ORDINANCE No. 150.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 23.—FOUNDATION OF BERRY CHAIR OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fifth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six years.

Whereas by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such course seems desirable, and where there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the Patronage of such Professorships shall be vested :

And whereas by will dated the twenty-third day of September eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, the late David Berry, Esquire, of Coolangatta, New South Wales, bequeathed to the University of St. Andrews the sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, which is now vested in and at the disposal of the University Court of the said University: And whereas the said University Court has resolved to set aside out of and as a first charge upon the free income of the said bequest of One Hundred Thousand Pounds the sum of Five Hundred Pounds per annum for the endowment and during the existence of a Chair of English Literature in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard in the said University :

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of St. Andrews, as follows :—

I. There shall be a Professorship of English Literature in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard in the University of St. Andrews (to be called the Berry Chair of English Literature in the University of St. Andrews), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

II. There shall be paid to the said Professor the sum of £500 per annum out of the free income of the said bequest by the late David Berry, Esquire, and so soon as a Fee Fund is established in the said University, the Professor shall have such claim on the Fee Fund as if his normal salary had been fixed at £600, such claim to rank pari passu with and be subject to the same conditions as the claim of any other Professor whose normal salary is £600. Until such Fee Fund be established, the Professor shall be entitled to draw and retain for his own use the fees payable in the classes conducted by him.

III. So soon as a Fee Fund is established the fees of the students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund.

IV. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor, as in the case of other Professors in the University.

V. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of St. Andrews.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
