

pension on the ground of age or infirmity, shall apply by petition to the University Court, stating the grounds on which his application is rested; and if the University Court, after due inquiry, shall be satisfied (1) that the petitioner has completed the sixty-fifth year of his age, or having completed the sixtieth year of his age has served as a Principal or Professor for thirty years or upwards, or (2) that by reason of infirmity he has become permanently incapable of discharging the duties of his office, he shall be entitled to retire from his office and to receive a pension on the conditions and the scale hereinafter set forth.

II. The pension to be granted to a Principal or Professor, as aforesaid, in the said University (including as aforesaid), retiring from his office on the ground of age or infirmity, shall be as follows; that is to say,

To any Principal or Professor who shall have served for ten years, and under eleven years, an annual allowance equal to twenty-sixtieths of the annual emoluments of his office:

For eleven years, and under twelve years, an annual allowance equal to twenty-one sixtieths of such emoluments:

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance, equal to one-sixtieth, in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of thirty years, when an annual allowance, equal to forty-sixtieths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond thirty years.

III. In reckoning the years of service of a Principal or Professor, as aforesaid, under this Ordinance, the years during which he shall have held the office from which he retires, and also the years, if any, during which he may have held any other office of Principal or Professor in the same or in any other Scottish University, shall be taken into account. If a Principal or Professor, as aforesaid, who has served for ten years or upwards in a Scottish University either before or after the passing of the first-mentioned Act, has been, or shall be, transferred to another Scottish University, an amount equal to one-half of the pension to which he would have been entitled had he retired at the date of his transference, shall be contributed by the University Court of the University in which he formerly held office towards payment of the pension granted to him by the University Court of the University in which he held office at the date of his retirement.

IV. The annual emoluments of a Principal or Professor, as aforesaid, shall be taken to be the average emoluments of the office or offices held by him during the period of five years immediately preceding the date of retirement: provided that in calculating the pension of a Principal or Professor no account shall be taken of any sums he may have received in any one year in excess of £900, which for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be held to be the maximum emoluments of a Principal or Professor.

V. In reckoning the years of service or the average emoluments of a Principal or Professor, no period of service in University College, Dundee, prior to the 21st day of March 1890, shall be taken into account.

VI. In calculating the pensions of Principals and Professors, as aforesaid, a year of service shall be held to be a complete Academical year, except that the last year of service may, if the University Court think fit, be held to terminate at the end of any winter or summer session.

VII. Ordinance No. 9 [General.—Provision for a Professor, applying to be allowed to retire on a Retiring Allowance] and Ordinance No. 26 [General—Rate and Conditions of Retiring Allowances] of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, are hereby repealed: provided that such repeal shall not affect any Principal or Professor appointed before the passing of the first-mentioned Act, save only a Principal or Professor appointed by the Crown after the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two: provided also that any grants of pensions by the University Court under the said Ordinances to any Principal or Professor appointed before the passing of the first-mentioned Act (which grants the said Court is hereby authorised to make) shall not require to be submitted to and approved by Her Majesty in Council.

VIII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of June 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' as amended by 'The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland under certain provisions of the said Act has been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland, (or as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in such Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such Repre-
