in any Scottish University under Regulations hitherto in force in that University, and shall thereafter complete his course of study in conformity with such Regulations, may become a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Law without complying with the provisions of this Ordinance.

IX. Ordinance numbered 75 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, is hereby repealed, in so far as it is inconsistent with this Ordinance.

X. This Ordinance shall come into force at the beginning of the first academical year after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 41.

[GENERAL, No. 13.—HONORARY DEGREES.]

At Edinburgh, the thirteenth day of December eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 2, to regulate the powers, duties, jurisdictions, and privileges of the Senatus Academicus and of the Faculties; and by the said section, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and in particular (d) the granting of degrees:

And whereas it is expedient that the powers of the Senatus Academicus to grant Honorary Degrees be regulated.

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. The degree of Doctor of Divinity (D.D.), and the degree of Doctor of Laws (LL.D.), may as heretofore be conferred honoris causa.

II. (1) At the commencement of every session, the Senatus Academicus in each University shall appoint a Committee, to be called the Committee on the Degree of Doctor of Divinity, consisting of the Principal, three Professors from the Faculty of Theology (of whom the Professor of Divinity, or in St. Andrews the Principal of St. Mary's College, shall be one), and three other Professors to be selected by the Senatus Academicus from each of the other Faculties.

(2) It shall be the duty of this Committee to select persons to be recommended to the Senatus Academicus for the Degree; but the Committee shall not entertain applications from or on behalf of persons desirous of receiving the Degree.

(3) The Committee shall present a reasoned report, embodying its recommendations to the Senatus at the first meeting in March in each year.

(4) In the case of every person recommended for the Degree, the report shall contain a statement of the grounds on which the recommendation is founded, specifying such particulars as the Senatus may from time to time require.

(5) No resolution to confer the Degree of Doctor of Divinity shall be moved in the Senatus except upon special notice given after a fortnight has elapsed from the date when the report of the Committee shall have been presented.

III. (1) At the commencement of every session, the Senatus Academicus in each University shall appoint a Committee, to be called the Committee on the Degree of Doctor of Laws, consisting of the Principal and such Professors selected from the various Faculties as the Senatus Academicus may determine, provided that the total number of the Committee shall not exceed twelve.

(2) It shall be the duty of this Committee to select persons to be recommended to the Senatus for the Degree, but the Committee shall not entertain applications from or on behalf of persons desirous of receiving the Degree.

(3) The Committee shall present to the Senatus a reasoned report embodying its recommendations at the first meeting in March in each year.

(4) In the case of every person recommended for the Degree, the report shall contain a statement of the grounds on which the recommendation is founded, specifying such particulars as the Senatus may from time to time require.

(5) No resolution to confer the Degree of Doctor of Laws shall be moved in the Senatus except upon special notice given after a fortnight has elapsed from the date when the report of the Committee shall have been presented.

IV. This Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

ORDINANCE No. 42.

[GENERAL, NO. 14.—INSTITUTION OF BOARDS OF STUDIES IN THE FACULTIES OF MEDICINE AND SCIENCE].

At Edinburgh, the twentieth day of December eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and in particular (b) the course of study and manner of teaching.

And whereas it is desirable that a certain number of Lecturers in the University who may not be members of the Senatus Academicus should be associated with the Professors in the Faculties of Medicine and Science in regulating the course of study qualifying for graduation in these Faculties.

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. With regard to the Universities of Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh:—

(1) For the better carrying out of the purposes of Section VII., sub-section 4 (a) and (b), of Ordinances No. 14 [Glasgow, No. 1.—Regulations for Degrees in Medicine], No. 15 [Aberdeen, No. 1.—Regulations for Degrees in Medicine], and No. 16 [Edinburgh, No. 1.—Regulations for Degrees in Medicine], the Senatus Academicus in each of the said Universities shall institute a Board or Boards of Studies consisting of Professors in the Faculty of Medicine, together with such Professors in other Faculties whose subjects qualify for graduation in Medicine, and such of the Lecturers in the University appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 [General No. 10.—Regulations as to Assistants and Lecturers], as the Senatus may from time to time select.

(2) The Dean of the Faculty of Medicine shall be the Convener of such Board or Boards of Studies.

(3) It shall be the duty of such Board or Boards of Studies to consider the matters specified in the said Section VII., sub-section 4 (a), of each of the said Ordinances, and to report their opinion on the same to the Faculty of Medicine for consideration before transmission by the Faculty to the Senatus.

- (4) In carrying out the duty imposed upon them by the said Section VII., sub-section 4 (b), of each of the said Ordinances, the Professors and Lecturers shall submit the schemes therein mentioned to the Board or Boards of Studies, by whom the same shall be transmitted to the Faculty of Medicine, who shall submit them to the Senatus Academicus with such observations as they may think fit to make thereon.

II. With regard to the Universities of St. Andrews, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh :—

- (1) For the better carrying out of the purposes of Section VI., sub-sections 1, 2, and 3, of Ordinance No. 12 [General, No. 7.—Regulations for Degrees in Science], the Senatus Academicus in each of the said Universities shall institute a Board or Boards of Studies consisting of Professors in the Faculty of Science, together with such Professors in other Faculties whose subjects qualify for graduation in Science, and such of the Lecturers in the University appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 [General, No. 10.—Regulations as to Assistants and Lecturers] as the Senatus may from time to time select.
- (2) The Senatus shall appoint one of the members of such Board or Boards to be Convener thereof.
- (3) It shall be the duty of such Board or Boards of Studies to consider the matters specified in the said Section VI., sub-sections 1 and 2, of the said Ordinance, and to report their opinion on the same to the Faculty of Science for consideration before transmission by the Faculty to the Senatus.
- (4) In carrying out the duty imposed upon them by the said Section VI., sub-section 3, of the said Ordinance, the Professors and Lecturers shall submit the schemes therein mentioned to the Board or Boards of Studies, by whom the same shall be transmitted to the Faculty of Science, who shall submit them to the Senatus Academicus, with such observations as they may think fit to make thereon.

III. This Ordinance shall come into force at the beginning of the first academical year after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

[GENERAL, No. 15.—REGULATIONS AS TO EXAMINATIONS, SUPPLEMENTARY TO ORDINANCE No. 13.]

At Edinburgh, the thirteenth day of December eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS on the ninth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-two years, the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, issued an Ordinance No. 13, General No. 8, regulating, inter alia, the manner of examination, and the qualifications, appointment, and number of Examiners, whereby it is provided by Section IV. that the Joint Board of Examiners shall consist of four Professors or Lecturers and eight additional Examiners, one Professor or Lecturer and two additional Examiners being appointed in January of each year by the University Court of each University from among the Examiners appointed under Section II. of the said recited Ordinance; and whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be amended as hereinafter provided, the Commissioners under the said Act declare and ordain as follows :—

I. In Section IV. of the said recited Ordinance, instead of the words 'four Professors or Lecturers' there shall be substituted the words 'eight Professors or Lecturers;' and instead of the words 'one Professor or Lecturer' in the said section there shall be substituted the words 'two Professors or Lecturers;' and the following scheme of rotation, according to which the members of the Joint Board shall represent the different subjects of examination, shall be substituted for the scheme set forth in the said Section IV. :—

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 44.

[GENERAL, No. 16.—REGULATIONS FOR DEGREES IN ARTS, SUPPLEMENTARY TO ORDINANCE No 11.]

At Edinburgh, the thirteenth day of December eighteen hundred and ninety-three years.

WHEREAS on the third day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-two years, the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, issued an Ordinance No. 11, General No.

6, regulating the course of study for graduation in Arts; and whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be amended and explained as hereinafter provided, the Commissioners under the said Act declare and ordain as follows:—

I. In Section I., sub-section 2, of the said recited Ordinance, the words ‘in May’ shall be deemed to be deleted.

II. In Section III., sub-section 1, of the said recited Ordinance, after the word ‘curriculum’ shall be inserted the words ‘(subject to the proviso contained in Section IV., sub-section 1).’

III. Sub-section 9 of Section III. of the said recited Ordinance shall be altered to read as follows:—‘A candidate shall be obliged to pass in all the required subjects at one or not more than two examinations, provided that he may offer himself for re-examination as often as may be necessary to satisfy this condition.’

IV. At the end of sub-section 1 of Section IV. of the said recited Ordinance shall be added the words—‘Any student who has passed in Latin, Greek, or Mathematics on the higher standard may attend a qualifying class in such subject or subjects without having passed in the other subjects of the examination, provided always that (a) no candidate shall be allowed to present himself for examination in any subject qualifying for graduation until he has passed the whole Preliminary Examination, and (b) no student shall be admitted to a degree in Arts unless he has attended qualifying classes in the University granting the degree, or in another Scottish University, as provided by Section XXV. hereof, for three academic years after he has completed his Preliminary Examination.’

V. After Section IV., sub-section 3, of the said recited Ordinance shall be inserted the following sub-sections:—

‘(4) Attendance on a class of Mathematics or Natural Philosophy shall not qualify for graduation unless the candidate, before entering the class—in addition to the examination in Mathematics on the Lower Standard required of all students—has passed an examination in the following subjects:—

‘(a) Euclid: Book VI., Propositions 1–19, or Geometry equivalent thereto.

‘(b) Algebra: Quadratic Equations, Ratio and Proportion.

‘(c) The Trigonometry of Right-angled Triangles.

‘(5) A student, who, having passed the Arts Preliminary Examination in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, has thereafter obtained a certificate of attendance on a qualifying class of Mathematics, shall not be required to pass any further examination in Mathematics as a condition of entering on the course of study for graduation in Science under the provisions of Ordinance No. 12 [General, No. 7—Regulations for Degrees in Science].’

VI. The expression ‘Modern Language’ in Section VII., sub-section 2, and Section XI., sub-section 1 (g), of the said recited Ordinance, shall mean French, German, Italian, or Spanish.

VII. Modern Greek shall be included in the subjects recognised for graduation under the provisions of Section IX. (1. Language and Literature), of the said recited Ordinance, but shall not be held to be a substitute for Greek as prescribed under the provisions of Section VII., sub-sections 2 and 3 thereof.

VIII. The Senatus Academicus, in determining the courses to be attended within the Honours Group entitled 'English (Language, Literature, and British History),' and the character of the examination specified in Section XI., sub-section 1 (f), of the said recited Ordinance, shall regard English Literature as constituting the chief subject of the Group, the linguistic and historical subjects being regarded as subsidiary thereto.

IX. In addition to the syllabus of subjects specified in Section XVIII. of the said recited Ordinance, the Professors, and, in the case where a subject is taught by a Lecturer only, the Lecturer or Lecturers shall submit to the proper Board of Studies a syllabus of the subjects and books to be prescribed for the examinations for the Ordinary Degree of Master of Arts in the next academical year, and for the Honours examinations in the academical year next but one.

X. Section XXI. of the said recited Ordinance shall be altered to read as follows:—'In the case of a foreign student, whose native language is other than English, the standard required in English in the Preliminary Examination shall be such as the Joint Board of Examiners may deem sufficient. In the case of a student, whose native language is other than European, the Senatus may accept as an alternative to Latin or Greek any other classical language, such as Sanskrit or Arabic, subject always to the provisions of Section IV., sub-section 3, hereof.'

XI. Attendance on classes in the Faculty of Arts in which the teaching is on the standard at present recognised for the classes hitherto known as junior or middle classes, shall in no case qualify for graduation.

XII. This Ordinance shall come into force at the beginning of the first academical year after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council; provided that Sections III. and IV. hereof shall be held to have come into force on the first day of October Eighteen hundred and ninety-two.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
