SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

February 20, 1896.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

(SECOND LIST).

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

The President, Council, and Members of the Royal Scottish Academy of Painting, Sculpture, and Architecture, desire to approach Your Majesty with their humble expression of sorrow for the sad calamity which has fallen on Your Majesty by the death of your much beloved son-in-law, His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg.

Devoting himself to the service of his adopted country, his early removal by death cannot fail to be deplored by all Your Majesty's subjects; and in the feeling of sympathy that has been evoked throughout the Empire with Your Majesty in your affliction, and that of Your Royal House, the members of the Royal Scottish Academy desire respectfully to unite.

In name of the Royal Scottish Academy.

GEORGE REID, President.

GEORGE HAY, Secretary.

To Her Majesty VICTORIA, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,

The humble and sincere Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, met together this day, beg leave to express our great sympathy at the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg.

With a deep sense of the high character and the many accomplishments which so distinguished the late Prince, who has lost his life in the service of the country, we beg most respectfully to convey to Your Majesty the assurance of our heartfelt sorrow for you and for Her Royal Highness the Princess Beatrice in this great bereavement, and of our fervent prayer that it may please Almighty God to sustain Your Majesty and Her Royal Highness the Princess Beatrice with all endurance and consolation under the sudden and
