ORDINANCE No. 67.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 9.—REGULATIONS FOR YEAMAN AND STUART BURSARY IN ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.]

At Edinburgh, the fourth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alterations; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds; provided that in framing such regulations or making such alterations the Commissioners shall take care not to diminish the advantages provided for poor students by such foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, or bursaries aforesaid: And whereas Mr. Alexander Yeaman, Doctor of Medicine in Dundee, did by testament dated the fourteenth day of December sixteen hundred and sixty-nine, leave, mortify, and in legacy dispone to and in favour of the New and Old Colleges of St. Andrews in Fife, for the 'special use, behoof, utility, and profit of an Bursar to be yearly sustained, educated, and bred at ilk one of the said Colleges,' the sum of 3000 merks Scots money: And whereas by bond, dated the ninth day of February seventeen hundred and fifty, Colonel Arthur Forbes, in corroboration of the said will of the said Dr. Alexander Yeaman, conveyed to the Principal and Professors of St. Mary's College, St. Andrews, the sum of £1295, 9s. 1d. Scots, with accumulations of interest thereon, for the foundation of a bursary in the said College in terms of the will of the said Dr. Alexander Yeaman: And whereas there is at present in St. Mary's College, St. Andrews, a bursary on the foundation of the Rev. James Stuart, formerly rector of George Town and All Saints, South Carolina, and Chaplain to the King's Rangers in North America: And whereas the value of the two bursaries on the said foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of the said Alexander Yeaman alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of the said Rev. James Stuart alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore ; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patrons, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold the bursary which shall first fall vacant during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the said existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Yeaman and Stuart Bursary ; and so on as often as the said Yeaman and Stuart Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 12.—REGULATIONS FOR RAMSAY FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the fourth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act) the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries, held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas by deed of mortification, dated the fourth day of June sixteen hundred and eighty-one, Mr. John Ramsay, minister of Markinch, in the county of Fife, mortified his lands of Duniface, in the said parish and county, for the education and entertainment of three youths at School and College in St. Andrews, in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said deed more particularly set forth: And whereas the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, issued Ordinances numbered 10 and 87, making regulations for the Ramsay Foundation in the University of St. Andrews: And whereas there are now on the said foundation eight bursaries in the patronage of Sir Alexander Ramsay, Baronet, of Balmain, and two scholarships, open to competition, and it appears to the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the said regulations, in manner hereinafter provided:

ORDINANCE No. 76.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 18.—REGULATIONS FOR MONCREIFFE AND RORIE FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh, the fourth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard, in the University of St. Andrews, a bursary known as the Moncreiffe Bursary, on the foundation of the Rev. Henry White, Dean of Brechin, of date in or about the year fifteen hundred and fifty-four, which is in the patronage of Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe; and a bursary, also in the said United College, on the foundation of James Rorie, Meikle, of date in or about the year eighteen hundred and nineteen, which is in the patronage of the Lord Playfair: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of St. Andrews, as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of the Rev. Henry White and the said bursary on the foundation of James Rorie shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary, and the holder of the Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary shall receive the free annual income of the said two foundations in the said United College.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of the Rev. Henry White alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of James Rorie alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing, the Senatus Academicus may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary; and so on as often as the said Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. The patronage or right of presenting to the said Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary shall be vested in Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, and his heirs, and the Lord Playfair and his heirs; and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said persons and their heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held to belong to and shall be exercised by Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, or his heirs; and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary, the right of presenting thereto shall be held to belong to and shall be exercised by the Lord Playfair or his heirs; and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

IV. The said Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in the immediately succeeding section hereof.

V. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Moncreiffe and Rorie Bursary.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on either of the said foundations at the date of its coming into force.
