FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict. cap. 16, s. 42.

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT, 8 A.M. TO 8 P.M.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

Whereas the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 42, contains a special exception to the effect that, in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which the exception applies, the period of employment for young persons and women, if so fixed by the occupier and specified in the notice, may, except on Saturday, begin at 8 A.M. and end at 8 P.M., and on Saturday may begin at 8 A.M. and end at 4 P.M., or where it begins at 7 A.M. may end at 3 P.M., and the period of employment for a child in a morning set may begin at the same hour, and the period of employment for a child in the afternoon set may end at the same hour :

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section : and power is given to the Secretary of State to extend such exception to other classes of non-textile factories and workshops or parts thereof :

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that the non-textile factories and workshops of the classes, or the parts thereof mentioned in the schedule hereunder, by reason of the customs and exigencies of the trades carried on therein, require the extension thereto of this exception :

Now I, the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend the said exception to factories and workshops of such classes.

This Order shall come into effect on 10th September 1894, and shall continue in force until revoked.

H. H. ASQUITH.

Whitehall, 30th August 1894.

Schedule.

Such parts of non-textile factories and workshops as are used for the carrying on of the occupation of Pattern Card-making.

NOTICE.

INTIMATION is hereby given that there has been presented to the Sheriff of Roxburgh, Berwick, and Selkirk at Jedburgh, a Petition or Application of more than seven Householders in the Town of MELROSE and other places in its immediate vicinity, praying the Court to appoint and direct a proper person to ascertain and report the amount of the population of the area included within the following Boundaries, viz. :—

Commencing at a point marked 'A' on the Ordnance Survey plan of the Parish of Melrose, in the County of Roxburgh, lodged in the hands of the Sheriff-Clerk of the said County, at the north-east corner of the wall pertaining to Priorwood (formerly known as Priorbank) on the middle walk leading from Melrose to Newstead, and thence running in a southerly direction along the boundary wall of Priorwood until it reaches the turnpike road between Melrose and Newtown Saint Boswells at a point marked 'B' on the wall on the south side of said road on said plan, then turning in a westerly direction along the said wall until it reaches the Malthouse Burn Bridge at a point marked 'C' on said plan, then running in a southerly direction up the centre of said burn to a point where it is crossed by the bridge of the service road leading to Dingleton Mains marked 'D' on said plan, then along the centre of said service road in a southerly direction and up part of Dingleton Loan to a point marked 'E' on said plan, thence in a straight line to the south-east corner of field number 2539 on said plan, thence in a westerly and north-westerly direction along the southern boundary of ground number 2539 and south-western boundary of number 2538 to the point marked 'F' on the eastern side of the road leading from Melrose to Bowden, thence running in a southern direction on the east side of the said road till it reaches the point marked 'G' on said plan, thence turning in a westerly and northerly direction on the north and east side of the turnpike road leading from the District Lunatic Asylum to Darnick Vale until it reaches the point marked 'H' on said plan, thence along the fence on the northern side of the said turnpike road, thence along the said fence in a westerly and northerly direction to a point under the railway bridge marked 'I' on said plan, thence in a north-westerly direction along the north-eastern side of the North British Railway Embankment fence to a point marked 'J' on said plan opposite the hedge forming the west boundary of the small field marked 2132 on the said plan, thence along the east boundary of the field or market garden number 2125 of said plan until it reaches the road leading from Darnick to Broomilees, thence northwards along the east boundary of fields numbers 2024 and 2023 of said plan to the public road leading from Melrose to Galashiels at the north-east boundary of field number 2023, and marked 'K' on said plan, thence turning south-eastwards along said road to the point marked 'L' on said plan, then turning northwards along the east side of the road on the west side of ground belonging to the Waverley Hydrophatic Company Limited, number 1926 on said plan, to a point marked 'M' at the north-west corner of number 1926, and from thence to a point in the centre of the river Tweed marked 'N' on said plan, then turning eastwards and passing down the medium filum of the river until it reaches a point marked 'O' on said plan, thence turning southwards along the eastern boundary of the field number 1971 until it reaches the public road leading from Melrose to Newstead, thence turning eastwards and running on the north side of said road until it reaches the point marked 'P' on said plan, thence proceeding south along the eastern boundary of field number 2061 on said plan until it reaches the mill lade on the south side of the said last field, thence turning eastwards down the centre of the said mill lade until it reaches the point marked 'Q' on said plan, and opposite the north-western corner of number 2178 on said plan, thence turning southwards along the western boundary of number 2178 until it reaches the Malthouse Burn at a point marked 'R' on said plan, and thence proceeding up the centre of the course of that burn in a south-westerly direction until it reaches the foresaid middle walk leading from Melrose to Newstead at the point marked 'A' on said plan where the boundary began, all as delineated and shown with a red line drawn on said plan, all lying within the Parish of Melrose and County of Roxburgh, which area or part thereof forms a populous place within the meaning of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and is known as the Town of Melrose, with places contiguous; and thereafter to determine whether the area included in the said boundaries, or any part thereof, considering the number of dwelling-places within it and the density of the population, and all the circumstances of the case, is in substance a town and is suitable for being formed into a Police Burgh; and on the Court being satisfied on those points to define in a written Deliverance the boundaries of such populous place; (2) to find and declare that the said populous place as so defined is a Burgh within the meaning of the said Act, as amended by the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1893; (3) to grant Warrant to record said Application and the Deliverances thereon in the Court Books of the County of Roxburgh; and (4) to find and declare that the whole expenses incurred by the Pursuers and the Court in carrying out the procedure under said Petition shall be defrayed out of the Burgh General Assessment to be levied within the said Burgh, in terms of the said Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892.

Upon said Petition or Application the said Sheriff has issued the following Interlocutor:—

Edinburgh, 31st August 1894.—The Sheriff having considered the Petition, appoints intimation thereof and of this Deliverance to be given by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette for two consecutive weeks, and in the Southern Reporter newspaper, and also by handbills to be posted within the boundaries set forth in the Petition; and assigns Tuesday the 2nd day of October next, at half-past eleven o'clock, within the Corn Exchange Hall, Melrose, as a Diet for hearing all parties interested in the subject matter of the Petition; ordains the Petition and the Plan referred to therein to remain to that date in the hands of Mr. Ralph Dunn, Depute-Clerk of Court at Melrose, for inspection; further, appoints Mr. Alexander J. Lothian, Assessor, Galashiels, to ascertain the approximate number of the population within the limits of the boundaries proposed for the Burgh, and to report.

‘DAVID BOYLE HOPE.’

The said Petition or Application and the Plan referred to therein are in the hands of Mr. Ralph Dunn, Depute-Clerk of Court, Melrose, where all parties interested may inspect the same.
