

section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, uniting the Parish of Wilton and the Parish of Hawick into one Parish; and

Whereas, after consulting with the Authorities concerned, and causing a local inquiry to be held, I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir George Otto Trevelyan, Baronet, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The Parish of Wilton and the Parish of Hawick shall be united into one Parish, to be called the Parish of Hawick.

2. The debts, liabilities, property, and assets of the Parochial Board of Wilton and the Parochial Board of Hawick shall be transferred to the Parish Council of Hawick.

3. (1) From and after the date of this Order there shall be elected for the Parish of Hawick, exclusive of the area of the Burgh of Hawick, one and only one School Board, subject to the provisions following:—

(2) The School Board shall be elected at such date during the month of April 1895 as shall be fixed by the Scotch Education Department, and in such manner and in accordance with such regulations as the said Department shall determine.

(3) The School Board so to be elected shall not take office until the 15th day of May 1895, and shall hold office only for the unexpired period of office of the existing School Boards of the Parishes of Hawick and Wilton.

(4) So soon as the School Board so to be elected shall take office, but not sooner, the said existing School Boards shall cease and determine, and their whole powers, rights, duties, property, liabilities, debts, officers, and servants shall be transferred to the School Board so to be elected.

4. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests.

This Order shall take effect immediately for all purposes connected with Parish Council and School Board elections, and on the 15th day of May 1895 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal of Office at Whitehall this 21st day of January 1895.
