ADJUSTMENT ORDER No. XIII.

(PARISHES OF STRONSAY AND EDAY.)

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the School Board of the Parish of Eday (hereinafter referred to as the Eday School Board), that I should, under Section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and Section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, issue an Order for the adjustment of a difference between the said School Board and the School Board of the Parish of Stronsay (hereinafter referred to as the Stronsay School Board), in regard to the constitution of the Governing Body of the Endowment known as the Airy Mortification, regulated by a Scheme under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, approved by Her Majesty in Council on the 7th day of February 1888, the said difference being consequential on the division of the former Parish of Stronsay and Eday, made by an Order under my hand and seal in pursuance of the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, of date the 1st day of August 1895:

And whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted, and I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation as hereinafter provided:

(2) At such meeting, and thereafter from time to time, the Governing Body shall appoint a Clerk and Treasurer, and shall fix his remuneration.

(3) The Governing Body shall hold at least one ordinary meeting in each year, at such time and place as they may from time to time determine. Notice of every meeting shall be delivered or sent by post to every Governor by the Clerk ten days before the meeting.

(4) On the written requisition of any two Governors, the Clerk shall summon, on ten days' notice, a special meeting of the Governing Body to consider any business specified in the requisition.
